OBITUARY.

Miss Ann Pulsifer.

The community was saddened in deed when on Sunday morning, April 14, it was learned that Miss Ann Pulsifer had passed away, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robt. Jennings, of Chaswood, at the advanced age of 90 years.

The deceased was a former resident of Wittenberg and was highly respected and beloved by her relatives and friends. She went last Fall to spend her remaining years with her niece, Mrs. Jennings, in whose hospitable home, where every kindness and attention were shown her, she passed peacefully away, on Apr. 14th after a few weeks illness of pleurisy followed by heart failure.

After a short service at Chaswood the remains were taken to Wittenberg, where funeral service was conducted by Rev. Harlan H. Phinney, pastor of the Baptist church.

The remains were interred in the picturesque cemetery at Wittenberg.

Miss Pulsifer was a faithful and devoted member of the Wittenberg Baptist church and for many good works and acts of kindness performed by her during her life time, she will surely hear the "Well done, good and Faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

LOBSTER FISHERMAN DROWN

Mr. William Ansterd, a fisherman employed at the Lobster packing plant of Mr. Weldon Jamieson, Gulf Shore lost his life, by drowning on Friday 26th.

The deceased was a native of Ship Harbor, N. S. He has fished along the coast for the past 15 yrs, coming up for the fishing season and returning to his home at the close. This year his wife and two children accompanied him, all of whom were employed at the factory.

The body was recovered on Saturday and brought to F. M. Brown's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial. An inquest was held on Saturday afternoon before H. Eldred Smith J.P., and J. D. Reid, J.P.

A jury was impaneled as follows: S. P. Borden, foreman, C. P. Ash, E. R. Mills, M. McLeod, Andrew MacKay, J. H. Hayward, J. T. Murray, N. P. Wilson, W. L. Fraser, A. McLeod, A. Murray, Chas Akerley.

Mr. Weldon Jamieson, who was with deceased in the boat at the time of the accident stated that he and deceased left the shore in motor boat about 1 p. m. on Friday 26th. We ran the 1st line and circled around to start the 2nd. We stopped the boat to get the line in readiness. I could not get the engine started and deceased came forward and started it. He went aft again and told me to steer straight for the shore. The last I saw of him in the boat was in a sitting position in the transom with a coil of rope in his lap. I did not hear him looking around saw the deceased in the water. I shut the engine off and tried to pull the boat back. Deceased was in an upright position with his shoulders well out of the water and apparently trying to swim.

I called him to catch the line. I threw the ice pole to him, but he went down before it reached him. As he sank he cried out, "My God, I'm gone. He did not reappear. I would judge it to be two or three minutes from the time he went over until he sank.

After viewing the remains and hearing the evidence of Weldon Jamieson the jury returned the following verdict:

"We the undersigned, appointed as Jury to ascertain the cause of the death of Wm. Ansterd find as follows: That deceased came to death on the 26th day of April 1918 by drowning and from evidence adduced we believe it to have been accidental and that no blame can be attached to any person."

The widow and two children left with the remains on Monday morning's Express for Ship Harbor, where interment will be made.—Oxford Journal.

THE LATE MISS GERTRUDE BARNHILL, FORMERLY OF BELMONT.

Drowned in a Bathing Tank in Maricopa, Calif.

The Truro News has already referred to the sad and untimely death of Miss Gertrude Barnhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnhill of Belmont, Col. Co., N. S., by drowning in a bathing tank in Maricopa, Kern Co., Calif.

Letters from Maricopa, received by Belmont relatives, indicate that Miss Barnhill was climbing from the tank when she fell back into the water; and, tho a diver soon got the body, life was gone. It is believed she was seized with a sharp attack of heart failure and was drowned at once.

A Maricopa newspaper has the following in regard to this sad event:—

Barnhill Funeral Is Held Today at Bakersfield.

The remains of Miss Gertrude Barnhill were laid to rest in the family plot at Union Cemetery, Bakersfield today, May 15.

The funeral service was held from the Taft First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Snell officiating. By the profusion of beautiful flowers sent by sorrowing friends a glowing tribute was paid the deceased. Altho here only a short time she had made many staunch friends.

Miss Barnhill met her death by accidental drowning while bathing with friends in a water storage tank on the August Oil Company property. She was rescued in a short time and willing hands aided by modern science worked hard to restore a spark of life but to no avail.

The deceased has been a school teacher in Alberta, Canada, and came here as a guest of her sister, Mrs. L. S. McNutt. After a three months visit she decided to make her home here and had applied for a transfer of credentials. These credentials arrived the next day after her death.

The surviving relatives are a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnhill; two sisters, Mrs. Carruthers and Mrs. Stevens, a brother, Everett, all of Nova Scotia; two sisters, Mrs. Welton and Mrs. Fawcett and a brother, Henry of Alberta; a brother, Gordon, of Winnipeg and a sister, Mrs. L. S. McNutt of Maritopa.

DEATH OF CAPT. R. S. WATSON OF STEWACKE.

The community was saddened by the sudden death of Capt. R. S. Watson, on the morning of May 13th. The deceased was in his usual good health, up to the time of his death and passed away, while taking a morning sleep.

The "Veteran Capt." as he was familiarly called, possesses a genial, cheerful disposition. He was a highly respected citizen, with a kind obliging manner which won the esteem of all.

He leaves to mourn a loving wife, to whom deepest sympathy is extended and one daughter, Mrs. Wallace Nelson, of Truro; also six grandchildren and three sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Libbie Nelson California; Mrs. Thomas Dingle and Mrs. S. B. Turple, Admiral Rock. The brothers are Louis Watson of California and Isaiah of Connecticut U.S.A.

The funeral from the home was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Ross officiated. A large number followed the remains to Pine Grove Cemetery, Stewiacke, where interment was made. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Among them a wreath from his wife and daughter; from Mrs. Maggie Thompson and family, Truro, a handsome bouquet of cut flowers; from the staff of the Shubenacadie River Fishermen, of which he was a valued favorite, An Anchor—a most artistic and beautiful emblem.

TWO AT A TIME.

One of our younger merchants who whose familiar name sounds like that of the Premier of Canada went a fishing the other day. He journeyed up the Musquodoboit Valley. He caught some fish. Like Mr. and Mrs. Spratt, some trout liked bait some like fly. He gave them both on the same line. They came at him two at a time and his partner had some difficulty in holding him in the boat he was so anxious to get in the water to catch the evasive trout.—Amherst News.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poisoning now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is alleviated and soon the entire corn, pot and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue of skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

MRS. MARVIN T. CROWE PAST AWAY AT HER HOME ROBIE STREET, TRURO, MAY 27.

All relatives and friends will learn with surprise and regret that Mrs. Marvin T. Crowe had past away this morning at 8.30 o'clock, at the home residence, Robie Street, Truro, N. S.

Mrs. Crowe had not been in very robust health for the past year; on the 23rd, she contracted a severe cold which quickly developed into pluro pneumonia.

All that medical attendance and tender nursing could do to bring relief from her suffering availed not and when early today this young wife and mother expired.

Mrs. Crowe, leaves to mourn their irreparable loss, her husband, two sons, Marvin Crowe, Jr., and John Crowe, and one daughter, Miss Louise Crowe, all at home.

She is also survived by her father, C. G. R. Conductor I. L. Barnhill, Queen Street, Truro, and by two sisters, Mrs. William Haley, Attleboro, Mass, and Miss Emma Barnhill, Truro; also three half brothers, Lieut. Logan Barnhill of the Royal Air Force, England, Mr. Nevil and Harry Barnhill, and one sister, Miss Grace Barnhill, at home.

All Truro friends extend sincere sympathy to Mr. Crowe and his family at this time of sad bereavement.

MR. GEORGE L. HARRINGTON, FORMERLY PROPRIETOR OF C. G. R. DINING ROOM, TRURO, DIED MAY 25th, AT MIDDLETON, N. S.

The friends here of Mr. George L. Harrington will regret to learn that he past away May 25th at Middleton, Annapolis County, N. S.

Mr. Harrington for a number of years was proprietor of the Government Railway Dining Room at Truro, N. S. He was a genial and competent business man, highly esteemed by all who enjoyed his acquaintance. The decease has been in poor health for a long time. For the past six years he made his home with his sister at Middleton, N. S.

This body of this former Truro citizen past thru here today on the Ocean Limited, at 9.30 a. m. en route to Shediac, N. B. for interment.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MISS JESSIE AGNES JARVIS MAY 25, 1918.

The funeral services of the late Miss Jessie Agnes Jarvis, were held from the residence of Mr. C. B. McMullen Park Street, at 2.30 o'clock on Saturday May 25.

Rev. G. W. F. Glendinning, pastor of the Pleasant Street Methodist Church, Truro officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. D. W. Johnson. The choir of the Pleasant Street Church rendered appropriate hymns. The Pall bearers were:—

Alfred Crowe
W. L. Conner
Percy Bentley
E. A. Murray
Thos. Pattillo
Lieut Fred Huntley

Miss Jarvis was laid to rest in the casket dressed in her uniform of a Red Cross Nurse. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes from loving relatives and friends.

Among those who in this manner express their last tributes of respect and sympathy were the following:— Mother and Ralph; Mr. and Mrs. John McDowell and Susie; Charlie Gwendoline; Capt. C. S. McArthur Clarence McDowell and family. Mrs. and Miss Whidden Mr. and Mrs. Will Lawrence and Miss Snook.

Interment was in the Truro Cemetery, Robie Street, Rev. Mr. Glendinning conducting the committal service.

ROYAL HORSE FLESH.

Mr. William McManus, Truro was in New Glasgow for a few hours Monday. Mr. McManus recently sold his handsome, "Bred in the Blue" stallion, to Mr. Langille of the above named town. Those desiring to have something classy, and swift, that is horse breeders should look this horse over.

Mr. Spurgeon Gammon, also purchased from Mr. McManus, a fine, gilt edge fast one. We expect to be able to report some exciting performances by these "gooduns" on the local race track in the near future.

A MOB RULED IN HALIFAX.

On Saturday night in the city of Halifax there was an awful exhibition of the violence for some hours of mob rule.

Two sailors were arrested on some trifling charge, one was taken to the police station and the other escaped. A crowd of soldiers, sailors and civilians, then made a rush for the City Hall. The police arrested several returned soldiers. Their comrades went to their rescue and their disorder broke loose, and the dangerous situation was not under control until an armed detachment of sailors and marines from a warship was brought ashore to maintain order.

The City Hall was badly damaged and battered; probably damage to the extent of $5000 was done to city property.

As a result of the disturbance, the Police Station was guarded Sunday by the City Police and an armed military guard, military and naval pickets were parading the streets. All soldiers were confined to their barracks, and hospitals, while the sailors were kept on board their ships.

The whole was a most deplorable affair for the city of Halifax, that has ever had a good name as a law-abiding community. Fortunately no lives were lost, tho some pretty severe injuries were received both by rioters and policemen.

NOTES FROM OXFORD.

Max Peel, a son of Weldon Peel, of Truro, who was in active service in France and was wounded in the shoulder at the battle of Vimy Ridge, was in town visiting relatives for a few days. His shoulder and arm have been fixed by artificial means.

John Allison Temple of Valley View Farm Truro, formerly of Brule who graduated from the N.S.A.C. College in April, enlisted in the R.F.C. and is in Toronto training. This young soldier who is just 20 yrs. old is a nephew Mrs. Leander Johnson, Williamdale.—Oxford Journal.

THREE YEARS PRISONER.

Sgt. Luther Reid Writes from the Hague.
We are in receipt of a card from Sgt. Luther Reid, dated at the Hague, Holland, May 7, 1918.

This lad we believe is a native of Stellarton, though his mother resides in Truro. He went over early in the war, and was taken prisoner at the Hill 60 fight in April 1915. The fact that he is now in Holland, would seem to indicate that he is now out of the clutches of the Huns possibly en route back to England.

A Mild Pill for Delicate Women—
The most delicate women can undergo a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills without fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable, no violent pains or purgings follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.
