Man Robbed of $225 Must Now Answer Serious Charge

TORONTO, May 20.-Charles Shoulder, was called today in the criminal session to testify against Geo. Mc-Grath and Michael Burns, convicted of stealing $225 from him. His right name is Charles Oxborough. An odd feature of the case is that complaint is being held on the charge of stealing the money that was stolen from him by the prisoners. Oxborough, it is said, stole the money from a man named Charles Shoulder, and then assumed his name. Oxborough hails from Massillon, Ohio. Shoulder lives here. Oxborough will be extradited. McGrath and Burns lured Oxborough into a lane on Adelaide Street and assaulted and robbed him. Sentence was deferred until the close of the
