

Creating a Demand

A sufficient reason for the increasing demand that our clothing is creating is: Good wearing material and solid construction combined with low price.

Good serviceable wearing suits from $8.50 to $4.00.

All-wool Tweed Suits—would be a decided bargain for $8.00; our price is $5.00.

Blue and Black Clay Worsted Suits, well worth $10.00 and $12.00; our low price is but $8.00 and $9.50.

Pure, All-wool, Scotch Tweed Suits, regular price, $12.00 and $14.00; we don't charge but $10.00.

THE GREAT PRESERVER AND RAIN EXCLUDER

THE PAINT

has grown steadily in public favor, and is no place more popular than where it was first used. It is a sure and positive cure for leaks in a tin or iron roof, and as a preservative of wood it has no equal. Write for particulars and prices.

We have scores of testimonials as to its merits.

ROOFING

We do iron, cement, and gravel roofing and guarantee good work in every case.

We sell our paint by the gallon or barrel, or will contract to repair your roof or any woodwork liable to decay.

If you want a new roof or an old one repaired, let us hear from you.

DELTA

There were glad tidings of great joy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Phelps when a young daughter arrived to be one of the guests.

A particularly sad death occurred on the 5th inst., when Mrs. Ann Eliza Hill, wife of P. K. Hill, died at the age of fifty-four years. She was buried in Athens cemetery. Her husband and three children mourn her loss, and they have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

William Beatty, Esq. M. P. P., of Parry Sound, visited his friends last week in Delta.

If you want, good, light-weight and solid Granby rubbers, go direct to Thomas Hazelton's old established shoe store. The Granby rubbers will wear longer than the other kinds.

CRIPPIN CORNERS

W. Charland is doing quite a trade in chickens this season. He ships to Toronto.

W. Chase has a full staff of men at work in his brick and tile yard.

One of our young farmers is desirous of securing a wife to help him accumulate a fortune. He does not want one of those young girls, but one that has age and some sense. He is not looking for a wife with money, for he has the farm, house and out-buildings all in first class order. If some one of your female readers will correspond with your correspondent, I think I can find her a good man and a home providing all is agreeable.

Robert Lamming's mail contract will soon expire. Now, who will be the next lucky man? The Post Office Department is open for tenders and the man that will carry the mail for nothing and board himself will get the contract, providing he can get someone to go his bail for the fulfilment of his contract.

Chester Lockwood is having a good deal of trouble in securing his heavy crops of grain, owing to the ground being so wet that he cannot use his new binder.

J. Lamming has W. Topping engaged for the season to assist him in running his steam thrasher.

PHILLIPSVILLE

Some of the farmers are trying to finish their harvesting but they are having hard times owing to the soft ground.

The hum of the thrasher is heard on every side. Thrasher men report that the grain was very wet when it was put in the barn, and that many farmers will have to have a dry kiln to dry out their grain.

Wilson Chase had the misfortune to lose one of his horses. It got its foot over the halter in the stable and broke its neck.

Harvey Davison had one of his horses get hurt in the stable and it is laid up for repairs.

Mr. J. W. Halladay's millinery rooms are a veritable flower garden this season. New goods, new styles, new trimmings, and a new Parisian milliner as trimmer and saleslady. Everyone can get their wants supplied in the line of head gear.

Eva Lynn will make her home with Mrs. Stanley Gile for the next year.

George Lynn intends going to Brockville soon to work in the Grand Trunk shops. George says he is going to get on the highest rung of the ladder. We are going to watch for him up there.

Mr. Howard Willows has gone to Guelph to take a course in the Agricultural College, and if all goes well he intends putting in four years at the work and then try for the Sheep Skin Badge.

Mrs. John Downey is getting very poor health. She is somewhat easier the past few days.

P. J. Downey, wife and child, of Inverary, spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother and sister.

ADDITION

(Held over from Last Week.)

Mr. William Hay and wife, of Smith's Falls, have been visitors in our town.

The farmers in this section are mostly through harvest, but are complaining of the potato rot, which is very bad.

Mr. Boyd Brown and his sister, Myrtle were callers at the Florida House a few days ago.

Wedding bells are soon to ring in this village. Full particulars later. Mr. John Forsyth has purchased the celebrated trotting horse, Black Diamond.

Mr. George Charlton, of Mt. Pleasant, is as happy as a clam—it's a fine baby girl.

Mrs. George Munroe, of Chicago, has returned home after spending a few pleasant days with her brother-in-law, Mr. Levi Monroe.

A number of our local sports attended North Augusta Fair and report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall are attending the Toronto Fair, and while there Mr. Hall will go to London and purchase one of the latest make of threshers and blowers.

Mr. Frank Scott and lady have returned from Perth. Mr. Scott has engaged with Wm. Hall as fireman for the balance of the season.

Cross?

Poor man! He can't help it! He gets bilious. He needs a good liver pill—Ayer's Pills. They act directly on the liver, cure biliousness.
