BERWICK.

EDITORIAL, NEWS, NOTES AND JOYFINGS.

A Berwick paper for Berwick is our motto. This is our inalienable and indisputable right, and our ambition shall be to make our part of it at least not only a herald of progress for live business men, but a chance and healthy family visitor.

Special prominence will be given to temperance, local news and the current events of the season; and from Berwick as a stirring business centre, we will reach out into the surrounding districts and as far as practicable take all the home industries under our fostering care and make their interests our own.

We make this move confident that it will meet with your favor, sympathy and hearty support, but if we have misread the signs of the times and shall find you are not ready to second our efforts, we can only retire from the field and wait for a riper age.

The services of the Berwick and wick editor are altogether voluntary and gratuitous and he has no financial interest in the paper.

The only compensation he solicits is a hearty local cooperation and the privilege of doing all he can to advance the best interests of his native village and the neighboring districts.

This wedded and union of the press of the famous university village of Wolfville with the graceful and industrious village of Berwick is most timely and fitting; and reverently in their behalf we record the officiating clergyman's prayer—"Grant unto them length of days; good success in all their undertaking; a rich supply of Thy providential bounty, that in the midst of social comfort and of domestic happiness, they may set their hearts on things above, and live in the joyful hope of life eternal."

THE BERWICK BRASS BAND we now claim as one of our most fixed, flourishing and indispensable institutions.

The young gentlemen of the band have with very commendable zeal and generosity spared no time nor expense to make themselves proficient musicians.

In classic lore, we're told, in olden time, By music's rich, voluptuous swell inspired, The walls of Troy in strength and beauty rose;

And always since we note in every zone, Alike in Pagan and in Christian climes, That music charms the couch of grief and care

Inspires devotion in the Christian's heart And wakes to arms the marshalling hosts of war.

Then hail, all hail, the band of Berwick, hail!

Your pipes and lugles blow, and beat your drums, And let the gladdening waves of music roll, A welcoming flood o'er all our hearts and homes.

ENTERPRISE.—A. E. Calkin has purchased the old Dr. Webster property, Kentville, and is making preparations to build a large double store.

It will be 43 x 265 ft, two stories high, with large plate glass front. F. A. Clark & Son, of the Berwick steam mill, are now sawing the frame and sizing the timber by putting it through the planer.

The plans were made by E. R. Davison, of the Berwick Moulding Co., and appear to be very neatly and understandingly executed.

WEDDING PARTY.—On Monday evening Mr and Mrs Lewis Morris, of Wolfville celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage.

They are a happy and hale old couple. About one hundred guests partook of a sumptuous supper, and the very enjoyable evening's festivities closed with addresses from Mr Morris, Rev. T. D. Hart, D. O. Parker and others, together with plenty of old-fashioned singing.

BAPTIST.—Preaching at Berwick, 11 a. m. Preaching at Somerset 3 p. m. Missionary Concert at Berwick 7 p. m. Seats free to all strangers.

METHODIST.—Preaching at Berwick at 11 a. m. Preaching at Grafton, 3 p. m. Preaching at Woodville, 7 p. m. Quarterly meeting at Berwick church on Monday, 5th, at 2 p. m.

T. D. HART, Pastor.

LOW, STRAYED OR STOLEN.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather on the last Sabbath, many of the Baptist congregation were conspicuous for their absence. The pastor preached from the very appropriate text—"Where art thou?"

TEMPERANCE.—Longfellow Division, S. of T., meets every Friday evening in Fisher's Hall; Annie E. Parker, W. P.

Somerset Division, S. of T., meets every Saturday evening in Somerset Hall; Charles Halsey, W. P.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Mrs. Parker, the widow of the late Rev. Willard G. Parker, last Friday celebrated her seventieth birthday with an old lady's party with her son-in-law at the Baptist parsonage, Berwick.

APPOINTMENT.—Holmes Masters, M. D., is gazetted Marriage License Issuer for Berwick in place of I. M. Parker, resigned.

A Visit to Berwick.

Having business in Berwick a few days since, we took the opportunity of visiting some of the business men of that thriving village and were much pleased with the appearance of thrift and prosperity which appeared to prevail.

The stores are all well stocked and seem to be doing a good business. The agent of the Savings Bank informed us that the Bank at Berwick is doing probably the largest business of any Savings Bank in the Valley, as high as $2,700 having been deposited in a single week.

A visit to the public schools showed them to be in a prosperous condition and doing good work under the supervision of the principal, Mr L. D. Robinson. We called upon the Berwick Moulding Co., and found Messrs Davison & Clarke full of work.

These enterprising young men have built up a large business, which must be a great benefit to the place. They are now manufacturing a large number of "Ideal" washing-machines for the patentee.

We also noticed a very neatly made band saw which they have just completed for Mr. Chas. H. Borden, of this place. Messrs F. A. Clarke & Son are doing a large milling business, and turn out a large quantity of work. We were informed that Messrs Pines & Clarke are also doing a good business with their iron foundry.

These and other industries, with the fine farms in and about Berwick indicate a prosperous people, and we believe our sister town has a bright prospect before it.

A Leap-Year Skate.

On Saturday evening last a very pleasant time was had at the Hantsport skating rink. This being leap year the young ladies of that place took advantage of their opportunity to have a "leap-year skate."

About a hundred and fifty skaters were present, including a number from Wolfville and Lower Horton. The band furnished pleasing music during the evening.

The Hantsport ladies performed their part admirably, and as they gracefully glided to one's side and solicited "the pleasure of a skate," we, the "sterner sex," were led to wish that leap-year came oftener. The evening passed off very quickly, and was voted a most enjoyable one.

When the ladies of Hantsport have another "at home," we want to be there. ONE OF THE BOYS.

Tea-meeting at Kentville.

The ladies of the Kentville Presbyterian church held an Old Ladies' Tea in Scotia Hall on Thursday, the 23rd inst. I was there. I went for a jolly good time. I got it, and want to go there some more.

The tea was good, and the Old Ladies were better than the tea, which is paying them a pretty high compliment, but not half so high as they deserve. They were dressed out in old style high-backed caps and many of them wore spectacles. Were it not for the spectacles, I would have almost supposed that they were young ladies masquerading a bit, they were so bright and lively, and so anxious to make their guests enjoy themselves, in which they were eminently successful. The Kentville B. B. was in attendance and materially assisted in making the affair a grand success. TOMMY.

Horse Trotting.

To the Editors of the ACADIAN: SIRS,—I see by to-day's Herald that C. B. Bill says he did not challenge any stallion in Nova Scotia, as he does not trot his horses in match races. Well, I do not think he does either; but he does a good deal of newspaper trotting, but that does not count in Nova Scotia at this advanced age. If C. B. Bill does not call his article in the Herald of last week a challenge, I do not know what he would call it, and if he had got off with it no doubt it would have been one next spring, and would be on every barn door in King's and Halifax counties. As for me wanting to advertise my stallions, I do not want to advertise, but I am willing to let the people see them and judge for themselves whether they are what I claim them to be and consider it a good way to advertise. P. B. BROWN.

Piston, Feb. 21st.

P. S.—As C. B. Bill says he does not trot for money I will trot him for fun on Piston harbor and pay his expenses to come here; or I will go to Halifax and trot him for fun if he pays my expenses. P. S. B.

A LETTER FROM QUEBEC.

(Translated from the French.)

GENTLEMEN,—I have deferred writing the letter to testify to the benefits derived from the use of your SIMON'S LINIMENT. It has done wonders among all the people who have used it about here.

I can certify, that in every case where I have used it upon myself, I have been very well satisfied.

Mr N. Mooney of St. Sylvester, had a bad leg which was said to be incurable. I told him to use Simon's Liniment, and it has effected a complete cure in a very short time. His neighbor Mr John Devlin having received a serious cut on his leg, Mr Mooney took him the Liniment, and having used it, found himself completely cured.

I have been assured of the cures of these people, and the remedy having become known, it has created quite a demand, people coming as far as 35 miles to procure it for themselves.

Mr. Wm. Bennett of St. Ferdinand has had it some time for himself and he has since bought it for his friends, who suffer from Rheumatism, and they have all been well satisfied.

I have never known any medicine to have had such good results about here as Simon's Liniment. Hoping that it will prove as satisfactory elsewhere, I am yours truly, DAMAR PARROT, St. Sylvester, Quebec, 27th Dec., 1887. Merchant.
