

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAR. 21, 1890.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Some weeks ago we asked for correspondence concerning the manner in which the Local Government had laid out money on the roads in this county.

A good deal of the last issue of the Dominion Illustrated is devoted to Newfoundland, an island which, although not yet comprised within the Dominion of Canada, is almost certain to be one with us in some not very distant future.

What about the board of trade that our merchants were talking of last summer? Such an institution is just what is wanted in Wolfville and we feel sure our merchants would be well repaid for the effort required to organize it.

We notice that the people of Brwick are agitating for a custom house and collector at that place. Under the present arrangement they have to go to Kentville or Bridgetown to pass entries for all dutiable goods at a great inconvenience.

The people of Wolfville have long been inconvenienced in having no place in which to hold public meetings. Matters are frequently coming up that it appears desirable that the public should meet and discuss, but on account of this want it is often found impossible to do so.

In another column will be found an article on Nova Scotia fruit from the Toronto Empire. While the article referred to perhaps contains very little that is not already known to the people of this valley, it no doubt contains much that is new to many readers of the Empire and will be of much advantage to our Province.

The time for holding the annual meeting of the Willow Bank Cemetery will soon be here. It is to be hoped that our people will this year manifest a greater interest in the affairs of the cemetery than has been shown in the past and that the meeting when it takes place will be largely attended.

While it is a matter of general regret that so many of our talented young men leave us to find homes in the neighboring republic, still it is very gratifying to know that in their new homes they are not forgetful of their native land nor slow to use their talents in speaking good words for it.

Notes from Ottawa.

(By Our Regular Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, March 19th.—If a visitor had dropped into the House of Commons last Thursday evening he would have seen a sight of wild confusion over the bill of Mr. Brown, M. P., to prevent the shooting of pigeons from traps.

Commander Gordon, in his Fisheries Protection report thus refers to the modus vivendi:—"This pendule to the rejected Fishery Treaty which terminates on the 14th of February next, has been much more largely taken advantage of by United States fishing vessels this year, and it may be broadly stated that there are certain lines of fishing which no opportunity, however favorable, could make remunerative to them, unless they can use either our ports or those of New Foundland for purposes other than the four guaranteed to them under the Treaty of 1818.

The commandant at the Royal Military College, Kingston, wants to organize a system of messenger pigeon stations in St. John, Pictou, Halifax, Annapolis and Charlottetown.

Mr. Davies, M. P., is examining into the Intercolonial Railway Insurance system, with a view of altering it.

The medical M. P.'s have been agitating in Parliament for a Health Dept. with an official status and a cabinet minister.

Nova Scotia.

A CLAIM THAT THEY ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS—SHIPMENTS TO ENGLAND.

OTTAWA, March 9.—Anyone who attended the recent Conventions of fruit growers or dairymen in this city could not fail to be struck by the high average intelligence of the delegates. It was evident to the observer that they were men of a very superior class, accustomed to think out the different problems affecting the respective industries, and competent to express themselves in public in a clear and convincing manner.

It gives me great pleasure to say a few words in recommendation of the 'Book of Wonders.' The name is an appropriate one, although given it by the author in his humorous way.

"When Leslie L. Davison went down into the grave, the first bright rays of a great intellect went out. Although he had not yet reached that age when the mind of man takes its predestined stand and shines forth in all its brightness, yet the morning beams had already begun to tell of the approaching noontide which, in his case, never came."

AN OLD USED POSTAGE TTAMP. $20 will be given to any person who will send me, (for the collection I am forming for exhibition purposes), a 12 PENNY STAMP OF CANADA.

Mr. Davies, M. P., is examining into the Intercolonial Railway Insurance system, with a view of altering it.

Mr. Starratt, it may be remarked, is the Liberal-Conservative candidate, who, with Mr. C. S. Harrington, Q. C., will contest the county of Annapolis at the ensuing local election against the Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, of annexation tendency, and a Mr. Chute.
