The Local Legislature.

(Condensed from Official Report.)

FREDERICTON, April 2.—In the hour this afternoon, Mr. Pitts quoted from articles in the Telegraph and Herald newspapers, which he said had vilified him for the part he had taken in the Quinn matter. He said that he was not in a day, and he could not with pride to the fact that since he had started out in the little farm house on the hill to the present time, he had, through the interposition of Providence, been able to come down to this spot with a desire to do what was right. He regretted exceedingly that it was necessary for him to make the statement he had in the budget debate as to this Quinn episode, but he had merely repeated what was in the mouths of hundreds of people. It was all very well for certain members to claim that a man's private morals or character should not be discussed before the house, but he believed that if a man's private character was not sound he was unfit to sit in the house and handle public money. Being an instrument in the hands of Providence to bring this thing down to where it honestly belonged, he thought it proper that he should clear his skirts of the stigma attached to him by reading the following declaration, which had been placed in his hands:

CANADA:
Province of New Brunswick, City of Fredericton, N.S.
I, William H. Quinn of the City of Fredericton, in the County of York, Merchant, solemnly declare that:

1. George Bliss, who held the office of deputy clerk of the pleas, died in the summer of 1888, and during the rest of that year and up to some time in the year 1890, the office was vacant, the duties thereof being performed temporarily by Robert Wetmore, the present holder of the office.

2. In 1889 I made an application to G. Blair for this position for my son, William H. Quinn, and the position was previously to the 14th day of October, 1889, I wrote the attorney general presiding for the position for my son William, and stating that if William got the position I was able and willing to help Mr. Blair financially.

3. In reply to this letter, Mr. Blair forwarded to me the following letter duly signed by him:

Attorney General, New Brunswick.
FREDERICTON, Oct. 14, 1889.
W. H. QUINN, Esq.:
MY DEAR MR. QUINN—I received a note from you on Thursday with reference to William's appointment to some position under the government. I think was very well for you to mention, and with which I cannot have the least objection. I had no faith in your letter which perhaps I may not thoroughly understand. You say that if I do not get the position I will be able and willing to help your party financially. The latter part of the proposition I am in doubt about, and would be glad if you would explain to me your meaning in regard to the position. I have no objection to your spending more money than the salary attached to the office against our party in case I lose the position, and I appointments. I would have called to see you personally if I had had the time, but have been much hindered the last few days. After hearing from you in reply to this, I would perhaps either see you or write you more fully.

Yours faithfully,
ANDREW G. BLAIR.

3. In reply to this letter I wrote attorney general as follows: FREDERICTON, Oct. 14th.
HON. A. G. BLAIR:
DEAR SIR—Yours of the 14th to hand and in reply will say I made no threat or intention as you say, as Mr. Wilson and Bellamy told me that he should or ought to have the appointment, and why I go against men that would not be just where justice was due. I would like to have a decided answer whether William is to get the position in Mr. Allen's office or not, as you told Mr. Wilson that he (William) was to have it and if not then he will have to look for employment at once elsewhere.

Yours truly,
W. H. QUINN.

4. Shortly afterwards the house of assembly was dissolved and a general election was held on the 21st day of January, 1890, at which election Andrew G. Blair, William Wilson, Richard Bellamy and John Anderson, were candidates, forming a ticket running in the interest of the government.

5. During the election contest my son William informed me that in order to get the office it would be necessary to pool in and pay two hundred dollars towards the election expenses. I told William we would do so, and within a day or two afterwards William came to me with a letter from J. H. Barry, the law partner of A. G. Blair and the manager of the government party in York, and the following is a copy of that letter:

J. H. Barry,
Attorneys and Solicitors, Fredericton, N. B.
FREDERICTON, 16th Jan., 1890.
DEAR QUINN—It is of the utmost importance that you should hand over day the cheque we were speaking of yesterday. Our calculations were based on your doing this, and I do not know what the consequences will be if we are disappointed.

Yours very truly,
J. H. Barry.

6. After the receipt of said letter from Mr. Barry I gave William the two hundred dollars with instructions to give it to Mr. Blair, but not to pay it over till he obtained a receipt from Mr. Blair for William returned with the money and stated to me that Mr. Blair had refused to give him the written promise asked for.

7. Before election day Mr. Blair called on me at my store in the city of Fredericton, and said to me that that afternoon he had written the money and had refused to give him the written promise asked for.

8. This receipt was in William Wilson's handwriting and signed by him.
Some time afterwards my son William gave me a copy of this receipt in my store, in the presence of my wife and my daughter, Miss Mary Quinn.
This said copy was made by my son William, in his own handwriting, and was compared by myself and my daughter Mary and I believed to be in his original, and from which copy the

The appointment not having been made to William as promised and anticipated, William became anxious about the fulfillment of the promise, and as he informed me, had repeated interviews with Mr. Wilson and Mr. Barry respecting the same, and one of the reasons alleged for William not getting the office unless it was put in writing and signed by me and my son William brought to me a letter which he said had been written by Mr. Wilson and I believed to be in his handwriting, for he had been to him before, and the following is a copy of what Mr. Wilson so wrote:

"After thinking the matter of asking you to sign a written promise to give William the position, I feel I made a mistake. I acted hastily in the matter, and had no intention of making you think I had no faith in you. I have no experience in such matters, and thought of it as a business transaction."

I did not write or send this letter to
Mr. Blair.

9. A short time after, and about the first day of April, 1890, William informed me that he had written upon Mr. Wilson in the house of Assembly (Mr. Wilson being a representative for the County of York), and had sent in to Mr.
Wilson on the floor of the house the following letter written upon a C. P. R.
telegram blank:

"April 1st, 1890.
William Wilson, Esq.,
Dear Sir—On Friday last you told me to call on Tuesday, and I am now here for your answer and waiting to see you in the lobby near the speaker's door."
WILL QUINN.

Which letter my son told me had been returned to him by a messenger with the following memorandum endorsed thereon in Mr. Wilson's handwriting, and signed by Mr. Wilson:

"I can't go out until this matter is over.
I may have something to say. Did your father write to Blair? He has not the letter yet."

Yours,
W. WILSON.

10. In 1891 William was appointed an engrossing clerk for the house of assembly for that year, and he filled the position for that year, and was also holding the position in the session of 1892 at the time of his death. I declined to accept this position for William in lieu of the situation that had been promised, and on March 12th, 1891, I wrote a letter to Mr. Wilson, of which the following is a copy:

FREDERICTON, March 12, 1891.
Wm. Wilson, Esq., M. P. P.: Dear Sir—If William is given the position of registrar of probates I am willing to give the money now in my hands, and if not please return the same with interest, as I do not feel disposed to give anything for the position of engrossing clerk.

By attending to this you will oblige
yours,
W. H. QUINN.

12. William not getting the position in the clerk of the pleas office or the regis-traryship, I demanded the money back from Mr. Wilson, who promised to repay it in thirty days, and not receiving it in that time I wrote Mr. Wilson on April 17th, 1891, a letter of which the following is a copy:

FREDERICTON, April 17th, 1891.
William Wilson, Esq.:
Dear Sir—I think the thirty days have expired. Will you please send me my money, $200.00 (two hundred dollars).
With interest and I will send you your receipt. I have not been out for ten days.

By attending to this you will oblige
yours,
W. H. QUINN.

13. Mr. Wilson, after the letter last above written, promised to pay the money in a few days, which he did not do, and on June 25th, 1891, I wrote him another letter, of which the following is a copy:

FREDERICTON, June 25th, '91.
W. Wilson, Esq.:
Dear Sir—You told me that you would pay that two hundred dollars in a few days. I think the time has expired. If you cannot pay me now, give me your note, with an endorser, with interest at seven per cent, since the 12th March when I demanded the money. If these terms meet your approval, all right; if not, please send me the cash, with bank interest from 13th Feb., '90, to 12th June.

By attending to this you will oblige
yours,
W. H. QUINN.

14. On September 17th, 1890, William Wilson gave me his own note in favor of John Anderson, then M. P. P. for York, and endorsed by the said John Anderson,
for the amount of two hundred dollars, of which said note the following is a copy:

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 13th, '90.
Received from William H. Quinn the sum of $200.00 towards election fund, to be used till appointment is made, and if no appointment made, then to be returned.
(Signed) W. Wilson.

8. This receipt was in William
Wilson's handwriting and signed by him.
Some time afterwards my son William
gave me a copy of this receipt
in my store, in the presence of my wife
and my daughter, Miss Mary Quinn.
This said copy was made by my son
William, in his own handwriting, and
was compared by myself and my daughter Mary and I believed to be in his

made to William as promised and anti-
fulfillment of the promise, and as he informed me, had repeated interviews with
Mr. Wilson and Mr. Barry respecting
the same, and one of the reasons alleged
for William not getting the office unless
and my son William brought to me a
Mr. Wilson and I believed to be in his

what Mr. Wilson so wrote:

mistake. I acted hastily in the matter,
and had no intention of making you think I had no faith in you. I have
no experience in such matters,
and thought of it as a business trans-

I did not write or send this letter to
Mr. Blair.

9. A short time after, and about the first day of April, 1890, William informed me that he had written upon Mr. Wilson
in the house of Assembly (Mr. Wilson
being a representative for the County of York), and had sent in to Mr.
Wilson on the floor of the house the following letter written upon a C. P. R.
telegram blank:

"April 1st, 1890.

WILL QUINN.

following memorandum endorsed thereon
in Mr. Wilson's handwriting, and signed
by Mr. Wilson:

days.

By attending to this you will oblige
yours,
W. H. QUINN.

13. Mr. Wilson, after the letter last above written, promised to pay the
money in a few days, which he did not do, and on June 25th, 1891, I wrote him
another letter, of which the following is
a copy:

FREDERICTON, June 25th, '91.
W. Wilson, Esq.:
Dear Sir—You told me that you would
note, with an endorser, with interest at
seven per cent, since the 12th March
when I demanded the money. If these
not, please send me the cash, with bank
interest from 13th Feb., '90, to 12th
June.

By attending to this you will oblige
yours,
W. H. QUINN.

14. On September 17th, 1890, William Wilson gave me his own note in favor of
John Anderson, then M. P. P. for York,
and endorsed by the said John Anderson,
for the amount of two hundred dollars,
copy:

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 13th, '90.
Received from William H. Quinn the sum
used till appointment is made, and if no
appointment made, then to be returned.
(Signed) W. Wilson.

8. This receipt was in William
Wilson's handwriting and signed by him.
Some time afterwards my son William
gave me a copy of this receipt
in my store, in the presence of my wife
and my daughter, Miss Mary Quinn.
This said copy was made by my son
William, in his own handwriting, and
was compared by myself and my daughter Mary and I believed to be in his

made to William as promised and anti-
fulfillment of the promise, and as he informed me, had repeated interviews with
Mr. Wilson and Mr. Barry respecting
the same, and one of the reasons alleged
for William not getting the office unless
and my son William brought to me a
Mr. Wilson and I believed to be in his
before, and the following is a copy of
what Mr. Wilson so wrote:

you to sign a written promise to give William the position, I feel I made a mistake. I acted hastily in the matter,
and had no intention of making you think I had no faith in you. I have
no experience in such matters,
and thought of it as a business trans-

I did not write or send this letter to
Mr. Blair.

9. A short time after, and about the first day of April, 1890, William informed me that he had written upon Mr. Wilson
in the house of Assembly (Mr. Wilson
being a representative for the County of York), and had sent in to Mr.
Wilson on the floor of the house the following letter written upon a C. P. R.
telegram blank:

"April 1st, 1890.
William Wilson, Esq.,
Dear Sir—On Friday last you told me
in the lobby near the speaker's door."
WILL QUINN.

following memorandum endorsed thereon
in Mr. Wilson's handwriting, and signed
by Mr. Wilson:

"I can't go out until this matter is over.
I may have something to say. Did your
letter yet."

Yours,
W. WILSON.
