the C. A. A. U. It is understood that a number of last year's champions have decided not to play in the big league unless they can do so with the sanction of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union. One or two of the new men who were figured on to play on the senior team this year took the same stand, and they have the support of some of the officers of the club. It is said, however, that a have the support of some of the officers of the club. It is said, however, that a majority of the officers of the club are in favor of throwing the C. A. A. U. overboard, but of course these men do not take part in athletic sports and are indifferent as to what happens to the players. After the conference at the "tea hour," it was decided to call the special meeting off and for President Seymour and Manager Thompson to go to Toronto to-day to confer with offi-cials of the Argonauts and the C. A. A. U.

ONE OF THE RESULTS. Toronto, Oct. 8.—The disqualification of the Argonaut or Toronto Football Club for having played in the game against Ernie Russell at ontreal will be rather far-reaching in its effects. While the men will be out of football for a period of two years at least, some of them who play hockey and who row will also be lost to the oarsmen. Of those who were thrown out, Flett, Grant. Balfour, Crocks, Mara and Kent are seen occasionally in the shells of the club, al-though they are not particularly prom-inent in this branch of athletics. The Argos will doubtless sever the connec-tions of these players will their organ-ization, as it cannot afford to have pro-fessionals or others who are under the ban of the C. A. A. U. for violation of its anateur rule members of the club. It is not altogether improbable that the Argonauts may have a team in the intermediate section of the O. R. F. C. The latter organization is still hopeful of setting a strong Ottawa team for its senior series. ACCIDENTS AT KINGSTON.

A CHANGE IN HEROES.

Avast! Ye sun-kissed sons of swat- get off the map-give way! Another set of heroes now are headed for the fray. Ye've held the limelight long enough, for in this rapid age We need new heroes every month-new settings for our stage.

"Slide, you lobster, slide!" will change to "Get low in the line!" No more our heroes crack the ball, but crack the half-back's spine. No more they'll make a "running catch," amid loud cheers and squeals--They'll catch the runner soon instead quite deftly by the heels.

No more they'll "line the hit" far out, and thus subdue their foes; They'll "hit the line," in place of this, some luscious, wicked blows; No more they'll rush upon the field the poor umpire to smother— Instead of that, they'll switch about and smother one another.

The bounding bunt will soon give way until another spring, In place of which the pesky punt will saor upon the wing; No more they fifth the runner's back or on the nearest spot-They'll nail him deftly by the knees and the him in a knot.

And when the runner speeds along at dashing, hectic pace. They'll no more give him right of way, but sit upon his face! Ye, think that baseball's strenuous—but wait, my gentle friend, Until ye see a half-back try to circle Topie's end. Baseball, your blooming race is run—we've had our fill of you; Across the college campus now there comes the shout, "Skidoo!" The "base hit" goes, the "end run" comes—for_in-this flashy age, We need new stunts from week to week—new setting for our stage. —Grallard Rice.

OTTAWA IS INYFUL

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The action of Toronto Argonauts in taking a chance by facing Montreal with Ernie Russell in the line-up has created the greatest interest in Ottawa. Tavorable to the minagement of the Ottawa City Club. "We will stand right by Argonauts and Montreal in the present situation," said Treasurer Paddy Baskerville this morning. In case the C. A. A. U. suspends the Argonauts I believe it will simply bring about what we have been hoping forsevering any connection that is left between the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union and the C. A. A. U. Hamilton Tigres, I. am sure, will fall in line with the other clubs. "The news of the Argonauts playing against Russell came as a pleasant surprise to us, as the Toronto team has all and the players of that, team have for yualms of any threats from the governing body.
