When we regarded the fact that St John's as the most eastern harbor of the Island, must always be the principal railway terminus it would be seen that the subject to be considered was not one of merely local interest, but affecting the whole country. For it was A GHAP LUT OF desirable to have the expenses of shipment and debarkation as low as possible. And it was with this end in view as well the relief of tenants from burdensome ane unbearable rentals that the present move was made. As the country pros
