Look. Read. Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!!
We study the business. We know what suits a young man

we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00

Success Is a Habit

Our habits make us. We are creatures of habit. Whether we are a success or a failure is a question of how we do things without thinking. To Save is the only way to success

Gloves

We have just the kind of Gloves you need, lined and unlined. Also Wool Gloves for this time of year. Suedes and Tans—both combination. Price..... $1.00 to $4.00

French Generals Put Faith In God Alone

Bishop Tissier, of Chalons, in the sermon preached recently at the laying of the corner-stone of the Victory Monument at Lourdes, paid the following tribute to the faith of the soldiers and generals of the French army during the great war:

"I cannot recall without emotion the hymns of gratitude our soldiers offered in the crowded churches of the front each time victory smiled on their flag. 'You will get them,' I used to say to them; and they answered, 'If it so pleases God.' And in face of their superhuman task they all gave evidences of an unbounded confidence, the natural fruit of their deep-rooted religion.

"Marshal Foch, the future generalissimo, on the night of the first Marne victory, had to fall on the sacred words of the Psalmist to express the depth of his gratitude. To my words of congratulations on his triumphant entry to Chalons he replied, raising to heaven his eyes shining with joy and hope: 'Non nobis, Domine, non nobis, sed nominis tuo da gloriam.' And that was the discreet anthem of the great hymn of which he was to unfold the tragic strophes during four long years, and which he concluded in a manner worthy of Joan of Arc with these words expressing his recognition of the inner Spirit which had led him: 'I have been but an instrument.'

"The same faith inspired the other army commanders, who before the battle prayed on their knees for victory, and the battle over, fell on their knees to thank God for it.

"So Castellan, who on the eve of the battle of Champagne in 1915, sent to a night adoration all the officers of his staff, who were not on duty, and all officers and soldiers, with the Bishop in their midst, joined in psalmody, broken only by the artillery detonations.

"So Mangin, who on returning victorious from Douaumont in September, 1916, entered the church at Notre Dame de L'Epine, to salute Le Bon Dieu, as he was wont to do; and Fayolle, who on his way to Italy to take command of the Allied forces, came to his Bishop for a blessing upon that expedition of liberation.

"So again Gouraud, who on the evening of July 15, 1918, when he had so magnificently broken the last German offensive and in a few hours restored the French fortune, wrote to me: 'We have won the first pass; may God help us to win the rest.' 'I now understand, when I recall the faith of our great leaders, the promise made to me one day by another general, who emulates their faith and their courage: 'Bishop, when we have won the victory, I shall write the mystical history of the war.'

A Wonderful Blind Mathematician

The Lancet quotes from a French journal the account of a marvelous mathematician, a young man named Fleury, who is completely blind. It seems that Fleury has consciously developed his ability, in which he differs from the usual calculating phenomenon, who often performs his Minard's Liniment for sale every where.

DO YOUR BOWELS

Move Regularly, or Do They?

BECOME CONSTIPATED?

If the truth were only known it would be found that half the ills of life are caused by constipation, for when the bowels cease to work properly, all the organs of the body become deranged. A free motion of the bowels, every day, should be the rule of everyone who aspires to perfect health.

Keep your bowels regular by the use of Milburn's Laxative Pills, and you will have no constipation, no bilious or sick headaches, or any other troubles arising from a wrong action of the liver or bowels.

Mrs. G. Brown, Lewistown, N.B., writes:—I have been troubled for years with constipation, and trying various so-called remedies, which did me no good whatever. I was persuaded by a friend to try Milburn's Laxative Pills. They have done me worlds of good. They are indeed a splendid pill and I can heartily recommend them to all who suffer from constipation.

Milburn's Laxative Pills are 25c a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

are faces that are quiet and uninteresting in repose, that light up amazingly with the animation of talking.

There are some who can never get a good photograph because the camera cannot catch the subtle sparkle of the eye, in which the whole individuality lies. There are some whom you would not at first call handsome, whose faces grow on you with constant acquaintance until they become beautiful to you.

For you see the soul shining through; you see the splendor of a noble character glorifying every feature. A true beauty in the soul will come out in the sweetness, the brightness, the quiet glory of the face.

A large increase in retreatants has been reported of late in England, the figures from one center of this manifestation of Catholic life—Oakwood Hall, Romiley—breaking all previous records. The increase in the retreat activities at Romiley for the past year exceeds all previous advances, which had been made at this retreat center, in 1920, 734 retreatants were received. These included 50 boys, who made a day's retreat. A feature of the record made was that special retreats were held for the Catholic Social Guild, for students from five universities, for the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and for the Third Order of St. Francis. Reports show that the guests at the center have come from all parts of England, some from Ireland and two from the United States.

A Papal Postmaster

Prince Massimo, head of the ancient Roman Massimo family which traces its descent from the Fabian gens, has just died in Rome in his 84th year. The Prince held the office of Postmaster at the Papal Court, an office that is hereditary in the Massimo family.

The Papal Postmaster has nothing whatever to do with Post Offices, and the office is more accurately known as that of Marshall of the Papal Journeys. Since the fall of the Temporal Power of the Pope the Office of Papal Postmaster has been merely nominal. But in the days previous to the occupation of Rome the duties of this functionary were to make all provision for the journeys of the Papal Court, to provide carriages and exchanges of post horses—hence the title. The office is of ancient origin, and there are still in existence the ancient account books of the Papal Postmaster, which date back to the Pontificate of Pope Clement V in 1205.

A Good Heart

A good heart makes a good face—perhaps not beautiful or classic, but fine, sincere and noble. The face will shine with God behind it. There are some faces even today that at times seem to have a glow upon them. There Kidneys Troubled Her.

BACK ACHE SO BAD COULD NOT SLEEP.

The epidemic of "Flu" has a great deal to be responsible for. In nearly every case it has left some bad after effects, and in a great many cases it is the kidneys that have suffered.

When the kidneys have been left in a weakened state, very often some serious kidney trouble will follow if not attended to. Don't's Kidney Pills will prove to be just the remedy you require to strengthen them.

Miss Florence Barnshaw, Apaley, Ont., writes:—Last winter, after I had the "Flu" I was troubled with my kidneys. My back ached so I could not sleep, and my ankles were so swollen I could not walk. A neighbor told me about Don't's Kidney Pills. I got two boxes, and before I had the first one taken I felt a change. I cannot recommend your medicine enough.

Be sure and get Don't's Kidney Pills when you get them. An oblong gray box; a maple leaf the trade mark; price 25c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
