The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I may develop eloquence.
Drop petticoat for bloomer;
Or scorning sham and saving pence,
Bar costume and consumer;
But Heaven grant me recompense—
A trace of saving common sense.
A grain or two of humor.

That is given in Life as a proper prayer for the Maiden of 1910, presumable against the dangers of woman's suffrage.

Seems to me those last two sentences would be a good petition for a good many people besides the suffragette.

gettes—in short, for that pathetic class of people who take existence too seriously.

I do not like people who refuse ever to be in earnest about life, but on the whole I think they are much easier people to get along with than those who adopt towards their work and themselves the same deadly and priggish seriousness that the high school graduate puts into his "essay on life."

I don't believe in the philosophy of "What difference will anything I do make a hundred years from now?" But I do believe in the philosophy that won't let the most important work or the most sincere devotion to any cause blind one to the fact that there is a funny side to life.

To be thoroughly in earnest about life and about doing one's best, yet not to take oneself too seriously seems to me the acme of successful living.

I know people who think it is something to be very proud of that they can't see anything to laugh at in a funny play or extravaganza.

I think that to be able to go to a nonsensical or extravagant play and laugh heartily at the sheer absurdity of it, is an ability to be painstakingly cultivated. Being healthily silly once in a while is one of the best brain relaxations there is. The greatest men and women have seldom lacked an unusually keen sense of humor. Take for example our own Lincoln.

Learn to laugh at your failures and you have defeated defeat, for nothing takes the sting out of failure like being able to see the funny side of it.

Learn to laugh at yourself when other people laugh at you, and you will never be made fun of in any really unkind way.

A sense of humor seems to be about as good a matrimonial qualification as there is. I think I would sooner marry the man who laughed at the same things I did, than the one who was touched or exalted with me.

There is only one sadder sight than a man or woman with a keen sense of humor life-yoked to a mate absolutely without humor, and that is to see two perfectly serious minded people plodding along their weary way together. Humor is the salt without which even very great goodness is apt to be rather unpalatable.

And it is well to remember that we could do without many foods, apparently much more important, far more easily than we could without wit.

So let all of us who are conscious of being rather too serious-minded—and I know I'll have to plead guilty with the rest—join the maiden of 1910 in asking that our worthy seriousness, our admirable high mindedness may be suitably tempered by

"A trace of saving common sense, A grain or two of humor."

I believe that the sense of humor is almost as important a sense to develop as the moral sense.

Without a sense of humor it is almost impossible to get a proper perspective on life and on yourself.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants. THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeits as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

Fads and Fashions.

Many colored waists are seen. One sees leather-lined motor coats. The Greek collar is the most fashionable.

The hat with the ribbon bow is quite popular.

The two-toned silks continue in great demand.

Crashes and grass lilies are well thought of.

Two materials frequently appear in one summer gown.

The newest sleeves are slightly more bell-shaped.

Ostrich feathers entirely cover the crowns of many hats.

Cloth top shoes come in colors to match tailored costumes.

The newest colored handkerchiefs are in polka dot designs.

Some braid novelties show touches of leather in their make-up.

Cushion covers of suede leather are exceedingly popular this year.

There is no sign of a wane in the popularity of changeable silks.

Surah silk, such a favourite of a generation or more ago, is again seen.

Crystal fringe and embroidery in crystal beads are used on evening gowns.

Wide mesh figures are entirely replacing the heavy lace designs in vels.

Bows on the hat this season may be worn at the side, the back or the front.

Pearls in many colors are used to embroider taffeta suits instead of braid.

Novelty ribbon braid is used for the fringe on many of the handsome parasols.

Scarlet cloth is used for extremely short jackets, belted in with patent leather.

Coarse blue linen frocks, embroidered with blue and coral silk, are made for young girls.

The slippers covered with Irish crochet, will be more in vogue this season than last year.

A hat which is extremely becoming to the wearer has a square-shaped crown of shirred tulle.

The stockings this summer are most of them two-toned, matching or contrasting with the costume.

Preserving the Teeth.

One of the best stories told by Miss Helen Gladstone, who has severed her connection with the Women's University Settlement at Southwark, concerns an old woman for whom a much needed set of false teeth was bought out of the funds of the Settlement. Some time afterwards, Miss Gladstone visited her in her little room, and asked how she was getting on with her new teeth. "Famous," was the answer. "I am taking great care of them. When I eat I take them out and wrap them up in cotton wool." On another occasion the hon. mother of a large family asked Miss Gladstone how many children she had. Miss Gladstone replied that she was not married. "Well, it's about time that you were," came the prompt rejoinder.

JAILED SIX DRUNKS.—Yesterday the police arrested six men, all of them drunks.

Your Liver

Better stir up your liver a little! Not too much, just a little, just enough to start the bile nicely. One of Ayer's Pills at bedtime is all you need. These pills act directly on the liver. Made for the treatment of constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick-head-ache. Sold for over 60 years. Ask your doctor if he knows a better pill for a sluggish liver. Then follow his advice. He knows. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

LIVER LAZINESS

Those Who Lack Energy and are Unsuccessful Should Read This Closely.

"I am only thirty years old, yet for almost two years I have felt more like seventy-five. I have found it difficult to sleep at night and in the morning feel so depressed and heavy that effort was difficult. My hands were always clammy and perspiration on slight effort would break out all over me. It was not unnatural that I should begin to brood over the chance that I should soon be unfit to do my work, and this dread made my sleepless nights perfect misery. After repeated trials of medicine and mixtures Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me the first gleam of hope. From the very first I could see they were different in action from other pills. They didn't gripe and acted as naturally as if nature and not the pills were cleansing my clogged up system. My spirits rose, I felt much better, the sluggish action of the system gave way to normal activity. Dizziness and headaches ceased, appetite, good color and ambition to work returned and have remained. I am like a new man and I thank Dr. Hamilton's Pills for it all."

This was the experience of J. E. Parkhurst, a well-known grocery dealer in Jefferson. Follow his advice, use Dr. Hamilton's Pills for your stomach, kidneys and liver and you'll enjoy long life and robust good health.

Firemen Meet.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Firemen's Union, held last night, it was decided that the firemen going in the S. S. Adventure and S. S. Beothic to northern latitudes should apply for $35 a month, the same wages as are paid the firemen going south. A discussion arose over the non-payment of $7.20 a week to certain union firemen employed on shore in the city, and also being deprived of the Saturday afternoon. The employer will be asked to comply with the union rule.

The union will allow the two others now on the S. S. Rosalind to remain there and also to allow another man if necessary. The union will remain firm in not allowing the union firemen to join the ship till the employer agrees to the union terms.

The Delegate will wear an official badge so that he will be known when going to offices and on board ships to discuss matters with employers of firemen.

Mount Carmel.

Mr. M. J. Malone, the President, occupied the chair at the annual meeting of Mount Carmel Cemetery Committee held at the Secretary's office last evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the Treasurer's report submitted and adopted. The election of officers was then conducted by Mr. J. J. McGrath, resulting as follows: M. J. Malone, President; J. Dalton, Treasurer; J. P. Grace, Secretary; Capt. F. Jackman and Chas. Sage, Auditors. The collectors were chosen to take up the contributions at the R. C. Cathedral and St. Patrick's next Sunday. The report will be submitted to His Grace the Archbishop when he returns from Rome.

Interesting Wrestling Match.

Messrs. H. Mogridge and Mike Shallow will wrestle for the championship of Newfoundland at the C. L. B. Armoury, on Monday evening next, catch-as-catch can will be the style, and the bout will be to a finish, best two falls out of three. The contest promises to be a lively one as both men are hard at work training.

Waist Protector and Apron.

Cut in sizes 34, 38, 42 inches bust measure. This useful little garment will be found invaluable to stenographers, artists, bookkeepers and others engaged in work requiring protection to the waist and sleeves. It will also make an excellent kitchen apron with the skirt attached as seen in the illustration. The sleeves are full enough to slip on easily over the dress-sleeves underneath. The front is gathered to a belt, or it may be finished by tape, the ends brought around and tied to the back. Lawn, cambric, linen and denim are all serviceable and appropriate for making. The medium size will require 3½ yards of 76 inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in stamps or silver.
