

At the House.

FRIDAY, April 28, 1916.
The Report of the Medical Supt. of the General Hospital was presented by the Colonial Secretary.
The Council's amendment to the Weights and Measures Act were concurred in except the one dealing with the measurement of pit props.
The Bill amending the Death Duties Act, which applies the provisions of the Act to property held outside the country and not taxed there was read a first time.
The House went into Committee on the Ways and Means Resolutions and the Leader of the Opposition advocated the taxing of war profits and a relief of taxation on articles of consumption.
Mr. Lloyd moved the following Resolutions:—
"Be it resolved that this House is of the opinion that the Minister of Finance should have recommended the imposition of taxes on profits made by the sale of steel sealing steamers to the Russian Government and be it resolved further that this House is of opinion that some steps should have been taken to relieve in whole or in part the duties now being collected on either kero oil, motor engines used for fishery purposes, gasoline used for fishery purposes, or cattle feed."
The motion was put and defeated on a party vote by 15 to 11. When the Committee rose and the Speaker resumed the chair Mr. Lloyd proposed an amendment the foregoing Resolutions. On a vote being taken the amendment was lost again on a strict party vote by 16 to 11.
The Public Service Act was then introduced and passed.
The Saw Mill Bill went through Committee with slight amendment.
The House then went into Committee on Bill "An Act to amend the law respecting the Exportation of Timber." The main clause of the Bill (No. 1) provides for the export of pit props to the United Kingdom and France until six months after the war is over.
Mr. Lloyd stated that it had been the intention of the Opposition to give to Section 1 all the opposition and all the hindrance they possibly could, as under normal conditions they did not think it desirable to encourage the export of pit props from Newfoundland, but rather in the interests of the Colony to conserve our woodlands for manufacturing purposes in order that pulp and lumber mills may be established. Certain facts, he said, had been laid before the Opposition leading them, not to modify their opinions but to recognize that Newfoundland must be prepared to make sacrifices for the Empire and forgo these advantages for the present of retaining these resources.
Mr. Coaker spoke in similar tenor. Owing to the way timber areas were destroyed he would protest vigorously but in view of certain circumstances, referred to by the previous speaker, he gave his assent to the Bill. In the meantime he hoped that the Premier would give a promise that he would not consent to representations made asking for the cutting of timber inside the three-mile limit. He drew the attention of the House to the miserable wage of $3 to $3.50 paid to the cutters in Newfoundland by "worthless" who afterwards sell at the other side at a profit of 100 per cent.
The Premier congratulated the Opposition on the patriotic spirit evinced by them and assured them that the Bill was brought in entirely in the interests of the Empire. He promised to agree to Mr. Coaker's request regarding the three-mile limit.
The Premier then expressed regret on announcing the news that the son of the Finance Minister had been wounded in France.
Mr. Lloyd on behalf of the Opposition conveyed their sympathy to the Finance Minister over the wounding of his son. He then criticized the way the men engaged in the cutting of pit props were sweated and paid such rates of $3.20 per cord which meant in cases 40 cents a day. He showed that buyers were paying 12 times as much for freight as they paid for cutting pit props and were getting as high as $80 a cord in Great Britain and France. He emphasized that it was ridiculous for any community to allow the sweating of its people in such an industry where such margins existed and moved as an amendment that the minimum price to the cutter shall not be less than $5 per cord for pit props on the bank; also that a man shipped by the month shall not be paid less than $30 a month and board and lodging.
The Minister of Fisheries supported the amendment and the Minister of Finance said he would accept the amendment with the modification, viz. that the price on the bank should be $5 for unried wood and $6 for rinded. The amendment was then passed.
The House then went into Committee on the Prohibition Bill.
Mr. Lloyd pointed out that many patent medicines contained above 2 per cent. of alcohol and were therefore within the confines of the liquor prohibited by the Bill. If it was the intention to exclude them from the scope of the Bill, that intention should be clearly expressed, if it was the intention to leave them included in the scope of the bill, it would be as well to state so in specific terms. Instead of by a general expression of all spirituous liquors containing above 2 per cent of alcohol, in order that business men who dealt in these articles would not be misled. He was in favor of the latter course, as he considered the unregulated sale of alcoholic patent medicine a great evil, capable of growing to enormous dimensions if winked at by the authorities and capable of destroying the benefits hoped for from Prohibition legislation.

Quite a lot of debate followed in which the Premier, the Leader of the Opposition, Colonial Secretary, Mr. Coaker, Mr. Devereaux, Mr. Downey, Mr. Higgins, Mr. Currie and Mr. Grimes took part. It was generally admitted by all speakers that the use of patent medicines such as tonic wines alcoholic beverages was one of the great evils of the day, but it was considered too drastic to debar such Patent Medicines as are Liniment, emollient and ordinary household remedies.
Mr. Lloyd later moved that all spirituous liquors, containing two per cent of alcohol, except such drugs and medicines excluded by the Governor in Council, should be within the scope of the Bill. The amendment was accepted unanimously.
The refusal of the druggists to dispense liquors gave rise to an amendment which provides that the Controller may dispense on prescription of a medical practitioner. Another amendment in the Bill is that it shall be lawful for the Controller to deliver to all clergymen such quantities of wine, for Sacramental purposes, as may be certified to by the head of the denomination of which the clergy is a member, or such agent as may be appointed by the denomination.
The Premier moved that the rules of the House be suspended on Monday next. He also stated that the House would likely close Wednesday next. He also tabled a communication from Commander Macdonald, stating that our Reservists are treated in all respects as the petty officers and R. N. seamen.
The House then adjourned till Monday.

Mr. Coaker spoke in similar tenor. Owing to the way timber areas were destroyed he would protest vigorously but in view of certain circumstances, referred to by the previous speaker, he gave his assent to the Bill. In the meantime he hoped that the Premier would give a promise that he would not consent to representations made asking for the cutting of timber inside the three-mile limit. Girls! Girls! Try It! Stop Dandruff and Beautify Your Hair

Hair stops falling out and gets thick, wavy, strong and beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine" hair cleanse." Just try it—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

Here and There.

KNOWN IN THIS PORT.—The British steamer Industry, reported as being sunk by a German submarine 120 miles from land made two trips to this country last year and loaded pit props at Bonavista Bay, and on another occasion put in here short of coal. The ship was built by Harland and Wolf in Belfast, 1888. She was 4,044 tons gross and 2,616 nett.

LUCKY TO BE ARRESTED.—An outport man who was celebrating with two citizens, well known to the police, was found to be in such a state of inebriation that he was unable to speak, and for safe keeping along with his chums, he was deposited in the "cooler" at the police station last night. When searched a sum of money up to the hundreds, was found on his person. All three appeared before Court this morning.

The Education Bill.

Editor Evening Telegram. Sir—By this morning's Daily News I notice that in the Legislative Council they still haggle over the Education Bill. Some of those members have no children of their own to penalize, and those are the ones that have most to say about the Bill, and others may have them too stupid to take C. H. E. Exams. at 15 years of age not to mention 11. But why should they penalize my children if they are able to take the Exams at 11 years of age? Why should my children have to wait until 12 or 13 years of age or miss the examinations altogether? No man's children are compelled to take these exams at 11 or any other age; and if I wish my children to take them at 11, why prevent them from doing so? Let these learned gentlemen talk matters of which they know something, and leave school affairs to parents and teachers.

With thanks for space, Mr. Editor. INDIGNANT PARENT. St. John's, April 28th.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."

"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."

Zylex, 50c. a box; Zylex Soap, 25c. a cake. Zylex, London. eod, 11.

Amusements.

AT THE CRESCENT. To-day is the last chance to "see 'Pals in Blue,' the big three-reel Diamond Special War Feature at the Crescent Picture Palace. 'Jimmie' is also a fine drama, the story of a Western Union Messenger. Box. 'The Winning Wash' is the funniest comedy you've laughed at in a long while; Ham and Bud make things lively in the wash house. Mr. Frank De Groot sings the latest comedy number 'He's the makings of a Darned fine Man.' The Crescent doors open at ten minutes to seven; go early and get a good seat.
