A great many other games have been arranged, the pressionals no doubt intending to put all they can through before the hot weather. There is going to American championship.

The Woodstock Excelsiors have called a meeting next Friday evening for the purpose of reorganizing.

There was no business done at the Unions meeting last night. No quorum.

The Ontarios of Guelph Township didn't win much last year, and now they wish us to tell their friends they have gone up.

The Athletics have reorganized for the season, and are going to commence play at once. They were only beaten once last year, and now they talk of junior championship, silver cup, etc.

The Dominions, one of the victims of the above club, met the other night, talked over matters, and—collapsed.
