A Message From World-Famous Defendant Acquitted of the Nurse to Mrs. McEyov. Serious Charge.

Hamilton Lady Was One of Nurses The Appropriator of Theatrical "Pro-Trained by the Noble Woman.

The following extract from the Ham-Mrs. McEvoy, wife of Harry Mc-Evoy, artist, 136 Erie avenue, then Miss Fanny Wilde, was one of the first fifunder the direct training of Florence Nightingale, at the close Evoy has received the following interesting letter from her world-famous 10 South street, Park Lane, London, Eng. Dear Madam: Miss Nightingale asks ne to thank you very much for your letter and to say that she is much interested in its contents. She is sorry not to write to you herself, as she does very little writing now, and feels sure case seemed to know what it meant, you will forgive her for only sending a if the reporters and the rest didn't, and you will forgive her for only schange on the first of the May. She does not seem to feel her age in the least. She still sees the St. Thomas' nurses and likes to hear all that is going on. She had a visit from Lord Kitchener when he was at home and sees all her friends occasionally With Miss Nightingale's kindest re membrances, believe me, yours faithfully,

A. A. COCHRAN.

Three Gateways to the West Since the Southwest Limited, the new lectric-lighted train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, has been placed in service, Chicago to Kansas City, this company offers the best of train service to the west through three important gateways—Kansas City, Omaha and St. Paul.

The Pioneer Limited. Chicago to St Paul and Minneapolis, for years has been the most popular train between these cities. The Overland Limited, is the most famous of transcontinent trains through Omaha. The Southwest Limited, Chicago to Kansas City, with its standard and compartment sleepers, library obserment, offers travelers to the Southwest better service than they have heretofore enjoyed, and in consequence has proved a success from its initial trip. In the police court this morning Franilton Spectator will be of interest to cis Ward was acquitted of the charge many Londoners: 558 Grey street, with intent to rob. Tait swore that on the night of March 4 he was going home, and at the cor-ner of William street and the Hamilton road met two young men, of whom of Florence Nightingale, at the close of the Crimean war, at the old St. Thomas' Hospital, London Bridge, and was one. The other fellow had a false mustache (he knew it was false because it was not on straight), and when three others came along the road singing he went over to them. Then someone yelled "Catch him," and Tait ran on the principle that it is better to run than take a licking. Someone had jumped on his back and had struck him in the eye, also going through his pockets, which were empty. Mr. E. Meredith, cross-examining the witness, asked him if he had been "sparking" that night, whatever he meant by that. The complainant in the case seemed to know what it meant,
