Li Yuen-Hing Calls Upon the People To Wipe It Out.

AND OPIUM TRAFFIC

[Canadian Press.] Shanghai, May 8.-A circular telegram rom General Li Yuen Heng, vicepresident of the Chinese Republic, conerning the suppression of opium in China, is given great prominence in the native press today.

Li Yuen-Heng begins his dispatch with reference to the action of the Ngan-Hwei provincial assembly, which urged the president of the republic and cabinet ministers to press forward the negotiations with the foreign powers for a revision of the treaties in view of the stoppage of the importation and transit of opium in the interior of China. Li Yuen-Heng points out that the suppression of opium includes three main ndertakings-first the prohibition of its mportation and transport; second, the uppression of its cultivation, and third, he suppression of opium smoking. Of these, the first is the most important, the latter two depending on that. Li Yuen-Heng therefore calls on the officials, the assemblies and the people of all the provinces of China to con summate the action of the Provincial assembly of Ngan-Hwei by doing their tmost in their several degrees to furher the campaign. The telegram of Li Yuen-Heng possibly as some connection with the accumulation of oplum at Shanghai, whose value amounts to about $45,000,000. epresentations have been made recently at Pekin by the Shanghai merchants regarding the restrictions imposed on its iquidation. According to the oplum agreement lay, 1911, China undertook to prevent provincial interference with the transport of opium in the interior as a partial return for India's consenting to a new scale of annual decrease of impor-
