LONDON DROPS ANOTHER GAME AT TORONTO.

Score of Yesterday's League Games and General Sporting News.

Toronto, June 30.—(Special.)—The Toontos won a game from the Tecumsehs this afternoon through errors by Connors and Lutenberg, which gave the home team ald's refinery, in Petrolea. Loss about all its runs. Jones pitched a fine game, keeping the hits well scattered. Serad was also effective, but not quite so as the Tecumseh pitcher. Brilliant catches were made by Leighton and Lutenberg, while drawing as well as expected, but you can Ike covered himself with glory. The Tecumsehs scored a run in the second whole, is solid, and will last the season by the plaintiff, from the judgment of inning on Coughlin's single, which out.' was fumbled by Connors (Toronto) and At Connors' (London) single. In the fifth they got another tally on singles by Wright and Reidy, and a stolen base. In the seventh they secured their third and last run, when Wright singled and was forced at second on Reidy's rap to Ike. Jones rapped out a long double, scoring Sunday afternoon, the sacrament of holy Reidy. Toronto scored two runs in the fourth on Coleman's single, Connors' failure to stop Woods' easy grounder, and Con-T. Fred. Corey, of Petrolea, Provincial nors' long double. In the seventh Rickley's base on balls, Lutenberg's inglorious failure to gather in Ike's grounder, and making arrangements for society to take singles by McLaughlin and Serad. HIS TERM COMPLETED. Rev. Alex, Langford, of the Askin Street Methodist Church, Preaches a Farewell Sermon. Rev. Alex. Langford, of the Askin Street Methodist Church, who has been pastor there for three years, preached an eloquent sermon Sunday evening, and in his closing remarks was especially powerful. All entries for Windsor races must be The rev. gentleman has been very highly thought of by his people, and they turned out in large numbers last evening. His text was chosen from Philippians, ii., 29: - "Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness and hold such in reputation." 'The rev. gentleman said that he stood in the pulpit as pastor of the Church for the last time with mingled feelings. His mind was running on familiar lines, recalling memories of his three years pastorate, and it was now a St. Thomas races will claim the atten- most solemn thing to be required to render tion of Western Ontario horsemen to-day up to another the care of souls for whom he had felt the deepest sympathies that The dates of the Dufferin Park, To- human nature was capable of.
