The Home Rule Bill Passes the Primary Stage.

PROGRESS OF THE DEBATE.

Lord Randolph Churchill Vigorously Condemns the Measure as a Menace to the Union.

Messrs. Chamberlain and Goschen Also Criticise the Bill-The Editor of the fimes Summoned to the Bar of the House-No Pardon for Dynamiter valy. Lordon, February 17 .- Immediately upon the beginning of business in the House of Commons yesterlay, Sir Thomas Es-monde, anti-Parnellite member for the West Division of Kerry, called the attention of the House to a speech made by Viscount Wolmer, Liberal-Unionist member for West Edinburgh, and a Unionist whip. The speech was delivered in St. James' Hall, and during its course Viscount Wolmer declared that the Irish members of Parliament subsisted on contributions made by the Gladstonian caucus. Sir Thomas objected to such a statement being made. Viscount Wolmer admitted that he had gone too far in his speech, but he said he believed he was justified in saying that J. B. CAMPBELL, M. D., CORONER, 380 some association, furthering Irish Home Rule, supported the needy Irish members of the Hours.

of the House. Mr. Thomas Sexton, anti - Parnellite member for North Kerry, characterized Viscount Wolmer's statement as made in his speech as an invention, and demanded The Speaker, the Rt. Hon. Arthur Wel-lesly Peel, said that he was unable to inter-fere in the matter, as the statement to which objection was offered had been made outside the House. QUEBEC FIRE COMPANIES.

A LBERT O. JEFFERY, LL. B., D. C. L., Contario Loan Building, upstairs, Market Love Lordon, L position leader in the House, also took part in the discussion. While he made no at-tempt to defend the Times for publishing the objectionable article, he advised the House to avoid a conflic; with the press. The article in question, he said, might be interpreted to mean that the result of the Irish members being a paid party might send to introduce future corruption.

Sir William Vernoa Harcourt, Chancel-
