THE VICTORIA WEEKLY COLONIST FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1887.

Weekly Colonist THE LOCAL DE

ISLATURE.

<page-header><page-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Me Customs. -Followin

Weekly Color

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4 1 From the Daily Colonist, Feb LOCAL AND PROVINCL

returns for National or ording Jan. 31st, 1887

d by the p

THE RAILS on the Coal Harbor

looks to be a most dangerous weap The "BULLETIS" EDITOR'S BIR Another birthday overtook the genial and popular editor of the V Bulletis yesterday, finding him and hearty as ager, and just as wil entertain the boys with a good stor the early days when he was the h soul of the circle around the minen fire. Frank Campbell is a worthy and his friend's are legion-he over our young friend's natal da Cotorum is determined to get heartiest wishes for "Many hap turns." Frank will never grown SUNDAY'S STORM, says the Van Nece, was quite as herce and se that of June 13th, last year, wi town was destroyed. The bark Kerr, moored in Coal Harbor, of her bow anchor for some distance direction of the Hastings mill Before the vessel had gone far, ho the anchor got a firm hold on the the Inlet, and she sustained no The bark - has-been moored at th spot for the past nine or ten month kopt in position all that time wi one anchor out.

TRUETERANCE AT CHEMANUS.— Areas on the subject of Tempera delivered by Miss Bowes of the W. C. T. U. at Chemanius on 1 wening the Slat. The attendan sidering the inclement state of the strated over an hour, was listen an attentive audience. The fair was supported by Rev. Mr. Hem Hall, Esc., Mrs. and Miss Hall, at Hopper. At its conclusion all were warmly invited to sign the A few responded and joined th any of total abstainers. A cord of thanks to Miss Bowes closed th ing.

INCENDIARISM AT QUESNE

THE CELEBRATED BAJA

Ashchorr, Feb. 1.—At Queen Friday, Jan. 28th, at 10 p. m., ar of fire was given and it was four fire had started in the old Quong I proof cellar. The firemen four goods boxes piled up and covere coal oil. This is the second time been there. There was a heavy west wind blowing and the thern was three degrees below zero. team were entertained for the she town; but the fire was got un fears were entertained for the a the town; but the fire was got un trol by mothering the flames in lar and pulling down the adjacen ing. Great credit is due to the Q girls, Miss Northcott, Miss Duhi Chaibe and Miss Barlow, as t took charge of the pump and pur the water required until the dan over. The Chinese refused to wo

Ant the latest styles of Pran Raphael Tuck's Valentines just a at M. W. Waitt & Co.'s.