Extraordinary Reductions in the House Furnishings

This department is rapidly swinging into first place in the trade. Business has been increasing very rapidly in this section of the store for the past three years and we have found it necessary to get more room for the proper display of the large assortments and stocks required for this department. The Linoleums are now shown on second floor of the annex and the extra room given to the manufacturing department and upholstering rooms will enable us to look after the wants of our customers more satisfactorily.

St. Petersburg, July 1.—Loyalist sources have published full details of the sensational reactionary plot against the murder of Count Witte, the Russian Premier, his country at the port of Portsmouth in 1905. The plot was planned by a branch of the Union People, the organization emperor sent a commission to investigate the success of its execution of the plot. The leader of the movement was named Kazantsev. St. Petersburg the late and secured employment as a common laborer. Several of his fellow after announcing his archivist he enlisted for in carrying out his was planned to throw Witte's carriage from a cheap boarding house island while the count is attend a meeting of the Empire.

The plot was betrayed to the revolutionaries by a man named Kazantsev. He was arrested and his fellow revolutionaries were ordered to search for him. Kazantsev was found in a wood in the city on June 11 with a gun and was supposed to be executed by fellow to spy.

Through the aid of numbers this crime has some well known leaders. Today the procurator searched the lodgings and found considerable material. The widow of the present time, and the fate of her will give a clue to the Joliffe, editor of a new March who was shot at night on an unknown light on the murder of Witte is the best in the ultra-reactionary.
