Lovely Woman.

O woman! If we fail to please, Think how we work to buy you cheese And bread and cake and soup and pie, We have to put soft graces by. Our everlasting daily task, Is still to purchase what you ask. Thus we forget sunshine and youth And overlook your charms in truth. But yet we love you. Yes we do! The work we do is all for you. For you we delve deep in the mines, For you we buy the valentines, For you the cow-boy chases steers, For you we rise at early morn, And turn the wheel and plow the corn For you we sail the raging main, For you we hustle home again. For you we rush from place to place, And care grave wrinkles in our face. And we grow stooped. Till, seeing you, The crowds we sometimes lead you through, Say—sizing up your gown and hat— "How could she ever marry that."

Sun Dials and Roses.

Canadian Home Journal for April is a splendid example of the up-to-date magazine. Each season has its special interests and naturally at this time of the year it is gardening. Although other departments are not neglected, there are many artistic and thoroughly practical garden articles, written by authorities; "Shade Trees for Lawns," "Hardy Plants for Borders," "Roses Worth Growing," "Plans for Gardens," "Vegetable Garden for 1911," "Quality Strawberries," Mr. Acton has woven together historical notes, descriptions and local color into a most interesting and readable article. "Holy Week in the Eternal City," Household Decoration in April is very suggestive for summer preparations, out-of-doors and porch furniture, carpets, and cushions, with most original and attractive stencil and embroidery designs.

Beyond the Stars.

There is a land of light, we're told, Where sorrow ne'er intrudes; Where souls that long for rest may come, And naught but sin excludes. No carping cares disturb the breast, No joy, which sorrow mars, Will e'er be known, or felt in that Blest land beyond the stars. Each dweller in that glorious clime In robes of white display. The righteousness of One who is The Christ, the living way. And saints of earth, who still remain Resist the ill that bars, Their gaining through Him, fitness for The land beyond the stars. This home of the redeemed, we oft With yearning long to see; And wonder if the friends are there Who cared for you and me. But, scanning the blue vault of heaven, Our load of flesh debars, The spirits' sight from viewing that Bright land beyond the stars.

SOMETHING THAT SHOULD BE RUBBED IN—Whenever pain is felt in the limbs or back, take Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, pour a little in the hand, and applying it to the surface beneath which the pain lies, rub briskly. If the first application does not afford relief, which is not usually the case, keep rubbing. The Oil will gradually penetrate to the affected part and relief will come.

Law and the Kitchen Fire.

A Nebraska man and his wife disagreed so seriously about the division of the work on the farm that they took the matter to court. The judge listened patiently to both sides, then decided to this effect:

"It is the man's duty to perform all outdoor work on the farm. Milking cows is no part of a woman's household duties, and any work of that kind by the woman must be a voluntary act and she must have the proceeds therefrom. The man must not be expected to build the kitchen fire mornings, do family washing, sew on buttons, darn socks or any other household work."

It is said this is the first time a rule of law has been laid down to cover this subject of age-long dispute. The decision seems to be made on sensible lines. The man does the work outside; the woman the work within the home. Still there will be, to the end of time, husbands who are gentlemen enough to get up and build the kitchen fire on cold mornings. When it comes to domestic felicity there are higher laws than the courts.

The Farmer.

An exchange says: "Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike and mines suspend, merchants fail and towns burn, times may be panicky and even crops may be short but the farmer who owns his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet, with plenty to eat and drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth." We think there is a world of truth in this; and yet we have noticed that it is usually the townsman that praises the independence of the farmer. The man on the farm is more apt to see the advantages of city life, and the city dweller can see better the beauty of life on the farm. Human nature, isn't it? And yet it might be an improvement if each would try harder to see his own blessings, says the Christian Guardian. And perhaps there is no man more less likely to see this than the farmer.

Why go limping and whining about your corn when a 25 cent bottle of Holoway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it.

Glencoe Old Boy in Mexico Scrap

Glencoe, March 30.—Dr. John McAlpine, an old Glencoe boy, who has become a prominent practitioner in Mexico, is kept more than busy these days looking after the welfare of those attacked and wounded by rebels. Among the large number he has attended were no less than five of his personal friends, Henry Driscoll, member of a Detroit family, was wounded five times and left for dead by about 100 rebels, who surrounded him and demanded $1,000. He defied them and gave them a hot battle. At the fifth wound he fell and by playing possum was left alone. He made his way to Durango, where he was attended to by Dr. McAlpine. It is reported that Americans are being treated worse since the troops camped on the border.

Coughs, Colds
Bronchitis

If there is an ailment in the throat or chest, it is surely essential that the remedy be conveyed direct to the affected part. It's because the healing vapor of Catarrhazone is breathed into the sore, irritated throat and bronchial tubes, because its balsamic fumes kill the germs and destroy the cause of the trouble. These are the reasons why Catarrhazone never yet failed to cure a genuine case of Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, or Throat Trouble. The wonderfully soothing vapor of Catarrhazone instantly reaches the furthest recesses of the lungs, produces a healing, curative effect that is impossible with a tablet or liquid, which goes merely to the stomach, and falls entirely to help the throat or lungs. To permanently cure your winter ills, your coughs, sneezing and Catarrh, by all means use a tried and proven remedy like Catarrhazone. But beware of the substitutor and imitator. Look for Catarrhazone only. 50c and $1. at all dealers.
