Death of Mrs. John Auld

Strathroy, July 11.—Euphemia Willemina Murr, widow of John Auld of Warwick, died at night in the 86th year of her age. She was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, February 16, 1829, and was a daughter of the late Thomas Hay.

The family settled in the village of Errol, Lambton County, during the rebellion in 1837, and later removed to the village of Warwick in about 1840, when that village was the principal point on the London and Sarnia stage route.

In 1849, she was married to John Auld, who was then interested in a millinery business. He died on October 11, 1864.

In 1865 the family removed to Strathroy, where she conducted a millinery business for 34 years.

The family consisted of four children, of whom Mrs. H. Bentley and Mrs. (Dr.) Crouter are deceased.

John A. Auld, of the Amherstburg Echo, and Win. H. Auld, of the Essex Free Press, are sons of deceased. Miss Effie E. Bentley, of Strathroy, is a granddaughter. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning to St. Marys Cemetery, Warwick Village.

D. WATT, Secretary.

W. R. Duncan, a former well-known Petrolia man, died at London last week. Fred Dell and George Mitchell, of Strathroy, were seriously injured in an accident at Denfield, Wednesday night from the results of which Dell may not recover. They have been touring the country with a feather renovating machine, a weighty outfit containing an engine and heavy machinery. When this tipped over both men were crushed.

ORANGE CELEBRATION IN WATFORD JULY TWELFTH

A Big Parade, A Festive Crowd, Lots of Good Music, Fine Weather and A General Good Time

Watford has had some big Orange celebrations, but the one on Monday last eclipsed all previous efforts in the number of lodges taking part, the size of the crowd attending the proceedings and the enthusiasm manifested, and the 25th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne will long be remembered by every Orangeman who was present.

The weather in the forenoon was cloudy but pleasant, the copious showers on Sunday leaving a cool and exhilarating atmosphere, which was ideal for outdoor pleasure. The afternoon was rather warm, but not oppressively hot. The early morning trains brought in quite a few visitors and from that time on the crowd swelled until noon, at which time the streets were a larger crowd than at any celebration in the history of the place, with probably one exception—the Old Boys' Reunion.

Nothing was left undone to insure the comfort and entertainment of the visitors. Soon after one o'clock, the Marshall of the day, Bro. Jas. Gillard, D. of C. of the East Lambton County lodge, started to form the brass band in line. He was ably assisted by Bro. Cox, director of ceremonies for West Lambton. The procession was formed in front of the army and headed by the Watford citizens' band, proceeded by the way of McGregor, front, Main and Simcoe streets to the park. It was the largest Orange procession ever held here, some 28 lodges being in line with two brass bands, two piccolo bands and a number of fifes and drums to furnish the music.

All the lodges did not register, but the following were noted in the procession:—Beatty Lodge No. 514, the senior lodge in the county; Adelaide, No. 310; Arkona, No. 2339; Kettle Point, No. 2017; Warwick Village, No. 516; Forest, Oil Springs, No. 1151; Sarnia Huron, No. 916; Waukegan, No. 629; Lovelock, Nos. 2194 and 964; Sarnia Reserve, Nos. 671 and 608; Petrolia, Nos. 195 and 196; Jura; Wyoming, No. 964; Cornuna, No. 608; Brigden, No. 916; Brooke, Nos. 1029, 746, 831; Plympton; Etnishillen, No. 193; Watford, No. 505. Two bus loads of members of Ladies' Lodges headed the procession.

On the line of march were banners bearing the mottoes "In God We Trust," "My God, My Country and My King," "Equal Rights to All," "A United Canada," "Special Privileges to None," while a large "Welcome" banner was strung at the north and south ends of Main street. There was a profuse display of flags and bunting, which, with the gaily dressed crowd adorned with red and party-colored ribbons, made a pleasing and festive scene.

Arriving at the park, the vast crowd listened to some excellent speeches, delivered from a platform gaily decorated, erected in front of the grand stand. Col. Kenward, Reeve of Watford, was chairman, and extended a hearty welcome to all. Addresses were delivered by Col. Master W. Cully, of Forest; W. H. Stewart, of Rouleau, Sask., a past Co. Master; Rev. S. P. Irwin, Watford; J. E. Armstrong, M. P., Petrolia; Dr. Martyn, M.P.P., Alvinston; Rev. H. F. Kennedy, Warwick; R. J. McCormick, Warwick; Dr. Pickering, Forest; Rev. J. C. McCracken, Wyoming; S. Stapleford, Watford.

The speeches were interspersed by selections by the Indian Brass Band and the Watford Band, the former closing the program with the national anthem.

The lodges then re-formed and marched back to town.

The day was a big success in every way and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

The exercises of the day were well

Mr. Joseph McIntyre, of Camlachie, is the winner of the Photo Contest, inaugurated by the Lambton Publicity Association for the best fruit scene in Lambton County. The photo selected showed an apple tree heavily laden with luscious fruit and picking operations just about to commence. Other photos selected worthy of prizes were submitted by: E. F. Augustine, Cairo, (Highly commended); Mrs. Wm. Edwards, Brigden, Regina; W. A. Anderson, Forest, (six photos); There were in all about 50 photos submitted and the judges, Dr. Fairbank and R. Stritell, experienced some difficulty in making the selection.

Postage Revenue Decreased

At a meeting of the Canadian Post Card Association, held in the Board of Trade Chambers, Montreal, June 28th, the question of the war stamp on post cards was thoroughly discussed. The general opinion, backed up by actual figures of business done by the various members, showed that the charging of the extra cent on postcards has so cut down the use of cards that the government receipts from this source are materially smaller than before the stamp act took effect. The members of the Association are taking steps to gather accurate data, which will be presented to the Government.

NERVOUS CHILDREN

Hard Study and Too Little Exercise Leads to St. Vitus Dance

There is much criticism of modern educational methods that require too much work of school children, allowing them too little time for play and preventing sufficient out-of-door exercise. When the study of music or any other accomplishment, with the necessary practice, is added the strain is increased. Under these conditions the blood becomes impoverished and fails to nourish the nerves. The child becomes restless, and twitching of the muscles follow. Sometimes the child stumbles in walking and drops what it tries to hold. Pallor, listlessness and irritability are symptoms that early show that the blood and nerves are failing to meet the demands made upon them, and that St. Vitus dance has fastened its hold upon the child.

In this condition there is no tonic equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and safely help to meet the demands of the growing child. Out-of-door exercise, nourishing food, plenty of sleep with these tonic pills will cure even the most severe cases of St. Vitus dance. We offer the following proof: "Up to the age of ten years," says Mrs. Johnson, of Henford, N. S., "my son Calvin was as healthy and rugged as any child could be. Then he began to complain that his eyes hurt him, and of pains in the head, and began to fall back in his studies at school. Then I noticed a twitching of the muscles of his face and arms, and later his whole body seemed to be in constant motion. Our family physician was called in and pronounced the trouble a severe attack of St. Vitus dance. He was under the doctor's treatment for some three months but did not seem to improve. We had taken him from school, and were careful that nothing should excite him, but notwithstanding he grew worse, and the least start would bring on attacks of hysteria. This went on for some months until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to my attention, and we decided to give him this medicine. After using a few boxes there was a noticeable improvement, and by the time he had taken nine or ten boxes he had recovered his former good health. There has been no sign of a return of the trouble, and I can scarcely say how thankful we feel for the complete restoration of our son's health."

Parents who find their growing boys or girls becoming nervous should lose no time in giving them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You may ward off an attack of St. Vitus dance, or if the trouble has reached that stage the Pills will effect a cure. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Orangemen's concert in the Lyceum was well attended, and all present enjoyed themselves to the full. Bro. J. E. Armstrong, M.P., presided and introduced a program that gave the utmost satisfaction. Alice Dunbar kept the audience in peals of merriment by her quaint and humorous stories and character songs, and Bert Rose, the comedian, made their sides ache through laughter. Alther Thompson, Gladys Comber, Ben Walker and Posa Charlton are all clever dancers and received rounds of applause.

Baseball game between Forest and Alvinston for a $25 cash prize was one of the best games ever seen here and was a good attraction. Hundreds of people who could not get near enough to the speakers to hear a word turned their attention to the game and were rewarded by seeing a closely-contested and highly-exciting game. At the eleventh inning the score stood 1-1, the match being decided in the twelfth by Alvinston gaining another run. A second game was played later in the day, which resulted in a win for Alvinston by a score of 4-2.
