JOSEPH D. CHUTE.
(Boston Transcript, May 25th.)
While trying to board a moving train at Chateaufort station, on the Shawmut branch of the Consolidated railroad, yesterday afternoon, Joseph D. Chute, of Dorchester, was instantly killed. He had grasped the framework of the rear platform of the last coach, but missed his footing and was thrown violently to the tracks, his head coming in contact with the rails. He was 65 years of age, and was a native of New York, having been born in the city of New York, and was a member of the Grand Lodge of the Grand Order of the Eastern Star, No. 10,000, of New York.
The deceased was the son of the late J. D. Chute, real estate and insurance broker and electrical contractor, and was one of the most successful of the carpenters and joiners of Dorchester. He had been identified with the growth of that section of the city for more than thirty years, taking great interest in public matters, and being especially alive to local improvements.
Mr. Chute was born in Nova Scotia thirty-four years ago, and in early manhood moved to Boston, where he established himself in business. He leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter.
[Mr. George Chute, of Concord, is a brother of the deceased.—Ed. Mo.]

Mrs. ETTA MELISSA ALLEN.
(Boston Herald, May 25th.)
After an illness of only one week, the death of Mrs. Etta Melissa Allen, wife of David S. Allen, took place at her home in Dorchester, Thursday morning, May 23rd, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Allen was born in New Albany, N. S., March 28th, 1837. Her parents were Edward N. and Melissa Montgomery, and she was one of eight children, three sons and five daughters.
She resided in New Albany until she was ten years old, and went from there to Beaufort, Mass. There, Mr. and Mrs. Allen were married November 23rd, 1858. They resided in Beaufort until their removal to Dorchester four years ago.
Two children were born to them, a son, William E. Allen, and daughter, Gladys Allen, who are six years and four years old respectively.
Much sympathy is expressed for the husband, children and other members of the family who have had so suddenly been called to part with a beloved wife, mother, daughter and sister.

Captain "Josh" at the Exposition.
A Buffalo dispatch says: Captain Joshua Slocum rested last night between decks on a good ship Spray, after a rough voyage through the streets of Buffalo, from Erie Basin to the margin of the Pan-American grounds. The Spray, set high in the air, is a ship, really for the first time, in the world, and is an event of the Exposition. Four days ago it lay in Erie Basin waiting for a man with nerve enough and a wagon big enough to get her through the city streets.
"Tell that to the landlubbers who think the Spray is a cockboat," exclaimed a Buffalo man, as he led the reporter to a place on the margin of the city where the Spray could be seen to advantage.
"Did you ever see a stancher boat? And some of those newspaper reporters come aboard and call her a dory." Wey, Columbia had a smaller boat, and the stuff got into the water and I went round the Horn.
"We left New York," said the captain, telling of his last voyage on the Spray, "on the first of May and sailed for Europe. They made it all right in two days. Then it was a ten day low up to Troy and through the canal to Buffalo. We got here a week ago. We shall have her at our moorings in a few days, and then I shall make all my friends welcome."
"After the Exposition? Oh, well, I may go to Greenland for more adventures, I am getting lonely, and I must earn my living by some means. I am not showing any signs of being a sailor, but I shall go to sea with me for me. My launch is fitted out for whaling, and I shall take the Spray along to carry the boys."
