 YOUNG MOUNTAIN GOAT
 THE TROPHY, NEW BRUNSWICK

...sport is a good legs and good wind can get a shot at them.
 A favorite sport in the Canadian Pacific Rockies, and particularly in Banff and vicinity, is hunting. Many of the same with the camera—in which hardships are involved, as hunting with rifle is forbidden in the National Park. Big game animals roam in groups through the woods and along the trails and roads, and often like to stand on some ledge or rock or prominent place to observe passers-by.
 In the zoological garden and in the enclosed park at Banff there are many varieties of wild animals available for photographers. Some of the most treasured mementoes of the Canadian Pacific Rockies brought away by visitors are snapshots of the wonderful game animals.

CRAZY TIMES
 Strike and the world strikes with you, work and you work alone; our souls are ablaze with the Bolshevik carze, the wildest that was ever known. Groan and there'll be a chorus, smile and you make no hit; for we've grown long hair and preach despair and show you a dally fit. Spend and the gang will cheer you, save and you'll have no friends, for we throw our bucks to the birds and ducks and borrow from all who'll lend. Knock and you'll be a winner, boast and you'll be a frost; for the old sane ways of prewar days are now from the program lost. Strike and you work alone; for we'd rather yell and raise blue hell than strive for an honest home. Rant and you are a leader, toil and you're a nut; 'twas a bitter day when we pulled away from the oldtime workday rut. Wait and there'll be a blow up, watch and you'll see a slump, and the fads and crimes of these crazy times will go to the Nation's dismay.—Walt Mason.

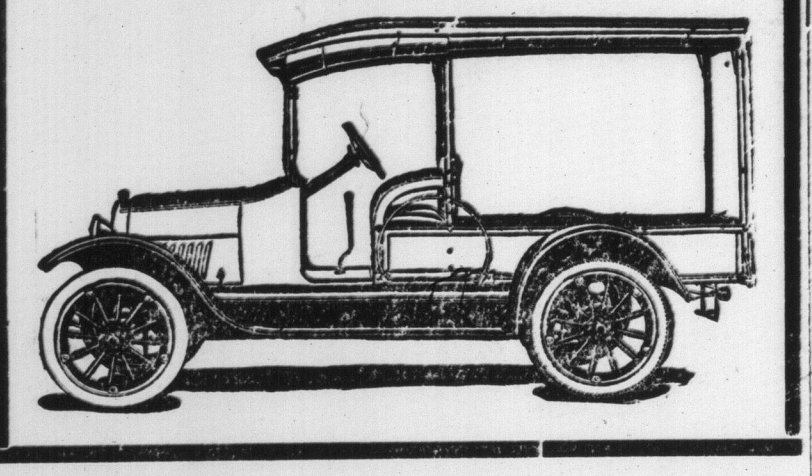

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Elderkin of Amherst, Celebrated Happy Event.
 An Amherst despatch says: A delightful social event of particular interest was enjoyed on Monday afternoon, the 25th, when Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Elderkin were at home to a host of friends at their home, Bonnyview, Victoria Street, the occasion being the golden wedding anniversary of their marriage. Just fifty years ago October 25th, 1870, the marriage was celebrated at the home of the bride, at Nappan, of Anna Amelia Pugsley, daughter of the late Daniel Pugsley, and Edward Baker Elderkin, son of the late John Kerr Elderkin, the nuptial knot thus uniting two of the historic and prominent families of Cumberland County. The ceremony was performed by the late Rev. Alexander S. Tuttle, who was so well known and beloved by the older generation of today. It is interesting to note that two guests at the wedding fifty years ago were present at the reception Monday Mrs. Chipman, of Boston, sister of Mr. Elderkin and Mrs. Louise Pipes, widow of Mrs. Elderkin's brother, the late Amos Pugsley of Amherst. The bride of fifty summers was happy and beautiful, with her abundant tresses of purest white, wearing a gown of amethyst crepe de chene with old lace and jewels, and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and ferns.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin were assisted in receiving by members of their family. A golden wedding collation was served in the large dining room, where the table was beautifully centred with a silver mirrored stand, reflecting fragrant pink and white carnations, with streamers of amilax. Fifty years ago, when little more than out of his teens, Mr. Elderkin received his commission for sailing his ship upon the high seas, and took his young bride and his sister, now Mrs. Chipman, of Boston, with him on a tour of the European ports. After a number of years, Captain Elderkin retired from sea and settled down to agriculture in the old home at Maccan. Later moving with his young family to their present home, Bonnyview. When the Maritime Winter Fair Association was organized, Mr. Elderkin was its efficient president for several years, and its success was in no small way due to his untiring efforts.
MANY GUESTS AT THE REUNION
 During the World's Fair at Buffalo, in 1901 and later at the World's Fair at St. Louis, Mr. Elderkin held the responsible position of Canadian Live Stock Commissioner, and associated with him on his staff at that time was his son, then a college student, Dewitt T. Elderkin, who has won success as Secretary Manager of Saskatchewan Exhibition Association, Regina, Sask. Representing the Nova Scotia Government Emigration Department, Mr. Elderkin, accompanied by Mrs. Elderkin, spent several seasons in the Old Country and when, during the early weeks of the great war, Nova Scotia showed her practical sympathy by despatching the relief ship Tremorvah, laden with food and clothing for suffering Belgium, Mr. Elderkin was officially appointed to make the presentation to the Belgian people.
 In the days of his young manhood, Mr. Elderkin's voice was often heard effectively on public platform in the interests of prohibition, and it is interesting that his native Province, with others of our great Canada, went on record in favor of enforcing prohibition on his golden wedding anniversary, October 25th.
 Among the family guests at the reunion were: Mrs. Chipman, sister of the groom, with Mr. Chipman, Boston; Mrs. Crowell and son, North Sydney; Mrs. E. A. Hicks and son Clair, Bridgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Elderkin, Regina; Mr. and Mrs. Wm R. Bell and children, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr Elderkin, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Alder P. Elderkin and children Amherst.
 Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin were the recipients of bouquets of beautiful chrysanthemums and roses. Telegrams were received from distant friends, together with a gift of gold and loving appreciation of their children and others.
 The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin unite in offering congratulations upon this auspicious occasion and hope that in the golden sunset of their lives they may be long spared to each other, to their loved ones and to their friends.
 Recently 700,000 feet of lumber, owned by the French government, was shipped from Stillwater on the D. A. D. to Halifax, enroute to France.
