

PRIZE LIST OF Flower Exhibition.

AUGUST 18th and 19th.

POT PLANTS	1ST. PRIZE	2ND. PRIZE
Begonia Tuberosa, best 3	$1.00	$0.50
" " " 1	.50	.25
" Rex " 3	1.00	.50
" " " 1	.50	.25
" Fibrous " 1	.50	.25
Cactus, best 1	.50	.25
Coleus, best 3	1.00	.50
Ferns, best collection 6	1.00	.50
" single specimen	.50	.25
Fuchsias, best one	.50	.25
Geraniums, best 3 double 3 colors	1.00	.50
" " 3 single 3 "	1.00	.50
Gloxinias, best specimen	.50	.25
Palu, best specimen	.50	.25
Petunias, best specimen	.50	.25
Best specimen Plant in flower not specified above	.50	.25
" Plant foliage not specified above	.50	.25
CUT FLOWERS
Antirrhinums, 6 spikes	1.00	.50
Asters, 3 of each 3 colors	1.00	.50
Carnations, 6, not less 3 colors	1.00	.50
Dianthus, 6, not less, 6 colors	1.00	.50
Dahlias Cactus, 6 blooms named	1.00	.50
" Show, 6 "	1.00	.50
" Decorative, 6 blooms named	1.00	.50
Geraniums, 6 blooms 6 varieties	1.00	.50
Gladioli, 6 colors 1 spike each	1.00	.50
" 3 " 1 " "	1.00	.50
Hollyhocks, 6 blooms 6 colors	$1.00	$0.50
Larkspurs, 3 colors 3 spikes each	1.00	.50
Liliums, best vase	1.00	.50
Poppies, best vase	.50	.25
Pansies, 12 colors 1 specimen each	1.00	.50
Petunias, double 12 specimens not less 4 colors	1.00	.50
" single 12 " not less 4 colors	1.00	.50
Phlox, perennial, 6 varieties 1 spike each	1.00	.50
" drummondii, 8 colors 3 stems each	1.00	.50
Roses, 6 in vase with their foliage	1.00	.50
Salpiglossis, 6 colors 3 spikes each	1.00	.50
Stocks, 5 colors 3 spikes each	1.00	.50
" 3 colors 2 spikes each	1.00	.50
Sunflowers, best vase	.50	.25
Sweet Peas, not less 12 varieties, 6 specimens of each	2.00	1.00
" 6 varieties, 10 specimens	1.00	.50
" best white, 20 stems	.50	.25
" best red 20 stems	.50	.25
" blue, best 20 stems	.50	.25
" pink, " 20 "	.50	.25
" yellow " 20 "	.50	.25
" lavender " 20 "	.50	.25
" maroon " 20 "	.50	.25
" striped " 20 "	.50	.25
" any other color named, 20 stems	.50	.25
Verbenas, 6 colors, 3 specimens each	1.00	.50
Zinnias, 6 colors, 3 specimens	1.00	.50
Nasturtiums, collection	1.00	.50
Scabiosa, 5 varieties, 1 specimen of each	1.00	.50
Annals, collection, shown separately	2.00	1.00
Best hand bouquet	1.00	.50
Best bridal bouquet	1.00	.50
Basket cut flowers	1.00	.50
Best decorative bowl Sweet Peas	1.00	.50
" of any one annual	1.00	.50

Bear River.

Tera ehar. "Melba," Rafuse, arrived from St. John on Thursday last in tow of S.S. Bear River to load lumber for Clarke Bros.

Mr. Douglas Rice and family, who have been spending several weeks in town, returned to Boston on Saturday last.

Mr. Clarence Goodere arrived home on Thursday last.

Mrs. Edward Rafuse went to Halifax on Thursday last for medical treatment. Dr. Archibald, who accompanied her, returned on Friday.

Mr. Harry Morehouse and Mr. H. J. Holman, who have been at the Bear River Hotel, returned to Boston on Friday last.

Miss Rhoda Kelly, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. Howard Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Stasso Berine, New York, are guests at the Bear River Hotel.

Miss Milligan, St. John, is at the Bear River Hotel.

Rev. S. J. Cann and family are visiting Mrs. Cann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Phinney.

Mrs. Walker, Mobile, is spending some weeks at Capt. and Mrs. G. W. Crosscup's.

Capt. Rafuse went to Bridgewater on Friday with his wife and family.

Mrs. W. W. Wade and children, arrived home from their trip through the Annapolis Valley this week.

Mrs. John Morrison is slowly improving in health.

Mr. Obediah Parker, who has been quite ill, is able to be around again.

Port Lorne

The community was saddened at a telegram from Brockton, that one of our oldest residents, Samuel Rhodes, had passed away at that place, after a short illness, following a severe accident. His remains were brought home by his son, Gilbert Rhodes and interred in the cemetery on Thursday last. He was eighty-seven years of age and leaves two sons, Gilbert and Milledge, both of Attleboro and two daughters, Mrs. Maurice Dalton, of Brockton, and Mrs. Charles Branscomb of Lynn.

Mrs. Edwin Hall and daughter, Fannie have returned to their home in Brockton.

Mrs. W. Bent, and daughter, of Lawrence town, spent a few days with Mrs. Addy Nichols.

The ladies' sewing circle will meet with Mrs. A. G. Nichols on Thursday Aug. 3rd. at 2. b. m.

Mr. Ernest Ray is spending a few days with his family.

Mr. Phineas Charlton, of Williamston, is visiting friends in this place.

Mrs. John Charlton is visiting friends in Bridgetown.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blakney Brown on Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest W. Ray, who has been spending some months in the United States, returned home last week.

Messrs Moulton and Byron, of the Department of Interior, are here taking geodetic observations from the tower on the North Mountain.

We regret to report that the case of Miss Maria Wade, who nearly a year since was stricken with paralysis, is at the time of writing, very serious and all hope has been abandoned.

Miss Helen Foster of Roxbury, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Seth L. Geener.

The old giant oak, one of the few remaining landmarks of by-gone years fell down last week. It stood on the farm of Alexander Fraser, Esq., close by the Geener cemetery. It was supposed to be over two hundred years old.

The rain of last week was a perfect Godsend to this part of the valley. It was very much needed.

Lawrencetown.

Miss Susie Marshall and Mrs. Banks of Middletown were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Banks over Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Cole, of Baltimore and Mrs. Chas Cole, of Washington, arrived last week to visit Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Young and on Saturday Mrs. Young accompanied them to Halifax to spend a few days.

Vernon Balcom leaves on Tuesday for Boston, after spending a very pleasant vacation with his parents and friends.

The ladies of the Methodist Auxiliarity will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. France, and on Thursday the sewing circle will meet with Mrs. Miner Dene's.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Daniels welcomed a son on the 31st.

Miss Eazel Remson and brother, of Massachusetts, spent two weeks the guests of their aunt, Mrs Milledge D. niel.

The Baptist Sunday School picnic will be held at Port Lorne on Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Young, of Bridgetown is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. M. Balcom.

A. V. Durling of the United States is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Durling N. Y., preached to a large and appreciative audience on Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. Fash will occupy the pulpit Sunday, Aug. 6th at 11 a.m. in the absence of Pastor Mellick, who left this week on his vacation. Conference Friday evening, when delegates will be appointed to the convention.

The mill owned by Messrs L. Stoddard and E. H. Freeman, was completely destroyed by fire last Wednesday evening. The community expresses much sympathy for the great loss sustained.

Miss Rita Phinney is spending a few weeks in Springfield, the guest of her friend, Miss Frances Saunders.

Miss Viola Banks, of Paradise, is the guest of Miss Nita Balcom.

Miss Hattie Banks of Clarence Centre, is visiting Mrs. C. S. Balcom.

The Band concert is held on the Island every Monday evening, where a large number gather to enjoy the music, ice cream and canoeing.

Misses Hazel and Mary Balcom spent Saturday with relatives in Kingston.

Belleisle

Capt. A. D. Manroe and wife, came from Truro on Saturday and are occupying their summer residence here.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, of Brookline, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Bent.

Miss Georgie Roop, of Annapolis Royal, was the guest of Miss Sadie Geener last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O. Troop and daughter, who have been visiting his brother, Mr. Abner D. Troop, returned to their home at Marlboro, last week.

Mrs. Ernest W. Ray, who has been spending some months in the United States, returned home last week.

Messrs Moulton and Byron, of the Department of Interior, are here taking geodetic observations from the tower on the North Mountain.

We regret to report that the case of Miss Maria Wade, who nearly a year since was stricken with paralysis, is at the time of writing, very serious and all hope has been abandoned.

Miss Helen Foster of Roxbury, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Seth L. Geener.

The old giant oak, one of the few remaining landmarks of by-gone years fell down last week. It stood on the farm of Alexander Fraser, Esq., close by the Geener cemetery. It was supposed to be over two hundred years old.

The rain of last week was a perfect Godsend to this part of the valley. It was very much needed.

Round Hill

Tom F. Rice has returned home from Bear River, where he has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Cordelia A. Rice.

Miss Effie Goldsmith is spending a few days here, the guest of Miss Hazel Williams.

Miss S. Alice Tupper and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertram Tupper spent Friday of last week with relatives here.

Mr. Lewis B. Dodge, from Bridgetown, where he is working, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mr. Elias Tupper is home from Chester Basin on a few days' vacation.

Mr. Alfred Gauthier, of Washington, D. C., is boarding at W.H. Anderson's. He has spent several summers here.

Parkers Cove

Schr. "Ethel May," Capt. R. E. Hudson called for St. John the 27th.

Schr. "Lloyd," Capt. W. H. Anderson, sailed for St. John on the 28th.

Miss Ruth McGarvy, of Lynn, is visiting her brother, Mr. Frank McGarvy.

Mr. Watson Hudson is home from sea and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Bertie Hardwick.

Mr. Morse Copley, of Round Hill, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Adeline Weatherspoon and daughter, Maggie, of Granville Ferry, are guests of Mrs. Weatherspoon's sister, Mrs. May Rice of this place.

Mrs. Judson Longmire and Miss George called on Mr. and Mrs. David Milner July 28th.

Mr. Alfred Gauthier, of Washington, D. C., is boarding at W.H. Anderson's. He has spent several summers here.

Granville Centre

Miss Mabel Troop is spending her vacation at home. On her return from Amherst, she was accompanied by her friend, Miss Blanche Modatt, who remained a week.

Mrs. Frank Willett, of Tupperville, is spending the week with relatives here.

Mr. Harry Goodwin and daughter, Edith attended the "Old Home Week" celebration in Yarmouth last week.

Mr. Warren Webb and wife, of California, who recently visited the former's aunt, Mrs. W. B. Mills, have returned home.

Mrs. R. L. Hunt and son, Freeland of Bridgewater, are guests of her parents, Major and Mrs. David Wade.

Miss Barbara Willett is spending the holidays with her grandparents, in Lower Granville.

Miss Mildred Fuller, of Boston, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wade.

Miss Lela Hutchinson, of South Boston, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. LeBaron Troop are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, July 25th.

Miss Lena Withers, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Withers.

Mrs. Milton Harris and Miss Eugenia Mills are guests of their mother, Mrs. E. C. Mills.

Mrs. Harold Hutchinson and little daughter Evelyn, of Somerville, Mass are visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Covert.

Miss Wm. Hutchinson and Miss Etta Withers came from Boston last week and will spend several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Withers.

Mrs. Alfred Osinger, of British Columbia is visiting Mrs. James Osinger.

Master Claude White, of Young's Cove, is spending the holidays with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Young.

The Granville Centre Tennis club meets every Thursday evening on the lawn of Mr. B. C. Eaton.

Mrs. McMichael of Halifax is the guest of Mrs. James Osinger.

Mr. Reginald Wade arrived home on Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wade.

Outram

Mr. and Mrs. George Andrews and family left last Saturday to spend the summer in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Elbert Marshall and family from Keene, N. H., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Marshall for a few weeks.

Rev. E. M. Blakney, student from Wolfville, was calling on friends here last week.

Dr. C.H. Baltzer from Middleton, was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Joanna Baltzer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Risteen from Hampton were guests of A. M. Healey last week.

Miss Florence E. Howard from Somerville, and Miss Addie B. Frits from Mt. Hanley, were guests of Mrs. Parker Banks last week.

Mr. David Marshall was married to Miss Ruth Grant, of Arlington, July 19th, at Paradise by Rev. L. F. Wallace. A reception was given at the home of the groom in the evening, from eight to eleven o'clock. A very pleasant evening was spent. We wish the happy couple a long and prosperous wedded life.

Several of our young people attended the Ice Cream social at Mt. Hanley last Wednesday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. W. Brinton and wife, of Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stark from Hampton, Mrs. Richard Balsor and family from Mt. Hanley, were guests at Mr. and Mrs. John A. Balsor's last week.

Paradise

Mr. T. D. Ruggles, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. J. C. Phinney, returned to Winnipeg last week. He visited his sister, Mrs. H. H. Hopkins, of New Brunswick.

Mr. Nowlan, assistant pastor at Nietaux, will exchange pulpits with Pastor Wallace on Sunday next. Service here at 3 p.m.

Rev. W. B. Wallace and family, of New York are guests at the parsonage.

Mrs. F. W. Bishop and children are spending the week at Granville.

Miss Myrtle Starratt, who has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Starratt, returned to the United States on Saturday.

Mrs. B. Starratt and Mrs. Logan left on Tuesday for a visit with friends in Moncton.

Mr. Fred Freeman, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Freeman, has gone to take a position in the West, where he hopes the climate may be beneficial to his health.

Mr. Frank Freeman and son of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Haviland Morse are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Morse.

Mrs. Charles Crisp and little daughter, Dorothy, are visiting friends in Yarmouth.

Miss Eleanor Longley is spending part of her vacation in Granville.

Bamptton.

Miss Bessie Foster and her friend, Mr. Robinson have returned to New York.

Hattie Brinton has returned to Lynn, after spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. I. B. Snow.

Mrs. Robert Chute was visiting friends in Yarmouth last week.

John B. Templeman found a giant lump fish on the shore on Monday. It was about six feet long by three and a half feet deep, and fifteen inches or more in width. The two fins or propellers were about twenty inches long. The flesh looks like pork and looks quite oily, about three inches thick and contains no bones. It is being tried out for oil.

(From another correspondent)

The hot dry weather has at last given way to cool and refreshing breezes.

Among the visitors to our village last week were Mrs. Elizabeth Frost of Rosindale, Mass., and sister, Mrs. Minnie Wilkinson, assistant pastor at the Tremont Temple, Boston, and brother, Joseph Wheelock. They were the guests at the pleasant home of their uncle, John B. Templeman.

A family picnic was held at "Lionpond Cottage," owned by Mrs. Jemima Bogart, of California, who with her daughter and sister, Mrs. Martha Miller, and granddaughter, are stopping at the Bay View Hotel at Port Lorne. Miss Adeline Bogart, who is known for her kindness of heart, omitted none of her relatives living in this country and amongst the happy party was one old lady past ninety years of age. It is needless to say a pleasant day was spent by all present.

Among those who came yesterday (Sunday) to enjoy the cool and bracing air of our pleasant village, we noticed from Bridgetown Mr. Charles DeWitt, Mrs. Wanford Dodge, Mrs. Burns Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McKenzie and brother Harry, Mr. Howard Marshall and Miss Dargie. Captain Reuben Chute spared no pains to entertain all who come to his fine picnic grounds.

Mrs. Carey Chute and daughter are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chute.

Mr. Joseph W. Sprawl and Miss Gladys Viets were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Neal on Sunday last.

Tinkering Tim

(By T. S. Stribling)

A series of taps, followed by a splash and a shivering "Ouch!" from the kitchen there appeared the fro-turly wearily to his wife.

"What is that boy up to now?" he questioned with martyr-like patience.

"There's absolutely no telling, dear He may be testing a submarine boat, an electric battery, an aeroplane, or a wireless telegraph. I only know that it is some new marvel he is trying to make."

At this instant from the door of the kitchen there appeared the growl-head of Tim, followed a moment later by a dripping body.

Even Mr. Alstrand, who objected to the boy's endless experiments, broke into a smile of amusement at his son's drenched condition. "Well, what now?" he laughed.

Although Tim was very cold, his face grew red. "I—I was just trying to measure the water pressure in the faucet with—with a pair of hand scales and a little thing I had fixed up."

"Well, it seems to be pretty strong today, judging from your clothes."

"Yes, sir," replied the lad; "my instrument broke; it wasn't stout enough."

Mr. Alfred Gauthier, of Washington, D. C., is boarding at W.H. Anderson's. He has spent several summers here.

Run along to your room and put on dry clothes," said his mother, "and you had better hang these by the furnace, as you can put them on again when you are splashed the next time." For that lady had learned by long experience that Tim rarely quit an experiment until he had made at least a dozen or so trials.

"All right," the boy chattered; "I'll mop up the water on the floor mamma when I get back."

As Tim went flying upstairs, Mr. Alstrand leaned back, still smiling, in his chair, and resumed his paper. "If that boy doesn't turn out to be an Edison or a Cyrus Field, it will astonish me. No wonder everybody calls him "Tinkering Tim."

"He is rather inventive," remarked Mrs. Alstrand, proudly. "You know those wires he put around in the cupboard to shock the cockroaches? Well, they shocked me the other day when I reached for the cranberries."

"But, dear, you are no cockroach," insisted her husband.

"No, but when I remarked that I had been a cockroach I should surely have been killed; and I think he intends to make it stronger now and fix it into a burglar alarm or something of the sort."

By this time Tim reappeared, dried out and full of interest in his undertaking. Both father and mother sighed as he passed eagerly to the kitchen faucet once more.

"He likes it," said Mrs. Alstrand. "And the best hatted little chap in the world;" returned the father; "he can swamp the kitchen if he wants to; I darsay he would do it if he ever wanted to see whether the kitchen range would float or not." Mr. Alstrand arose and started for his office.

Tim stood in the kitchen door looking speculatively at the faucet. The water had pushed the little piston he had made far harder than he had anticipated; that was why he drenched him. He had never before realized that there was so much force in the faucet.

He was just about to attack the proposition of measuring this force once more when his mother called him. "I wish you would churn this milk for me, Tim."

The boy dropped his instruments immediately, and, standing by the churn, began beating the dasher up and down in the sweet clabber. As he did so there began to revolve in his truly American mind the reason why he should stand and stupidly heave a churn dasher up and down while more than enough power lay right in the faucet waiting for him to use it.

As soon as he was through with the milk he begged his mother for a little quart zinc can, which held a little coffee. As usual, she granted his request. Tim immediately took the can to his little workshop, and there began taking out the top and bottom. Then he went to work and fitted a cone-shaped piece of tin on each end and ready to be soldered on. This took him nearly all day, and here the matter rested.

Then with a great deal of trouble he began making something that looked like a windmill, only it had a much greater number of blades than the wheel than an ordinary windmill. This he fitted, so as to exactly run in the zinc can. When he had done this, he began going through his big collection of nuts, and at last found one that exactly fitted the kitchen faucet. To this nut he soldered a tin tube that ran to the middle of the can; then he fixed a water-tight axle running through the can out of the ends of the tin cones. Finally he soldered the entire outfit together and left only the ends of his axle, the nut to fit the faucet, and the tube to carry of the waste water protruding.

When he carried this to the faucet at last and screwed it on, he found when the water was turned on, that the tubes on the inside would carry it against the wheel and make it go humming around. This accomplished, he set to work to rig to his revolving axle a series of wheels and shafts to transmit the power to a churn dasher. This was easily accomplished by turning a wheel just above the churn of just as great diameter, as he wanted the dasher to be lifted at each stroke; then a rod working on the rim of the wheel and to the dasher rim of the wheel and to the dasher gave it the vertical movement.

Long before this was accomplished the entire Alstrand household became informed of his plans. His father couldn't believe Tim would ever be able to churn with a tin box. The boy, however, worked away day after day, quite certain that in the end he would only have to turn the faucet and the water-motor would do the rest.

At length, when everything was fitted up, the churn was finally brought out full of milk. Mother and father were both in the kitchen to watch the wonder operation. The axle from the motor ran straight back over the churn, and there was the wheel on the other end that was to raise and lower the dasher.

Nervously, Tim turned the water on. There was a little hissing noise, the wheel strained around once or twice, and then began a regular little beat as the dasher plunged up and down. The boy was delighted. "There," he cried, "I knew the thing ought to work, and now it is doing it."

"It certainly does, Tim, and I'm rather proud of the boy who made it," remarked Mr. Alstrand.

Later, Tim found that this motor developed a very small power compared to the water it used, and he succeeded in persuading his father to buy a little water-motor, and with this he was able to run not only the churn but a little grindstone, mother's sewing-machine, and he even offered to rock the baby by water power; but Mrs. Alstrand declared that there was a limit to all things.—The Visitor.

Remnant Sale

Come and see what we can give you for your money. We are positive that you will be pleased with our bargains.

- Men's Neglige Shirts 59c. 10 dozen men's Neglige Shirts, good roomy body, assorted patterns. Sizes 14 to 16. SPECIAL PRICE 39c.
- $1.50 Waists for 75c. Ladies' fine Lawn Waists, three-quarter sleeve, full size and good style. Front, back and sleeves embroidered. SPECIAL PRICE 75c.
- Ladies' Vests 10c. 10 dozen Ladies' Summer Vests, with short sleeves, or without. Made from soft smooth yarn, with draw-string at neck. SPECIAL PRICE 10c.
- 12c. Print for 9c. This Print is 31 inches wide. The patterns are well assorted, and the quality good. Don't miss this chance. SPECIAL PRICE 9c.
- Floor Oilcloth, per yd. .25
- Linoleum, per yd. .35
- Men's Straw Hats, at a discount of .25 p. c.
- Children's Straw Hats, at a discount of .25 p. c.
- Three good Towels for .25
- Suit Cases .120
- Crash 15 inches wide, per yd. .06
- Big bargains in other lines too numerous to mention

JOHN LOCKETT and SON