TORONTO vs. HAMILTON.

Following is the score of the game played at Toronto on Saturday between Hamilton and Toronto. It was the third of the series of championship games between the clubs, each before having won one game. The game was particularly marked by the delay caused by the Hamilton pitcher, the incompetency of the umpire, and the disagreeable remarks of the spectators. This latter fault will go a long way to check the good feeling existing between the clubs, and should not be tolerated. If Mr. Fairbairn, the pitcher of the Hamilton club desires to secure the good opinion of spectators and players he will stop his "monkeying" and play ball. His delay of the game on Saturday was simply disgusting even to his own side.
