

The Special Committee appointed to examine Lawrence Henry Henderson as to his qualifications for call to the Bar, pursuant to Rule 209 as amended, beg to report that they have examined Mr. Henderson, and that he has passed a satisfactory examination and is entitled to be called to the Bar.

Ordered for immediate consideration and adopted. Ordered that Mr. Henderson be called to the Bar. Mr. L. H. Henderson was then called to the Bar.

Convocation adjourned.

Saturday, September 17th.

Convocation met at 11 a.m.

Present—The Treasurer, and Messrs. Hoskin, Shepley, Osler, Irving, Ritchie, Moss, Barwick, Douglas, Teetzel, and Lash.

The minutes of the meeting of Tuesday, 13th inst., were read and approved.

Mr. Hoskin, on behalf of the Attorney-General of Ontario, gave notice of motion as follows: The Attorney-General of Ontario hereby gives notice that on the first day of next term he will move in Convocation that the Society do proceed to frame Rules for the admission of women to practise as solicitors, in pursuance of the Act of the Legislature of the Province of Ontario passed in the 55th year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 32.

Mr. Moss moved the second reading of the Rule amending Rule 156.—Carried. The Rule was passed, and is as follows:

Rule 156 is hereby amended by inserting therein, immediately after the first word thereof, the following words: "To the provisions of the eight next succeeding rules, and."

Rule 156 (a) is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor: 156 (a).—Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk, not being a graduate, may attend the lectures of the first year of the School course, either in the first, second, or third year of his attendance in Chambers or service under articles, and may present himself for the examination of the first year of the School course at the School examinations which shall be held at the close of the term in which he shall so have attended such lectures.

156 (b).—Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk, not being a graduate, and not being required to attend the lectures of the first year of the School course, may present himself for the examination of the first year of the said course at the School examinations which shall be held at the close of the term in the first, second, or third year of his attendance in Chambers or service under articles.

156 (c).—Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk, not being a graduate, may attend the lectures of the second year of the School course in the second, third, or fourth year of his attendance in Chambers or service under articles, and may present himself for the examination of the second year of the said course at the School examinations which shall be held at the close of the term in which he shall so have attended such lectures; provided that no student or clerk shall by virtue of this rule be permitted to commence his attendance upon the lectures of the second year of the said course until after he shall have duly passed the examination of the first year of the said course.

156 (d).—Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk, not being a graduate, who shall have passed the examination of the first year of the School course before the commence-
