

YOUNG MEN'S MEETING

Every Saturday Evening,
AT 8 O'CLOCK, FOR ONE HOUR.

COME

PUT LIFE INTO YOUR WORK.

CYOUNG man's interest and duty both indicate that he should make himself indispensable to his employers. He should be industrious and prompt. A young man should make his employer his friend by doing faithfully minutely all that is intrusted to him. It is a great mistake to be over-nice and fastidious about work. Pitch in readily and your willingness will be appreciated, while "high toned" young men, who quibble about what is and what is not his place to do, will get the cold shoulder. There is a story that George Washington once helped to roll a log that one of his corporals would not handle and the greatest Emperor of Russia worked with a shipwright in England—to learn the business. Be energetic, look and act with alacrity; take an interest in your employer's success, work as though the business was your own, and let your employer know that he may place absolute reliance on your word and on your act. Be mindful; have your mind to your business, because it is that which is going to help you—not those outside attractions which some of "the boys" are thinking about. Take pleasure in work; do not go about it in a listless, formal manner, but with alacrity and cheerfulness, and remember that while working thus for others you are laying the foundation of your own success in life.—Christian at Work.
