

Carolina coast, with the competition from the Sandwich Islands. and, at certain prices, the whole of the East India crop to draw from for supply, together with the fact that a portion of the duty now in force on foreign styles will be removed after January 1st, it is likely that prices will rule at a low range of values, and that consumption will be high."

HARDWARE AND METALS.—The metals market in Britain is decidedly firm with upward tendency. Pig Iron is held higher in this market; we now quote Langlois $26.50 to 27.00; and Summerlee $26.00 to 26.50. Bar iron very firm, also hoop and band. Cut Nails are higher; we advance our prices 10c. in accordance with rise in Montreal. Shot is steady at 6½c.; chilled shot, Newcastle, 7½c. Shelf goods are moving fairly. Prices of English gunpowder are as under:

Curtis & Harvey	Blasting	$3.75 per keg.
do.	Sporting F	4.50 "
do.	do. FF	4.75 "
do.	do. FFF	5.00 "
do.	T. P. Rifle	7.50 "
do.	Diamond Grain	75c. per lb.

HIDES AND SKINS.—Hides—No change in prices. The supply is equal to the demand, which continues steady. Calfskins are nominal; Sheepskins—The recent advance has brought skins in more freely, but prices are considered too high and they are not now taken so readily. A drop in price is talked of, but is not yet decided on.

LUMBER.—The general condition is one of continued firmness. The quantity likely to be wintered over in Canada is not large we believe, and the indications are that the overplus stock so held over will be readily purchased, or at least the bulk of it, for spring delivery. In the local market common and dressing sorts are in request. Prices are not quotably altered. Clear pine, 1½ inch or over, is worth to dealers $38.00 to $39.00 per thousand; 1 inch clear and pickets, $25.00; flooring, 1½ and 1½ inch $15.00; dressing $15 to $16.00; joists and scantling, $12.00 to $13.00; clapboards, $12.50.

PROVISIONS.—This market is still very bare of all hog products, a small trade only is being done, owing to scarcity of stock. The dressed hogs coming to hand are too light for anything but fancy cuts. Quotations are easier, and will still further decline. The Chicago market collapsed on the last day of October; and Mess pork for November is now $19.15 in that market. Butter of inferior quality continues to arrive here freely, with no demand; choice quality is worth 22 to 23c. Eggs firm, and scarce. Dried Apples wanted, but receipts very limited. White Beans declining, two cars sold this week on p. t. Cheese firm, only jobbing trade is being done; 12,000 boxes offered at Woodstock yesterday, 10,000 of them September make and balance of season, of this latter quantity 3,400 sold at 12c.

WOOL.—In fleece there is no move, prices continue nominal at 18 to 20c to farmers for selected. Reports from the States show no improvement in the demand for our coarse wools. In supers and all medium and fine wools there is considerable doing, the demand from the factories being steady with no surplus of stock on the market.
