

Winnipeg.—The Canadian Northern Railway, in addition to other improvements to their yards, will erect a roundhouse to cost $50,000.

Winnipeg.—Plans have been completed for a new Union Station here, and President Morse, of the G. T. P., stated that they will very shortly begin operations.

Brandon, Man.—The Sharpe Construction Co., of Winnipeg, are the successful contractors for the new round house for the Canadian Northern Railway, to replace the one burned down last winter. It will be erected at once.

Edmonton, Alta.—M. H. McLeod, General Manager Canadian Northern Ry., states that the company intend to make large additions to the freight sheds here very shortly.

Treherne, Man.—The C. P. R. will erect a new station at the foot of Smith street here in the near future.

New Westminster.—Lewis J. Hill, president Great Northern Railway, gives assurance that his company is prepared to erect a $50,000 depot in New Westminster.

Fredericton, N. B.—At the Board of Trade meeting here the C. P. R. stated that they were willing to build a Union Station, provided some other party would join with them, with the proviso that the C. P. R. control said station.

Clubs and Societies

Quebec, P. Q.—Architects Talbot & Bloume, of this city, have prepared plans for a $25,000 convent for the Societaires Nelson Ste. Marguerite. The proposed structure will be of stone, foundation brick superstructure, galvanized iron roof. Specifications include cement work, cut stone, structural iron, fire escapes, passenger elevator, dumb waiter, electric lighting, hot water heating.

Winnipeg, Ont.—A meeting held here in the offices of McKinnon & Howitt, it was decided to vigorously push a movement looking to the erection of a Y. M. C. A. building here in the near future, to cost $20,000.

Toronto.—The Parkdale Canoe Club propose to erect a new clubhouse somewhere on the lake front at Sunnyside. David Weismiller is the commodore of the club.

Sherbrooke, P. Q.—The Sherbrooke Construction Co. have been awarded the contract for the construction of the new Y. M. C. A. building here at a cost of $15,000.

Kenora, Ont.—The C. P. R. has donated a gift of $30,000 to the Y. M. C. A. institution here, with which a large building will be erected for the purpose of the association. Travelling Secretary Sayer, of the C. P. R., will make the rough plans, which will be elaborated by the engineers of the company. The proposed building will be four stories high and will contain, in addition to a restaurant and a dormitory.

Rapid City, Man.—David E. A. Warnock, of this place, has been awarded the contract for the proposed Oddfellows building here at a contract price of $10,500. The proposed structure will be of brick and concrete, dimensions 50 x 50 feet. Plans by Architect Elliott, of Brandon.

Saskatoon.—Plans for the new Masonic Temple are being completed and tenders will soon be called for the work. The site is 100 feet square. The estimated cost will be $30,000.

Asylums and Hospitals

Port Arthur, Ont.—Architect C. W. Wheeler, Port Arthur, has prepared plans for a $5,000 hospital for the trustees board here. Foundation to be of concrete, superstructure brick and stone, metal shingle roof. Specifications include steam heating, electric lighting, oak interior finish, fire escapes, passenger elevator, dumb waiter, sheet metal work and art glass.

Toronto.—Architects Ellis & Connery, Toronto, have completed plans and specifications for alterations to the High Park Sanitarium, whereby twelve additional rooms and bath will be added to this institution. The cost is estimated to be $25,000. Specifications include hot water heating, central heating and plumbing and fixtures for one bath.

Hamilton, Ont.—William Southam, of this city, has offered the city the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of erecting a Home for Incumbents here. A site for the proposed structure will be selected. Architects Stewart & Witton, Hamilton, have prepared a preliminary sketch for the proposed building and it is expected work will commence in the near future.

Peterboro, Ont.—Plans have been prepared for the erection of a paraly ward to the St. Joseph's Hosptial, Rogers street, of this city. John E. Belcher, of this city, is diocesan architect.

Welland, Ont.—The Welland Hospital Trust, W. Philp, president, has been formed for the purpose of erecting a new hospital here.

Woodstock, Ont.—The council of the county of Ontario has appointed Councilors Buchanan, Chambers and McCarty to interview other municipalities with reference to the erection of a sanitarium for tuberculosis in this vicinity for the common benefit. If the project carries through it is expected that the Government will grant $15,000 towards the work.

Prince Albert, Sask.—Messrs. Hotson & Leader, of this place, who secured the general contract for the $1,000 enlargement to Victoria Hospital, have sublet the heating, plumbing and iron work contracts to O. B. Manville, a local man. The building will be 40 x 50 feet, three stories high of slow burning construction, and will be completed about November 20. Nobles & Anderson, of Prince Albert, Sask., are the architects.

Sydney Mines, C. B.—James Dorsay, John Walsh, Thomas O'Connell and Thomas J. Brown, of this place, have succeeded in raising $25,000 for the erection of a city hospital, and it is expected a much larger sum will be raised, and the erection of same will likely be commenced in the near future.

Ottawa, Ont.—Architects Horwood & Taylor, of this place, announce that they have let the general contract for all the work on a proposed $250,000 collegiate institute to be erected at this place. The building will be of reinforced concrete construction, blower system of heating, slate roof, Georgia pine interior finish, cut stone trimmings, marble work, proofing, and the specifications include metallic lath, structural iron, ornamental iron fire escapes, electrical work, plaster relief work and plate glass. Taylor & Lackay have been awarded the contract at a price of $225,000, they being the lowest tenderers. The contract specifies the building shall be completed by the end of December, 1905.

Ottawa.—Phoenix McCullough, of this place, was awarded the contract for an addition of four rooms to St. Anne's school, $8,224 is the amount of his tender.

York, Ont.—The township of York has passed a by-law for the purpose of raising $10,000 to be applied to the proposed additions to schools in the municipality.

Fort William.—A by-law has been passed by the city council of Fort William, providing for the issue of $24,500 of debentures for the building of a public school in ward 3. A. McNaughton, city clerk.

Osprey, Ont.—The town council will raise $2,300 for the purpose of building a school here. Thos. Scott, secretary.

Paris, Ont.—The Board of Education has decided to have plans in detail and specifications drawn up for an eleven-roomed school building for this place.

Dundas, Ont.—The council of this town has passed a resolution to submit a by-law to the ratepayers at the next general election, for the raising of $25,000 for the purpose of building a high school here.

Winnipeg, Man.—J. H. G. Russell, architect, here, has prepared plans for the erection and completion of a kindergarten building on the corner of Sutherland avenue and Euclid street. Plans with the above.

Winnipeg, Man.—At a meeting of the school board here it was decided to borrow $117,000 for the purpose of providing additional school accommodation.

Victoria West, B. C.—The plans for the Victoria West school here were passed at a meeting of the school board held recently. The plans by Architect W. Ridgway Wilson call for a modern school building, two storeys in height, of red brick with stone and cement dressings, with up to date heating and sanitary accessories, to cost in the neighborhood of $30,000.

Calgary, Alta.—The school board of this place has had plans prepared for a proposed two storey brick school house, by architects Ellis & Connery, of Toronto. The cost of the proposed structure will be about $50,000, and will be equipped with hot water heating, Southern pine interior finish, shingle roof, extensive plumbing. The building will be of cut stone and brick, with cement basement.

Saskatchewan.—The following districts in Saskatchewan have been empowered to borrow money for the purpose of building rural schools: Altam, $1,000; Turtle Lake, $1,500; Melinda, $1,600; McDonald Mills, $1,000; Percierville, $1,000; Mountain View, $2,000; Lillie View, $350; Lac Qui Parle, $500; North Battleford, $35,000; Pleasant View, $1,800; Jambonow, $300; Foam Lake, $1,000; Belcher, $1,000; Mission Lake, $1,000; Oliver, $1,400; Hill Hurst, $1,100; Yellow, $1,000; Little Butte, $1,200; Green Mount, $1,200; Louisa, $1,100; Cloverfield, $300; Stobart Catholic Public School, $4,000; Battleford Protestant Public School, $5,000; Buck

Lake, $2,000; Nord, $7,000; Barton, $300; Broadway, $1,500; Bellview, $1,500; Volkowetz, $1,000; Mildon, $1,700; Roseville, $1,200; Chaisworth, $500; Prairie Rose, $1,500; Grange, $1,500; Morven, $300; Trombley, $900; Saginaw, $1,000.

Vancouver, B. C.—A by-law for the purpose of raising $45,000 for school extensions has been voted on here and passed.

Regina.—The present building on the corner of Albert street and Twelfth avenue, Regina, will be moved back and will be replaced by a new Roman Catholic Convent. The structure will be brick veneered.

Rothsay, N. B.—Plans have been prepared for the secretary of the Rothsay school, district of Rothsay, N. B., for an extension to the present school building, by Architect Brodie, here.

Lewislville, N. S.—Morrice LeBlanc, of this place, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a schoolhouse for the town of Lewislville, for which architect W. C. Barnes prepared the plans. Specifications include stone foundations, frame superstructure, shingle roof, spruce interior finish.

Halifax, N. S.—Architect Herbert E. Gates, of this city, has prepared plans for a $50,000 college to be erected by the Government of Nova Scotia, to be of brick and stone, stone foundation, brick and stone superstructure. Specifications include superstructure, metallic lath, structural iron, ornamental iron, ornamental columns and caps, steam heating and electric lighting.

Churches

Galt, Ont.—Knox Church, Galt, Ont., will erect a Sunday school building to the church. Specifications include masonry, carpentering, glazing, plastering, painting, tinsmithing, gravel roofing, plumbing and electric wiring. Smith & Gemmell, architects, 37 Bank of Commerce Building, Galt.

Ottawa, Ont.—The Church of the Sacred Heart, which was destroyed by fire, will be rebuilt at once. Insurance $51,000. Father Jannott will secure plans from Montreal for the new church.

Ottawa, Ont.—Mr. J. E. Vaughan, chairman, St. Bridget's church, Ottawa, states that the church will, in the course of the next few months, be re-decorated and renovated throughout.

Welland, Ont.—Architect Wilson, of this city, has just completed plans for the Methodist church, which it is proposed to erect to replace the edifice recently destroyed by fire. The proposed structure will be of stone and brick, slate roof, much larger than the old church, and will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000.

Peterboro, Ont.—His Lordship, the Bishop of Peterboro, will receive tenders in the near future, marked "Tender for Church," separate, or in bulk, for the erection of a stone church and Sacristy. Plans and specifications at the office of John E. Belcher, C.E., Peterboro.

St. Prime, Lake St. John, P. Q.—Ed. Tremblay, George Bergeron and Er. Bideau, of Cocouitine, have been awarded the contract for the erection of a church to cost $60,000 for the Catholic Committee here, to have concrete foundations, granite superstructure, galvanized steel roof. Specifications include hot water heating, electric lighting, Scientific interior finish, terra cotta, vaults, plastic relief work. Architects Berlinguet Co., Quebec.

Lachine, P. Q.—The Methodists of this place, under the pastor, Rev. Mr. Pates, are proposing to erect a church to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000.

Theftford Mines, Megantic, P. Q.—Plans are being completed by Messrs. Ouellet & Lavogue, Quebec, for interior finishing of church at this place. The estimated cost of the proposed work is $25,000. The wood work will be grained and the wainscot will be hardwood. The specifications call for plastering and metallic lath. Rev. J. J. Gaudreau, c.o. Theftford Mines, Megantic, P. Q., will supervise the work.

Winnipeg, Man.—O. Holm, of this city, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a $25,000 residence for W. G. Leishkow. Work will commence at once.

Rothern, Sask.—The German Reformed Church here are having prepared plans for the erection of a church at this place. Rev. E. W. Grasse, of Zion Reformed Church has charge of negotiations.

North Sydney, C. B.—R. Gillis, architect, of this place, has prepared plans for a new church for the parishioners of St. Joseph, to be 110 feet long by 60 feet wide, 28 foot post, at a cost ranging from $16,000 for a frame structure, to $25,000 for a stone building. The work of construction will not begin before next summer.