

prices apply including, to the extent required by respective national laws and regulations, prices and conditions for agency services and other services performed by the carrier in connection with air transportation, but excluding remuneration and conditions for the carriage of mail;

g) "Territory", "Air Service", "International Air Service", "Airline" and "Stop for non-traffic purposes" have the meaning respectively assigned to them in Articles 2 and 96 of the Convention;

h) "Change of gauge" means the operation of one of the agreed services by a designated airline in such a way that one section of the route is flown, in accordance with Article III of this Agreement, by aircraft different in capacity from those used on another section.

ARTICLE II (Grant of Rights)

1. Each Contracting Party grants to the other Contracting Party except as otherwise specified in the Annex the following rights for the conduct of international air services by the airline or airlines designated by the other Contracting Party:

a) to fly without landing across the territory of the other Contracting Party;

b) to make stops in the said territory for non-traffic purposes; and

c) to make stops in the said territory for the purpose of taking up and discharging, while operating the routes specified in the Annex, international traffic in passengers, cargo and mail, separately or in combination.

2. Nothing in paragraph 1 of this Agreement shall be deemed to confer on a designated airline or one Contracting Party the privilege of taking up, in the territory of the other Contracting Party, passengers, cargo and mail destined for another point in the territory of that other Contracting Party.
