

"The right of the individual to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and his family and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age, or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his or her control."

and that the remaining paragraphs be re-lettered accordingly.

"The Chairman ruled the amendment out of order on the grounds that it was repetitive and raised a question previously decided by the Committee.

"Whereupon Mr. Martin (Essex East) appealed to the House from the ruling of the Chair."

The question being put by Mr. Speaker: "Shall the ruling of the Chairman be confirmed?"—It was decided in the affirmative on the following division:
