FACULTY OF LAW

Dear Mr. Principal:

Very many thanks for your kind note. As you say, it is a great relief to me to have my difficult domestic problems solved in this way, and I am glad to have the opportunity of re-joining my family and setting up a home again. At the same time I shall feel a real sense of loss in parting from many good friends at McGill, and I hope that they will not forget to look me up whenever they happen to visit Oxford or London.

My technical knowledge of international law is still somewhat elementary, but I hope that I shall be able to read it up sufficiently to make a plausible showing next autumn.

Faithfully yours

W. S. W.
