

PREFACE

TO THE SUPPLEMENT.

The Criminal Code and the Canada Evidence Act,—as originally passed, and from time to time amended,—have, by the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, been repealed, and, (with alterations in the arrangement and in the numbering of the sections of each),—have (along with other Federal enactments included in the Author's second edition of his annotated work on the Criminal Law of Canada,—some of which enactments are mentioned below),—been re-enacted as separate chapters of the new Revised Statutes,—the Adulteration Act being chapter 133, the Canada Evidence Act being chapter 145, the Criminal Code being chapter 146, the Identification of Criminals Act being chapter 149, the Ticket of Leave Act being chapter 150, the Fugitive Offenders' Act being chapter 151 and the Extradition Act being chapter 155.

This makes it necessary to issue either a new edition of the Author's work, or a supplement thereto; and, as only a little over five years have elapsed since the publication of the Author's second edition, and, in view of the greater time, labor and expense involved in the preparation and publication of a new edition, a Supplement, such as the one now issued, will more expeditiously and economically place, at the disposal of the legal fraternity, the Criminal Law of Canada as it now exists.

Being mainly in the shape of a Concordance,—between the numbering of the sections of the Criminal Code and other Acts (as originally enacted and amended to the end of 1901, when the Author's second edition was published), and the numbering of the sections of the corresponding chapters of the New Revised Statutes,—the present Supplement has three columns, the first column giving the old numbering, and the second column giving the new numbering; while the third column shews what has been omitted from, what has been added to and what changes have been made in the law as contained in the Author's second edition.