

APPENDIX I.

PARLIAMENTARY TITLES.

1. Words that Precede the Name.

We speak of "His Majesty the King," "His Excellency the Governor-General," and "His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor."

The prime minister of the Dominion and the other cabinet ministers (whether at present in office or retired) have, as members of the Canadian Privy Council, the right to be styled "The Honourable." Some, however, have also been made members of the British Privy Council, and have, therefore, the title, "The Right Honourable."

The provincial premiers and the other members of the executive councils are styled "The Honourable."

A member of the Dominion Senate has the title, "The Honourable Senator."

The speakers of parliament and the legislatures have their names preceded by "The Honourable."
