

ANALYTICAL INDEX

PROLOGUE

The word "moral"—Action and conduct—Four phases—These are phases of "personality"	PAGE 1
---	-----------

PART I.—THE ANCIENT WORLD

CHAPTER I

SOME ASPECTS OF EARLY CIVILISATION

§ 1. Danger of the word "primitive": Science lags behind morals	7
§ 2. Some views of "savages"	8
§ 3. The economic view of life: Relation of invention to organisation	10
§ 4. Progress of peoples before historical civilisation. The family as unit: Significance of difference in members	12
§ 5. The patriarchate: Theories as to its universality: Matriarchate: The original "pack": Totem groups	13
§ 6. Stages of human history: The predatory life: Pastoral life: Agriculture	15
§ 7. Transition to historical times: The Aryan group patriarchal: Hence its government: Homeric form: The tribe and kinship	17
§ 8. Custom and law: Religion: Distinct as super-personal: Religion and ritual	19
§ 9. Religion primarily social: Myth: Function of religion: The sinner: Excommunication: Preventive purification	22