

Miniature View of the

HAWLEY STEAM SNOW PLOW AND EXCAVATOR.

Taken on its trial trip from Toronto over the Toronto, Grey & Bruce Railway to Phillips' Cut near Orangeville, Ontario, where it bore the most severe test of opening a channel through a cut of packed snow and ice 150 feet in length and six feet deep, on April 23, 1883.

(OVER.)