ENGLAND VS. CANADA AT TAYLOR'S INDOOR MEET.

The second indoor meet of J. & J. Taylor's Athletic Club is scheduled for next Thursday night.

The firm have generously placed their spacious new building at the men's disposal, and an overflow crowd of employes and their relatives will be on hand to root for their candidates. About a dozen events are on the list, and Promoter Alex. Milne insists upon every contestant being ready. The main feature will be a revival of the old-time tug-of-war. The interest in the event is already at a fever heat between English and Canadian teams, best two pulle out of three to decide. The former have the weight, but the latter have the second of the content of the latter have been content of the content

A Catch by Bescher Greatest Play Larry McLean Ever Saw

Larry McLean, a Canadian by birth, the husky backstop of the Cincinnati Red Stockings, considers a catch by Bobby Bescher last year the greatest play he ever saw. Here it is in the language of Hugh S. Fullerton:

The greatest play I ever saw that I have in mind now was in the Philadelphia-Cincinnati series in Cincinnati last year.
