AUSTRIA QUITTING; TURKEY IS OUT

TURKEY SURRENDERS STUPENDOUS ITALIAN SUCCESS; AUSTRIANS COMPLETELY ROUTED

Quits Cold, Laying Down All Arms, Giving Allied Fleets Free Passage Thru the Dardanelles to the Black Sea, Occupation of Forts and Immediate Repatriation of Allied Prisoners.

London, Oct. 31.—Turkey is out of the war. She has surrendered unconditionally, and the last of her army fighting on the Tigris River has surrendered to the allied forces. Several days ago, General Townshend, captured at Kut-el-Amara, was released as a guarantee that Turkey meant business when she asked for an armistice, which was signed today. One of the terms of her capitulation is that the Dardanelles be free for the passage of allied warships, and it is probable that a fleet already has passed thru in order to attack the German fleet in the Black Sea.

An armistice between the allies and Turkey was signed today at Mudros, on the Island of Lemnos, in the Aegean Sea. Some of the Terms. The Turkish plenipotentiaries arrived at Mudros, Island of Lemnos, early this week, and an armistice was signed by Admiral Calthorp on behalf of the allied governments last night. It will come into operation at noon today. It is impossible as yet to publish the full terms of the armistice, but they include the free passage of the allied fleets thru the Bosphorus to the Black Sea, the occupation of forts on the Dardanelles and in the Bosphorus, necessary to secure the passage of the ships, and the immediate repatriation of allied prisoners of war. Townshend Released. General Townshend, the British commander captured at Kut-el-Amara, was liberated several days ago by the Turks. Sir George Cave announced, in order to inform the British admiral in command in the Aegean that the Turkish Government asked that negotiations be opened immediately for an armistice. A reply was sent that if the Turkish Government sent fully accredited plenipotentiaries, Vice-Admiral Calthorp, the British commander, was empowered to inform them of the conditions upon which the allies would agree to stop hostilities, and could sign an armistice on these conditions in their behalf.

Fleet on the Way. Washington, Oct. 31.—Announcement from London that an armistice with Turkey which permits passage of allied warships thru the Dardanelles already is in operation, led naval officers here to believe that an allied fleet, if it has not already started, soon will pass thru to the Black Sea to attack the German naval forces there. These forces include ships of the Russian Black Sea fleet taken over by the Germans after the collapse of the provisional government in Russia. Official British reports revealed by Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, during his recent visit here, show that the Germans obtained one super-dreadnought, several battleships of the pre-dreadnought type, and a score of fast destroyers. The German battle cruiser Goeben also is in the Black Sea. This vessel was in the Mediterranean when the war began and escaped to the Bosphorus, where it was reported to have been "sold" to Turkey before that country entered the war. The cruiser was badly damaged several times, but recent reports said it had been repaired again, taken over by the Germans and withdrawn to the Black Sea. Turks Surrender. The entire Turkish force which has been opposing the British on the Tigris has been captured. It was officially announced today. The text of the statement reads: "The hard fighting on the Tigris, which began on October 24, ended on the 30th with the capture of the entire Turkish force opposed to us on that river. The prisoners are estimated at about 7000, with much material."

No More for Turkey. The disposition of European Turkey and the Dardanelles is a question brought suddenly to the front by the armistice which has ended Turkey's career as an ally of Germany. One thing is regarded here as virtually certain—the Dardanelles will never again be under the domination of Turkey. Great Britain and France are determined upon this. In some quarters the belief prevails that the Dardanelles will be internationalized, thus opening the way to the commerce of the world, and giving Russia an outlet to the Mediterranean. —BUY BONDS—

Enemy Masses Streaming in Confusion Down the Mountain Valley in an Attempt to Reach Passes on the Tagliamento--Asiago Plateau and Other Important Ground Captured.

Austria Quits Next Italy at First Refuses Armistice, But Later Allows Austrian Deputation to Open Preliminaries.

Vienna, via London, Oct. 31.—An Austrian deputation has been permitted to cross the fighting line for preliminary parleys with the Italian commander, according to the official announcement tonight. Italian Army Headquarters on the Piave Front, Oct. 31.—The Italian army on the right is rapidly extending its lines in the valley of the upper Piave around Belluno, with the object of dividing the Austrian army and forcing a retreat of the mountain brigades and the troops from Belluno. The most notable fighting was occasioned by the third army's frontal attack along the lower Piave on the Austrian fifth army, which is resisting stubbornly to save itself from capture. This army is also being attacked by the fourth army, composed of two British, one Italian and one American division. As the left wing of the Austrian army rests upon marshes and the sea, its position is most precarious, and latest reports indicate that it is in flight wherever possible. The Italians are advancing rapidly virtually at all points along the front. The outposts are reported to be within 30 miles of Udine. The Austrians are retreating from their fortified mountain positions, blowing up munitions and fortresses and burning supplies. The great fortresses of Col Vezzena were destroyed in three successive explosions. Italian troops arriving along the Livenza River were greeted with great enthusiasm by the Italians. Twenty British and American units, which have been a ceaseless flow of cavalry, artillery, cyclists, supply wagons, members of the American Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. workers and refugees. Austrians Divided. Washington, Oct. 31.—Italian troops have reached Ponte delle Albi, northeast of the City of Belluno, thus definitely dividing the Austrian army, said an official wireless message received here tonight from Rome. The Austrian army has been completely routed east of the Piave, an earlier

Austria Quits Next Italy at First Refuses Armistice, But Later Allows Austrian Deputation to Open Preliminaries.

The official statement from Vienna says: "The high command of the armies early Tuesday, by means of a parlementaire, established communication with the Italian army command. Every effort is to be made for the avoidance of further useless sacrifice of blood, for the cessation of hostilities and the conclusion of an armistice. Towards this step, which was animated by the best intentions, the Italian high command at first assumed an attitude of unmistakable refusal, and it was only on the evening of Wednesday that, in accord with the Italian high command, General Weber, accompanied by a deputation, was permitted to cross the fighting line for preliminary parleys. If, therefore, the cruelties of warfare must continue in the Italian theatre of the war, the guilt and responsibility will have to be ascribed to the enemy."

ahead, overwhelmingly and capturing the enemy. In the Grappa region, the Italians renewed the attack today and captured the plateau of Asiago, the saddle of Solero, Monte Spioncica and Prassalona, Asolone and Col Caprile and Col Bonatto. The number of prisoners captured now exceeds 50,000, and of the guns captured more than 300 have been counted. Stupendous Successes. "The successes of our armies are becoming more and more stupendous," said the despatch. "The enemy is completely routed east of the Piave and he is with great difficulty sustaining the incessant pressure of our troops in the mountain region, in the plain and in the Alpine foothills of Venezia. Enemy masses are described as 'streaming in confusion' down the mountain valley in an attempt to reach passes on the Tagliamento. Prisoners, guns, war materials and stores, scarcely touched, fell into the hands of the Italians. Czecho-Slovak troops are operating with third Italian army, which is pushing

POLICEMAN IS SHOT BY YOUTH IN A CAR

Second Officer Threatened at Sunnyside at One o'Clock This Morning.

Policeman John May of Cowan avenue station was shot in the arm at 1:30 this morning by one of half a dozen youths firing in a stolen motor car which had stopped at Sunnyside. Later on a threat was made to shoot Policeman Courtney at the same place as the car was returning from the Humbly. Shortly before one o'clock reports were received that two cars had been stolen. May saw them passing Sunnyside, and attempted to jump on the running board of the larger car. One of the six or seven young men who were in the car pointed a revolver at May and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the policeman's right forearm. He was alerted to shoot along 1324 West Queen street, and then taken to the Western Hospital. The cars went as far as the Humbly and returned. The other car, outside the larger car, was approached by Policeman Courtney. The same youth pointed his revolver at the policeman, but the driver swerved, put on speed, and got away.

BELLEJOYEUSE FARM OCCUPIED BY AMERICANS

With the American Forces North-west of Verdun, Oct. 31.—General Pershing's forces today occupied Bellejoieuse Farm and the southern edges of the Bois des Loges. The Americans encountered but little machine-gun opposition. The advance was in the nature of a line-straightening operation. Otherwise the activity along the front today consisted principally of reciprocal artillery firing and bombing. —BUY BONDS—

The Great Days Are On Now.

This, the greatest war of all time, is coming to its big days—days that will mark and make history. First of all, there is to be a surprising military decision in favor of the allies—a thing none of us thought possible six months ago. The enemy is surrendering, pleading for peace. It looks as if the days for cheering are at hand, civilization and humanity are winning out; the forces of reaction and evil have been beaten to a standstill. —BUY BONDS—

A Hustle in Rosedale and Leaside.

Sir Robert Gordon has also been asked to stimulate all government departments to this end. —BUY BONDS—

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS WITH ARMISTICE TERMS

Representatives of Allied Powers Leave First Formal Meeting, Having Reached Substantial Accord.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The representatives of the entente powers left Versailles after their first formal meeting today, visibly content with the results that had been achieved. They have not finished their work, but they have reached a substantial accord. Their task is moving, and they have had the satisfaction of seeing that they soon will be able to make an announcement. The Turkish armistice terms were chiefly the work of the British and French, in them the United States had no part. The decision in this instance is regarded as one of great importance. An informal conference took place at the home of Colonel E. M. House, President Wilson's personal representative, in the forenoon prior to the assembling at Versailles. Among others present were: M. Clemenceau and M. Pichon, respectively, the French premier and foreign minister; Signor Orlando and Baron Sonnino, the Italian premier and foreign minister, and David Lloyd George, the British prime minister. This gathering was preparatory to the formal meeting.

In addition to the French, Italian and British representatives, Dr. M. R. Vismich, the Serbian minister to France, and Eleutherios Venizelos, the Greek premier, attended. The last to arrive at the conference was Marshal Foch. He was alone, without aide or orderly. At Versailles the business was over in a couple of hours, and a long line of automobiles with the representatives of the powers returned to Paris. The reason for the trip to Versailles today was that it is the headquarters of the supreme war council, which theoretically takes no decision except at Versailles. There will be another informal meeting in the forenoon, and the business of the council will be pushed forward rapidly, either at formal or informal meetings, until it is concluded. The spirit of all the representatives appears to be favorable to the ironing out of all obstacles rather than to raising them.

DOWN WITH HAPSBURGS, THE CRY IN VIENNA

Riotous Demonstrations in Vienna and Budapest in Favor of a Republic. Amsterdam, Oct. 31.—The Berlin Tagblatt and Vossische Zeitung publish reports of serious demonstrations at Vienna, as well as at Budapest. An all-provisional soldiers' and officers' council has been established at Vienna, where the people are parading the streets shouting: "Down with the Hapsburgs!"

ANOTHER BIG SLICE WRESTED FROM ENEMY

With the British Army in France and Belgium, Oct. 31.—Another big slice of important territory was torn from the enemy today along a wide front in Belgium between Deynze on the north and Aveleghem on the south, by an allied force composed of Belgian, British, French and American troops. The American units were fighting with the French north of the British. The attack was launched at 5:30 o'clock this morning, and by noon the British had jammed their way forward to a depth of some 4,000 yards. On their left the allies were battling for the high ground between the Lys and Escaut Rivers. The reports indicated that here also things were going well for the assaulting troops. Numerous towns and hamlets have been released by this drive, among them Bergwike, Tierghem, Ansegem and Winterken. —BUY BONDS—

FIVE THOUSAND BUCKS IN AN OLD STOCKING.

Into a poor-looking house in the ward and up a ladder into a room under the eaves went a canvasser (let's call him Bob). There he found a man who took out a $5000 bond, paying for it in cash which money he took out of an old stocking, hidden under his mattress. It goes to prove that you can't judge from where people live, what kind of a bond they own.

Couldn't Get at Hubby's Pockets

"I'd like to take a bond, but I have no money," said a woman to a canvasser. "Can't you get $5 from your husband each month for one?" "I get up first and I never can get at his pockets," answered the woman.

NO BERTHS EITHER.

"I guess she'll be in it soon; ain't they got electric lights in it?" said a middle-aged man as he examined the tank Britannia in front of the city hall last night. "That guy thinks this is a parlor car," said a small boy quietly to his chum.
