About 10.30 Saturday morning Line-man Jos. McGowan, an employe of the Stark Electric Company, was instantly killed while at work on a pole at the corner of Davenport-road and King-street. The wire evidently caught Mc-Gowan on the left thigh and left hand. Two of his comrades were at work with him at the time. One of them was within a few feet of him on the same but cannot account for the accident, as the wires were apparently insulated. From information received at Don Mills-road school will be the exthe head office at the Junction, the wires were charged to the extent of 2200 volts. It was some time before his companions extricated him from the position on the pole. McGowan was a single man, 27 years of age, and had been some years in the employ of the company. He was considered a firstclass lineman, and was exceptionally steady. He lived with his parents at 22 Bartlett-avenue, in the city. The body was taken to Scrutton's undertaking parlors to be embalmed, and was sent to his late home last night. Coroner Mavety decided that no inquest Ridley Honors Mr. Griffith.

The annual match between the Ridley Old Boys and the Present Boys took place on Saturday afternoon on the school campus and resulted in a creditable victory for the Old Boys. So many of the old-timers were on hand that the task of picking a representative team was a difficult one, and in the end was settled by playing 13 men a side. The Present Boys batted first, but were never at home with the bowling of Spence and Dalton, Cassels (19) being the only one who batted with any confidence. Spectacular fielding by Jimmie Dalton and A. C. Kingstone Ridley Honors Mr. Griffith. Dalton and A. C. Kingst added to the general excitement. The Old Boys all seemed possessed of their batting eyes, and Dalton, mi., Hastings, mi., and Dalton, ma, reached double figures in the most brilliant style. In order that all might have a chance to bat, several of these generously retired, and when stumps were drawn 83 for nine indicated that the Old Boys were still a vigorous aggregation.

OPINIONS DIFFERED.

Mr. Brunton Felt Himself in Honor Bound to Resign.

There is no political significance atached to the resignation of W. A. Brunton from the North York license board, such as Hon. Mr.Graham sought to intimate at Friday's Liberal talkfest at Aurora. Mr. Brunton had a difference of opinion with the two other commissioners over the granting of a license at Roach's Point, and to maintain his own sense of what was fair, resigned from the board.

"I've had no trouble with the government whatever," Mr. Brunton said on Saturday. "It was a personal matter. The license was in my own district, and I thought I should have a better idea of what was proper than my late colleagues. I told them that if they granted the license I would resign, and have. That's all.' George Ego of Georgina and Thomas Codd of Stouffville are the other com-
