From Fighting Stock.

After "The King" had been loyally honored, the chalrman proposed "Our Guests," pointing to the fighting stock from which Capt. Cockburn and Major Merritt sprung. He said four generations of Major Merritt's family had served the Empire.

Capt. Cockburn, who has the distinguished honor of winning the Victoria Cross, the highest reward for gallant conduct in action, responded briefly, speaking in high terms of Col. Lessard, "Who led us thrue everything," said he, "from Bloemfontein, in our various engagements.

A Summer Millinery Display

On Wednesday (To-Morrow), we'll have pleasure in showing the latest novelties in summer headgear, culled from the world's fashion centres. No need to tell the ladies of Toronto how well we know how to cater to the most artistic taste. The female population of the city and this store is mutually appreciated. We've got everything in millinery that's worth the having, and nothing of the "job lot" element to show. Prices are always right, consistent with proper materials and well paid work-manship. The display to-morrow is for our thous-ands of friends. You may buy if you choose to, but just as welcome to look at the products of Toronto's leading millinery store.
