Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! it is harmless.

WITH FINGERS! CORN LIFT OUT

Costs few cents! Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out, with the fingers. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the callus, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. Pirona, 516 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

LLOYD GEORGE ANSWERS 'NO' TO SUGGESTED NEGOTIATIONS

No Compromise Between Tyranny and Freedom.

MUST FIGHT TO THE END

Only Heart-Failure on Part of British Nation Can Prevent Victory.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Sept. 12.—"Nothing but heart-failure on the part of the British nation can prevent our achieving a real victory," said Premier Lloyd George in an address on the occasion of his receiving the freedom of the city, for which purpose he had been summoned to Manchester. He was warmly greeted by the citizens, who crowded the streets through which he passed, and who filled the Hippodrome, where the premier spoke.

The premier recalled that his last visit to Manchester was paid in June of 1915, when he appealed to the engineers to organize for the war. He had not gone into this work personally with any eagerness, and in fact, he did not mind saying that he went into it reluctantly.

An Issue of Destiny.
Having realized the character of the challenge, however, he felt it was a duty to be done in any half-hearted way, as the life of Great Britain, and the fate of the empire, and the destiny of the human race hung on the issue of the war.

After pointing out that while there might be difficulties ahead, the way would, in the premier's belief, be a short one, and that the worst was over, Lloyd George continued:

"When we suffered the reverse of March 21, we still had large reserves in this country. The Germans did not know it. I should have expressed gratitude to the people who criticized the Government on the ground that there were no reserves. These people had successfully misled the Germans."

"An additional fact that depressed the German mind was the advent of the Americans. There is no finer feature in the history of English industry than the fact that the Americans came across the Atlantic. The Germans did not expect more than two divisions of the finest material in the world. That was another miscalculation. Hundreds of thousands are there now, and the Germans know it. They are the advance guard of ten million of the finest material in the world. That was another miscalculation. The lightness of the casualties in the last advance has been a great help. The references to the question of peace, and went on to point some lessons from the present war."

The first lesson taught by the war, he said, was the importance of maintaining the solidarity of the British Empire. There must be the healthiest conditions in the workshops, more attention to the schools, he insisted. The best conditions must be maintained for production.

Bold Reconstruction.
"It is idle to pretend that this vast convulsion has taught us nothing," Lloyd George continued. "We want neither reaction, nor revolution. We want well-ordered, bold reconstruction. In the war first, then when peace comes I don't want the nation to be taken unawares."

"The disturbing symptoms all over Europe which those at home will be wise to note and provide against. There are atmospheric disturbances in the social and economic world. Let us make head in the war, and if we do we shall enjoy settled weather for the greatest harvest, which is coming when the fierce heat of summer, now beating upon us in this great war, is over and past."

Speaking at a luncheon after the presentation of the freedom of the city, Lloyd George said:

"There are some men who say 'drop it and let us have peace by negotiation.' There is no compromise between freedom and tyranny, no compromise between light and darkness. I know that it is better to sacrifice one generation than to sacrifice liberty forever. This is what we are fighting for, and heaven grant that we fight through to the end."

GRAND TRUNK MAY ACCEPT LONG TERM RENTAL FROM GOVT.

Next Month May See the Railway Situation
Cleared Up.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—The impasse is growing at Ottawa and is strengthened by the temporary shelving of the Canadian Northern directors' situation that the difference between the Government and the Grand Trunk, which have so far prevented an arrangement for the nationalization of the road, is not now as great as they were when the ministers left England, following their conference with the Grand Trunk directors.

In fact, the opinion is that the Government and the company are not now very far apart as to the terms, and that the next month may see an agreement reached, providing for a long term rental of the systems and its inclusion in the state-controlled roads.

GERMANY PREPARED TO RETURN BELGIUM WITHOUT CONDITION

German Imperial Vice-Chancellor Makes Assertion in a Speech at Stuttgart.

NO INDEMNITIES ASKED

But Wants To Be Assured
Germany Will Not Be Placed at a Disadvantage.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 12.—That Germany might restore Belgium without conditions or indemnities, in case no other country would be better situated, as regards Belgium than Germany, was the belief expressed today by Friedrich von Payer, the imperial vice-chancellor of Germany, in a speech delivered at Stuttgart.

Herr von Payer was speaking on the depression felt in Germany and allied countries, which he attributed not to recent military events, but to the prospect of a fifth war winter.

"If we could be sure that no other country would be better situated as regards Belgium than ourselves," said Herr von Payer, "I believe I could venture to say that Belgium could be restored without conditions and without indemnities."

Discourages Americans.
With regard to the appearance of the American troops on the front, the vice-chancellor said:

"Nobody will deny the co-operation of the American troops on the front, which is a heavy and ever-increasing burden for us. Our enemies, however, forget that if the Americans now appear by hundreds of thousands at the front, we have already put millions of Russians, Serbians and Rumanians out of action. And the Entente will not succeed in winning them back for their own purposes."

PEACE DRIVE UNMISTAKABLE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The German peace offensive is now recognized by officials here as being in full swing. A progressive campaign is clearly indicated to their minds by the apparently casual remarks of Count von Hertling a few days ago, followed by the more formal statement to the visiting German newspapermen in Vienna by Count Burian, the Austria foreign minister, and the remarks of the German crown prince, and now the speech of Emperor William himself to the working people at Essen.

Peace proposals emanating from these sources would appear incongruous were the officials not firmly convinced of the insincerity of the plan, which again is recognized as conceived with the purpose of placating the uneasy and restless German Socialists and at the same time appealing to the pacifists in the Entente countries and in the hands of the Allied governments in the prosecution of the war.

EUGENE DEBS FOUND GUILTY OF TREASON ON 3 OF 10 COUNTS

"It Will All Come Out Right,"
Is His Comment.

JURY OUT FIVE HOURS

Motion for New Trial Will Be Heard Tomorrow Morning.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 12.—Eugene Debs, charged with violation of the espionage act, was found guilty by a federal jury today.

Talking to newspapermen after the verdict, Debs said:

"It is all right. I have no complaint to make. It will come out all right in God's good time."

Of the original ten counts of the indictment, only four remained when the jury retired to consider the evidence. The verdict found him guilty of three, not guilty of one.

He was found guilty of attempting to incite insubordination, disloyalty, etc., in the military or naval forces of the United States.

Attempting to obstruct recruiting to the United States, and to encourage resistance to the United States, and to promote the cause of the enemy.

The fourth count on which he was adjudged innocent charged that he opposed the cause of the United States.

Counsel for both sides said that they considered Judge Westenhaver's instructions to the jury fair. They were exhaustive, and couched in simple language and delivered in a kindly manner, requiring one and a half hours to deliver. He made no comment on the evidence which was presented by the Government, but assured the jury that the espionage act was wholly valid.

The jury was out five and a half hours, mostly spent in deliberation on the fine distinctions between the four counts.

When it was announced that the jury was ready to report, the crush became great.

Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes, herself under conviction on a similar charge, came inside the railing for the first time. Previously, at Debs' request, she had remained hidden in the body of the audience.

She drew her chair beside his, and into her hand she placed his own. Where it remained while the clerk was reading the verdict and polling the jury. She had expected an adverse verdict from the first, admitting it to her friends. Yet was it a surprise to Debs. In his address to the jury he said he had not one word to retract, and rather went out of his way to accept the damaging anti-war platform.

The maximum penalty is 30 years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

Judge Westenhaver stated that he would hear counsel on a motion for a new trial next Saturday morning. Debs until then will remain at liberty under the trial bond.
