Police Believe They Have Made an Important Arrest--General City News.

HAMILTON, Jan: 9. (Special.) Detective Campbell this evening arrested OF CANADA with cheques. Evan had tendered one for $450 to the local branch of the Merchants' Bank.

"I'll cash it for you-just step out to my office," said the sleuth as he led the young man down to No. 3 police station. The Bank of Montreal was fleeced out of $400 in much the same way, and the 8 KING STREET WEST bank people will be given a chance in the morning to see if they can identify Branches the prisoner as the man who buncoed them. Evan claimed that he represented the Dineen Company, Toronto, and he opened up negotiations with a real estate agent to rent offices. He then got the real estate man to accompany him to the bank, where he asked if he could get a cheque cashed.

The teller told him that the bank would be open until 6 o'clock, and he said he would return. Soon after the bank got what purported to be a mes-sage from the Home Bank, Toronto Astounding Decision of District saking that if Evan presented a cheque it should be honored. The local people, it should be honored. The local people, it should be honored to the precaution to call up the Toronto bank, who denied acknowledgment of the man, Evan. The prisoner claims Buffalo as his home. He had five cheques in his pockets for amounts of $200 and upwards.
