At Chilton—The best game of baseball ever witnessed in Chilton was that between Goderich and Clinton last night. The game was faultless up to the ninth inning, when Clinton apparently went to pieces. Up to that point the score was 4 to 2 in favor of the home team, but the ninth was the lucky one for the visitors, when they piled them up in hand. The game was won by Dean of Goderich and Kerr of Clinton were novelties. The score was 9 to 12 in favor of Goderich.

Another long one to-day. This horse is one of those shade horses that run one or two races every year when the price is right. If you missed the above winners don't miss to-day. If you do you will kick yourself for the next six months.

I WILL GUARANTEE that every new client who starts in with me to-day, and sticks to the end of the season, will finish thousands of dollars to the good on the right side of the ledger, and if you are a loser I will pull you out of the hole and stand you on your feet once again. Join hands with me to-day and massacre the common enemy, the layers of the odds. If you are in need of a suit of clothes you go to a tailor, and if you want valuable inside pointers on the ponies, why not go to the "KING-PIN OF THEM ALL?" Is this a sensible argument or not?
