ORTY-SIX HEROES WELCOMED HOME

mpressive Sight at Union Station When Train Pulled In.

TELL OF INJURIES

Pte. Strange Hit by Shell While Aiding Wounded at St. Eloi.

Yesterday morning an effective and impressive sight was witnessed at the Union Station when a large crowd of relatives and friends assembled to greet and welcome home a party of forty-six heroes who returned, after accomplishing their bit at the front. Many happy reunions took place and many tears were shed, but they were tears of happiness at having the loved one at home again safe from the dangers at the battlefront.

The mayor was on hand to welcome the boys, who arrived at 7.30, and as they stepped off the train they were welcomed to their native city by the strains of "The Maple Leaf Forever." Played by the band of the Irish Fusi-

Mayor's Address of Welcome. The men were taken by motor cars to the Reception Hospital on College street, where many more nappy re-unions took place. Addresses were delivered by Mayor Church, Controller Dixon. Mayor Church told the men follows: Frederick W. Hart, 99 Markthat Canada could not do too much for them, and he assured them that the City of Toronto would see that everything possible would be done for their welfare. They had the first call on vacancies which occur in city employment.

He referred in his remarks to the methods of the provincial and federal governments and their "useless com-missions" formed for the purpose of taking care of returned soldiers. He said that the government had not done its duty by the men who have fought and died to preserve the glorious name of the empire. The municipal authorities have all the work of caring for the returned men, and they have per-formed their work well, as over ninety men have been placed in positions during the past month. He closed by remarking that the government will have to take care of these men, and we intend to see that it does take care of them.

The Men's Injuries. Many of he men who returned yes-terday had never been at the front, but were invalided nome because of sickness while training in England. Several, however, had suffered injuries at the front which necessitated their re-Pte. P. Strange was with the C.A.M. C. and was injured at St. Eloi while aiding the wounded by the bursting of lt was W. A. Williamson of versy with Hon. I. B. Lucas over "two dirty Grits" at a campaign meeting on Tuesday night, Bright and early next morning he was up at the parliament buildings.

-Fourth Floor.

Lumber Depots for Relief of Fire Trader Complained to Hon. I. B. Lucas of Crown Attorney and Magistrate.

It appeared that he wanted the police magistrate and the crown attorney in Woodstock to be "sacked." The attorney-general replied that if he would make specific charges against these public officials his department would be pleased to investigate. In reply, Mr. Williamson told his story. In it the attorney-general failed to find any charges that called for investigation.

It appeared that in November, 1915, Mr. Williamson, who is said to be a horse trader, had been arrested on a charge of false pretences on the complaint of a farmer. The police magistrate was away and the crown, attorney offered to take $50 of the $100 that Williamson had on his person that Williamson had on his person and a bond as bail. He stretched a legal point to do so. This was not reagular enough for Williamson, who preferred to remain in jail for 27 days. He demanded a jury trial and refused to trust a lawyer. He was
