RICHARDS AND TAYLOR WIN FINAL ONTARIO DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Mrs. Bickle Beat Miss Best in Ladies' Singles, and Doubles They Landed Another Final Before a Big

A record crowd filled the stands and balcony at the Toronto Tennis Club on Saturday for the final day of the Ontario men's and women's tennis championships. Weather conditions and hard accurate courts made it ideal for those fortunate enough to survive the earlier rounds to face the victors on Centre Court.

It was pre-eminently a day of doubles—men's, mixed and ladies—the men's final round having been decided on the previous day. Vincent Richards and Taylor of New York met Westbrook and Carran of New York in the men's final. The Cleveland close sets, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. The Cleveland pair have played very consistently throughout the week, eliminating some good teams, but were hardly catty on Saturday's task.

Results.

Men's Open Doubles—Semi-Finals—Westbrook and Carran d. Burns and Richards. Finals—Richards and Taylor d. James and Weber, 6-3, 3-7.

Final.

The men's handicap and men's consolation events will be proceeded with after the first of the month. The final in the ladies' handicap between Miss Brock and Miss Clement will be played at 4 p.m.

Australian team of 1913, is the Incomit eleven, which plays an All-Toronto eleven at Varsity last a two-day game, commencing on Saturday.

The games in Philadelphia, the stronghold of American cricket, have demonstrated that a remarkable well-balanced team is the victor, and that a team which is started with the bat and the ball, but their fielding has won encomiums from the spectators.

In their game with an All-Philadelphia eleven, the Englishmen gave a great display, defeating the Americans by 142 runs.

A famous army batsman, Capt. M. B. Burrows, hit up 87 runs, turning what looked like a certain win into a certain victory. Included in the losing

St. Simons Run Up

Score on Ottawa

The Capitals, of Ottawa, the best and the lacrosse team in the east, by 1 to 0, lost to St. Simons, Ontario champions, the first of home-and-home games on the Island on Saturday, to decide the championship of eastern Canada.

The four of the youngest members of the eleven, but one of its brightest stars, S. C. R. Jardine, who is generally regarded as the best batsman among players turned out by Winchester College, was the first to take the spectators at the game between Haverhill and St. Simon's. Jardine was well known, and J. S. Breta's team at Haverhill were very anxious to see him in progress, when he hit up the fine total of 157 before being stumped. In his innings he made eight runs in successive balls, one of them coming a drive for six straight out of the field.

THE BAT STORE CRICKET.

The Fixture Makers and the "Carpenters" of the T. E. B. are friendly rivals in the game of cricket at Riverside Park on Saturday, which resulted in a very close finish. The fixture makers were Thomas 19, Jones 13 and Woodhouse 6. They were the pick of the Fixture Makers. The Carpenters' Gloucester 12, were the best of Carpenters. They were glad to thank the employers for the way in

First Quarter.

Ottawa took the ball at the start, and tried it up, but shot. The Saints carried it back. Miron scored two runs and made a hard try for the visitors. St. Simon's got the ball again. Simmons McGregg tallied soon for the Saints, making it No. 2 for the home side. Simmons McGregg followed while Ottawa tried to bore in on shot wide.

Ottawa secured the third for the Saints. St. Simon's scored a good chance, and the score ran afterwards, their first goal Quarter-time. St. Simon's 3, Ottawa 2.

Second Quarter.

St. Simon's scored their fourth at one minute of play. Miron and O'Brien scored for Ottawa. St. Simon's after a nice run. Miron and Robinson and Duncan went off. Robinson dropped a scotch past McCaffrey. St. Simon's had a second goal almost immediately. Scott tallied again for the Saints, the score now half-half. St. Simon's 4, Ottawa 2.

 takes. She was very accurate in her placing shot after shot with apparently no effort. Mrs. Bickie played her usual strong game, scoring many points with her head forehand drive and overhead smashing. Westbrook played well, but possibly a little out of rhythm. With this more pace would have meant points and
