At the last General Meeting the 14th rule was so amended to read thus:—

14. If the widow die or marry again, the child or children of her deceased husband shall receive the pension. But no part of the pension shall be received by those children who have arrived at the age of sixteen years, if males, or eighteen years, if females, while those who are still under those respective ages, shall receive the full amount of the pension.

Also notice of motion was given for such change in Rule 11 as will allow holders of certificates to travel within the latitudes usually allowed by life insurance companies.
