Steamer Calvin Austin, Captain Pike, arrived this morning from Boston direct with 177 passengers. Travel this way is beginning to fall off.

Barquentine Eva Lynch, Captain S. P. Hatfield, arrived in port last night with 87 tons of coal from New York. She will load coal for Ireland.

The members of No. VIII. Beaser Corps, who won prizes at Camp Sussex in the athletic competitions, were presented with their prizes at the armory last night.

Charles Conway, driver of No. 1 Hook and Ladder truck, left this morning on a vacation trip. He will be gone about two weeks and will visit the Toronto fair, Niagara Falls, Montreal, Quebec and other places.

The Boston Transcript says of the late G. Herbert Lee, whose death occurred last week: "For a number of years past he had resided in Boston, being engaged in life insurance and literary work. He has written considerably for the press, but rarely over his own signature. He possessed an splendid knowledge of British and Colonial history and politics."

TO OUR READERS The circulation of the Times on Saturday was the largest of any single issue of this paper since it was established. The steady progress made in circulation is the expression of popular approval of the efforts to produce a one-cent paper that is in all respects the equal or superior of any afternoon paper east of Montreal.

NOTICE The season for special fall advertising is at hand, merchants are considering the best medium through which to make their announcements. They will find in the journal that goes into the homes of the people the medium they seek. The Times is such a journal, and it is progressive. There is a mutual advantage when the progressive merchant and the progressive journal get together.

POLICE COURT Three drunks were fined $5 each in the police court this morning. Herbert Lobb was reported by caretaker Burns for trotting a team of horses over the suspension bridge yesterday. The defendant stated that he was a driver for J. S. Gibbon & Co. and that when crossing the track on Douglas Avenue near the bridge the neck yoke gave way and the cart, which was loaded with coal, ran upon the bridge and started them going. He stated that he could not avoid the incident and after being cautioned about defective harness being no excuse the matter was allowed to stand against him.

LABOR DAY PICNIC The steamer Elaine has been chartered to take the members of Exmouth street church Sunday school to Long Point, Bellisle Bay, on Labor Day. The steamer will leave her wharf at 8.30 a. m., and will return about 3.30 p. m. The date of the excursion being a holiday, no doubt many will go with the excursionists and enjoy this beautiful sail on the river.

SECOND EDITION JAPAN YIELDED ALL TO RUSSIA AT LAST MUTE

Terms of Russian Ultimatum Are Practically Terms On Which Peace Will Be Concluded.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 29th.—The Japanese practically yielded everything. They accepted the Russian ultimatum, no indemnity and a division of Sakhalin without payment of redemption money. The Japanese yielded interned warships and limitation of naval power. The delegates will be called in afternoon session and the actual work on the elaboration of the treaty will be begun.

WHAT IS DOING AT LOCH LOMOND

A short distance beyond Elderslie Brook the "dry lake" is encountered. This has been a serious obstacle in the way of the contractors. A brief description of this lake will give a better idea of the work that has to be done. At first sight it looks like a big dry swamp, but on closer inspection it proves to be anything but dry. Looking in the direction of Lake Latimer, on the right of the proposed pipe line, say about 50 to 100 feet, there is a little brook running through it. This is the water supply from Lake Latimer, which is now emptying into Elderslie Brook and from there going down to the reservoir. A narrow board runs along the side of the stream which is intended to keep the water from overflowing into the bog, in the direction of the pipe line. This it does, after a fashion, though the bog is completely soaked with water, making a slimy cone, which, if one were not careful in keeping on the planks which have been laid along the line of the works, would quickly swallow up any who were unwary enough to make a false step. The whole bed of the lake is covered with turf, which if once broken acts very much in the manner of a quicksand. The contractors have driven planks fifteen feet in length, close together on each side of what is intended to be the trench.

FOREST FIRES

Much Damage Done by Them in Various Parts of New Brunswick and Maine.

Many sections throughout the province and border towns are threatened with destruction by forest fires and in some places the situation is becoming serious. Jean Vanour of St. Nabor, N. B., lost his main crop of apples and some of the large blocks of land at Coal Branch are ruined, and Stephen Parrar's house at Lorne narrowly escaped destruction yesterday. Farmers in the vicinity of Moncton are grazing for the hope that the grain crops will be saved. The situation at Salisbury is becoming serious, the houses and barns owned by Geo. Roper, Joseph Horrocks, William McPherson and Humphrey Milton's new houses are threatened. Forest fires are raging within thirty miles of Millville, N. B., but are worst around Brasgville in the town of Sherman. Brasgville was destroyed by a forest fire two years ago. There are also fires in the line of the Grand Falls railway toward Greenville. Yesterday afternoon a forest fire broke out at Grand Falls, and the company's crew are fighting the flames. The Medusessacke lumber Co.'s mill and houses are threatened. It is not possible to make an estimate of the damage done by the forest fires, but the loss has not been heavy in any section.

CASE DISMISSED

Charge of Liquor Selling Against J. E. Watters of Carleton Falls Through.

The case against J. Everett Watters, druggist, in Carleton, for alleged selling of liquor on Sunday, 20th inst., was called today after several witnesses had been examined during the hearing. All the witnesses called stated that they did not procure any liquor from Mr. Watters' drug store, one of them alleging this morning that he had been refused it on several occasions. Judge Ritchie stated that there was no evidence that Mr. Watters was guilty of the charge preferred against him, and dismissed the case. Mr. Henderson proceeded and E. S. Hall was defended.

ALONG THE RIVER

The resorts along the river are, so far as summer residents are concerned, mostly deserted. Brown's Flats, where many St. John families reside during the summer months, is now a quiet place. The majority of cottages within the camp grounds are closed and will not again be opened until next summer. The grounds at Brown's Flats were this summer kept cleaner and were beautified more than ever before. Beach resident took a special pride in keeping his property neat, and the result was that all through the summer the grounds were kept in good condition that favorable comments were passed by Americans and other visitors to this pretty resort. At the Cedars some boarders remain, but during the past two weeks many have moved to their city homes. At Evandale things are also quiet, and although some St. John people are still there many have packed up and moved to their city homes for the winter. The river steamers are not doing a heavy passenger business now. This season, compared with last, has been better with the steamboat people. As many tourists did not patronize the boats this summer, but the number of regular passengers nearly doubled that of last summer. The heaviest month this season for tourist business on the steamers has been August.

PARENTS VS. THE SCHOOL

The man who knows his business or art thoroughly and knows how to present and impart that knowledge to others is his personality as forceful. Such a man has full charge of the teaching affairs of the Currie Business University, Limited. All too many parents depend upon their own impressions, even in the economy of time and money. They neglect to inquire in them the highest ambitions and aims in life, especially that all-important one of a fixed purpose and a determination to do well everything that is worth doing at all. During their school days such children do absolutely nothing to lighten the parental burdens, and in their school studies invariably resort to cribbing and cramming in order to grade. When such pupils enter the Currie Business University, they are compelled to give up dishonest and careless habits, as the system of training completely prevents any kind of cheating. If they refuse to give up these habits they cannot advance, as nothing but honest effort is required. When they do not advance they offer excuses, but talk will never cover deficiencies, nor will any amount of explanation or excuse prevail in the face of continual failure. They must do something at all. They must do something "get busy" and "do it now." The Currie Business University, Ltd., offers one week's trial, with expert advice as to possibilities of a prospective student's success free of charge.

THE CENTRAL RAILWAY

Gilmour and D. W. Brown, the contractors who are doing the repair work on the Central Railway, are in the city. In conversation with Gilmour Brown this morning, he said they were here to get machinery and tools to carry on the work. They have a crew of men on the way now, putting in concrete piers at Norton, and expect by the last of this week to have about fifty men working. They are putting on men as fast as they can get them in order to get as much done as possible before the cold weather sets in.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

New Victoria — Richard Whitehead, Boston; Thomas Bradshaw, New York; Arthur Bamfield, Chicago; John Maxwell, Toronto.

EQUITY COURT

In the matter of John H. Tingley vs. Martha Tingley et al. M. G. Reed moved to take the bill pro confesso against the defendant Martha Tingley for want of appearance and for judgment on affidavits of the same of action against the infants, Henry, Jessie and Edith Tingley, order granted.

Officer McCollom knows the name of one of the participants in last night's fight on Germain street, and the offender will have to either answer out a warrant for the arrest of his last night's opponent or be locked up himself, charged with fighting on one of the public streets of the city.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

Miss Maud Morris leaves for Philadelphia this evening, via Boston, by the Calvin Austin. She has enjoyed three weeks of New Brunswick scenery and delightful weather. She returned last evening from the Rhine of America. John E. Moore returned from Grand Falls yesterday. Misses Maud McLaughlin, Jennie Stentford and Jessie Maxwell returned to the city Monday after spending a few weeks at Brown's Flats. Miss Blanch H. Fairweather, who recently graduated from the Quincy (Mass.) hospital, arrived this morning on the steamer Calvin Austin, and left on the noon train for her home in Sussex. B. S. Porter of Worcester (Mass.) arrived this morning on the steamer Calvin Austin, and is visiting his nephew, Dr. W. F. Roberts, Douglas avenue.
