SMALLPOX CENTRES IN KENT COUNTY WILL BE RIGIDLY QUARANTINED

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 31.—(Special).—Dr. E. Bayard Carter, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, arrived in the city last night, and went through to Right-brook this morning to take charge of the small-pox situation in Kent. He had an interview with the Moncton health authorities in regard to the situation and proposes to establish a rigid quarantine in the infected districts. Father Legere of St. Paul, Kent, who is in the city this morning, confirms the statement of the condition of things at St. Norberts. If the disease is to be stamped out, he says, the authorities will have to deal with it more vigorously than in the past.

The temperance people here at a meeting last night, decided to secure the services of E. Tenyson Smith, the noted English temperance worker for a ten days' campaign, after he finishes his St. John engagement.

ATTACKED BY TOUGHS

J. W. Smith Has an Unpleasant Experience on Erin Street.

J. W. Smith, while driving a party in from Loch Leonard, last night was attacked by a crowd of toughs, at the foot of Erin street. His wagon was stoned and he narrowly escaped bodily injury as the hands of the disorderly gang.

He had reached a point almost opposite the Lawton Co. factory, when, he was greeted by a shower of stones, which came seemingly from all directions. Mr. Smith was driving a double seated buggy and the horses naturally were startled. The gang followed him up and it was only by starting the horses at a sharp trot that he finally succeeded in making his escape.

This is not the only trouble of the kind that has occurred in the city within the past few weeks, and, despite the repeated warnings of the police magistrate, the tougher element seem to stand out in open defiance of the police authorities.

FROM WEDDING BELLS TO FUNERAL CHIMES

Ingersoll Ont. Minister Dies as He Was About to Officiate at His Sons Wedding.

INGERSOLL, Ont. Oct. 31.—(Special).—In the home of Rev. E. R. Hunt, yesterday, there was a sudden transition from joy to sorrow, Rev. Mr. Hunt, who was a Presbyterian minister, being found dead of heart failure in a chair in his study just two hours before the time at which he was to have officiated at the wedding of his second son, Harold. The marriage was to have taken place at the residence of Mr. Hunt's eldest son, R. B. Hunt, assistant manager of the St. Charles Cementing Company. The wedding guests were in the house at the time Mr. Hunt passed away. Rev. Mr. Hunt was in his 68th year, and was suffering upon the 18th year of his catarrh of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. He had been ailing for the past couple of years, being off duty for several months a year ago, but recently he seemed to be improving. He was widely known as a clear and forcible speaker both in the pulpit and on the public platform. A widow and five children, three sons, and two daughters survive.

ELECTRIC CAR AND TEAM COLLIDED

Quite a commotion was caused at Ingersoll this morning shortly before eleven o'clock by an electric car bumping into a sloven, which was heavily laden with sundry produce.

The electric car was coming around the sharp turn at Ingersoll, which was in charge of a man just learning the duties of motorman. An experienced hand was directing him, but he did not take possession of the car before it was too late.

The owner of the vehicle is Sandy Day, who was placing a barrel, which had fallen off upon the team. The sloven was on the track when the car came along, and Mr. Day states that no bell was sounded, nor did the man hesitate in jumping into the car, which was lifted clear of the track by the force of the car. The king bolt in the sloven was broken and Mr. Day, who had one of his limbs slightly hurt, experienced some difficulty in getting the vehicle in readiness to take the produce to the country market.

Fortunately the horses attached to the sloven were uninjured, although one of them was on the track when the accident occurred.

ST. JOHN INVESTOR MAKES LARGE PROFIT

Business Notices

The M. R. A. furniture sale moves merely on Tuesday after tomorrow, and gains some fittings are going to various parts of the city each day. New features are added as the week goes along, and tomorrow Saturday's display will be an assortment quite satisfactory to all callers. It is a well-known fact that M. R. A. furniture is not common furniture; it is good enough for any home, and superior to most bargain goods of the kind.

Appearances are not against us, and that is one good point, we make the best appearance as a shoe store of any in the lower provinces, probably excepting one in Montreal. We have three large windows wide and spacious, full of the best fall footwear to be found in Canada. The goods speak for themselves, they are nicely displayed, particularly the Gold Bond window. The slippers displayed for evening wear are just the thing. Our new fall style in ladies' shoes are poems. Where can this display be seen but at Wm. Young's, Main street. See adv't. page 7.
