WASHINGTON CLUB BILLED FOR TORONTO

Transfer May Be Made Before Spring—Walter Johnson Sold to Cleveland

New York, Oct. 17.—Several rumors which persisted throughout the closing months of the major league campaigns have revived since the late world's series. They are stories that have been denied repeatedly, but which appear to have some ground for truth because of the very persistency with which they are revived from time to time.

The story will not down that the American League circuit is to be slightly remodeled before another championship season. Washington, gossip says, will not be represented in the Johnson ring another year. Toronto is to replace the capital city. Toronto, in spite of the war, is enjoying a wonderful prosperity in sports of all sorts. Napoleon Lajoie's pennant winners of the International League made a far better financial showing than most of the major league clubs. Another rumor is to the effect that Walter Johnson has been sold to Cleveland. Announcement may be made during the annual meeting of the American League.

Another rumor has to do with the Boston club of the National League. James E. Gaffney and his associates who formerly controlled the Braves, and who built Braves' Field, are to be in control next season, it is said. The present stockholders, who backed Percy D. Houghton, are said to be very tired of their bargain. At the time Gaffney and his business associates sold the Braves arrangements were made by the new owners so that the club could be turned back for a certain consideration provided those now in control desired to withdraw from baseball within a given period. Up Boston way the fans are certain that Gaffney will be the big boss again before the campaign of 1918. Gaffney's return would be welcomed in the Hub, for he was always popular there, and the team enjoyed its greatest success during his administration.

Married At Sixteen; Boy Now Youngest Alimony Club Member

Beginning at sixteen years of age as a member of the Alimony Club, the friends of Thomas Murphy, Jr., of Cornwall, N.Y., see an exciting but gloomy future for him. Thomas has just been released from the Goshen jail after being there four weeks for failing to pay his bride alimony of $5 a week.

Thomas and a girl of eighteen ran away from her home in Highland Falls, early in the summer, and were married. He soon tired of his contract and enlisted in the navy. His bride found him, caused his discharge because of his youth, and then induced Judge Cantline at Goshen to order the boy to pay her $5 a week for her support. He failed to do so and she had him sent to jail, thus making him the youngest member of the Alimony Club.

After four weeks of jail life Thomas promised the Judge that he would make the payments, and he was released.

Got it from Hearsay

A group of old ladies were talking and knitting on a veranda. The conversation got around to how much each weighed at birth. One old lady said: "Well, I weighed just three pounds and a half."

The others gasped and one of them asked: "And did you live?"

"They say I did," answered the other woman, "and done well."
