SINGENNES MEETS WITH ACCIDENT IS; TOWED DOWN RIVER

While on her way down river yesterday morning about 11 o'clock the steamer Singennes broke one of her paddles. The accident happened when the steamer was just across the river above Evandale. It is thought the wheel struck a log and the iron rim that holds the paddles was knocked off. As soon as it was found that the boat was disabled the anchor was thrown overboard but as there was quite a little wind at the time and the water was very deep at the place, probably about fifty feet, the anchor dragged on did not reach bottom, and the steamer drifted across to Evandale.

A NEW STORY

The Furnace of Gold; Opening Chapters in The Times-Star Tomorrow A new serial story of absorbing interest, as its name indicates, will be begun in the Times-Star Tomorrow. It is well told and will be found to grip the attention at the outset and hold it to the close. Be sure to read the opening installment; after that there will be no need to call further attention to it; the story will command that itself.

Friday's Services in Trinity This appears to be some confusion in the public mind concerning the services in Trinity church on Friday. The whole militia force will not attend the morning service, but only the officers, along with civic and other representatives, and the public generally. Only the military will attend the afternoon service.

JUDGE McLEOD SPEAKS OF THE KING'S DEATH

Holds His First Sitting of Chancery Division This Morning—A Number of Cases Up

Mr. Justice McLeod opened his first sitting of the Chancery Division this morning in the Fugatey building. By the provisions of the judicature act, two judges are assigned to preside over the chancery court instead of one as under the old practice. Chief Justice Barker has been judge in equity and Mr. Justice McLeod was appointed by him to act with him in chancery.

In opening the May sittings of the court, His Honor took the occasion to refer to his appointment by the chief justice and to the death of His Majesty King Edward VII. Several prominent barristers were in court when His Honor mentioned His late Majesty's name and they arose to their feet and with bowed heads listened to His Honor's fitting eulogy of the departed monarch.

His Honor said in part: "It is but fitting that I should, on this occasion, address a few words on the death of our late sovereign King Edward VII. He was a great king and a great man. The external affairs of the government occupied his attention and many a crisis was overcome by his diplomacy. The loss which the empire has sustained seems to me irreparable, but in his son and successor, His Majesty King George V., we have a good king."

"King Edward was called by the peace-maker, and rightly so. We, the Canadian people, loyal to the mother country, join with the rest of the colonies in mourning King George V. has had excellent training and of him we expect great things. The King is dead, long live the King."

The case of the Hon. William Pugsley, K. C. M. P., vs. the New Brunswick Coal Company, goes over until the July session of the court. Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., C. C., the defendant.

The case of the attorney-general vs. the St. John Lumber Company, on the application of T. P. Regan, stood over until the July sittings.

On motion of M. G. Teed, K. C., the case of Shaw et al vs. Robinson et al was stood over until the July sittings. W. W. Allen, K. C., and Hon. H. F. McLeod for the defendants, consenting.

The following common motions were made— R. A. Borden, of Moncton, moved for the appointment of a guardian in the matter of Wasil McDonald and others, infants. The court considers.

H. H. Pickett read the petition of Robert C. Mosher, an infant, by his mother and next friend, Sarah Mosher, asking for the appointment of his mother as guardian and leave to sell his interest in certain real estate in St. Martin's. The court considers.

D. King Hazen, in the matter of Harriet O. Howard, a lunatic, presented the petition of Hon. J. D. Hazen asking to be appointed a committee to look after the personal affairs of the lunatic. This was granted.

Mr. Mallin, K. C., on behalf of the committee, moved to reaffirm the report of Charles F. Sanford, master in Chancery, in the matter of James McGivrey, a lunatic. W. W. Allen, K. C., Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., and Edmund S. Ritchie, opposed the application in part. Mr. Mallin appeared for the committee, Beverly Steves, James A. McGivrey and Andrew McNeil. Mr. Allen appeared for Margaret Golden and William H. Golden. Dr. Wallace appeared for William J. Golden and thirteen others. Mr. Ritchie for John McGivrey. The court considers.

The court adjourns sine die.

MANY ATTENDED THE FUNERAL OF AUSTIN McLAUGHLIN

The esteem in which Austin P. McLaughlin was regarded, was shown this morning by the large attendance at his funeral, which took place at 8 o'clock from his residence in Brussels street. ARTILLERY RIFLE CLUB ANNUAL MEETING LAST NIGHT

The annual meeting of the 3rd Regiment Rifle Club was held last evening. Good reports for the past year were received and officers were elected. Major S. B. Smith was chosen president; Lieut. M. Robb, secretary; Gunner A. I. McIntosh, assistant secretary.

It was decided to affiliate with the Provincial Rifle Association and take part in the shoot at Sussex. The club will open its season on the local range on May 24, and will contest the Solomon Cup match on June 11.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the cash prizes and other fixtures of the season.

GETS ANGRY IN COURT STRIKES MR. PEDERSEN

In the police court this morning Hans Pedersen, forist, was accused by a Danish workman of not paying him his wages, the plaintiff stating that he had received only $4.10 for three months' work. He said he contracted to work for Mr. Pedersen for six months at $96, but left this week, and wanted his money. He became enraged in discussing the matter, and struck Mr. Pedersen, breaking his glasses, and may now be called on to answer an assault charge. The matter was adjourned in order that it might be settled out of court. H. H. Pickett appeared for Mr. Pedersen.

All non-commissioned officers and men of No. 7 Company, C. A. S. C. are required to meet at their armory, Germain street tonight at 8 o'clock.
