LONG PADDLE TO THE SCOUT CAMP

Three Lads Came Down in Canoe from Woodstock —
All Goes Well.

The Boy Scout camp at Bellefleur is very well attended having at present sixty boys. These scouts represent Fredericton, Woodstock, Moncton, Sussex, Hillsboro, and St. John. Three of the boys paddled down to the camp from Woodstock last week, a distance of more than 250 miles, arriving on Sunday night. There is an excellent swimming place near the camp with a good sloping sandy beach and there the scouts who can swim spend a great deal of time, while those who have not yet learned are trying to get the idea as soon as possible. Since swimming is one of the qualifications for the first class badge.

V. C. Timberly, assistant provincial secretary for the Boy Scouts of Nova Scotia is at the camp and in charge of the swimming. Mr. Timberly is himself an excellent swimmer and under his supervision the boys will advance in the aquatic art.

Scout Master Andy Watson of Sydney is also at the camp. Towards the end of the week the first and second class badges will be held as well as those for the service badges. The boys are having the time of their lives at the camp and everything is going smoothly. Mr. Eaman left for the camp yesterday.

N. B. JEWELERS ORGANIZE HERE

The Jewelers of New Brunswick entered the Canadian National Jewelers' Association yesterday when an organization meeting was held and a dinner at Bond's restaurant tendered to the visiting jewelers. The organization is to be known as the New Brunswick Jewelers' Association. H. C. Page, of the city, was elected chairman of the provincial branch, which was divided into two districts, the St. John and Moncton districts. The dinner, which was attended by about fifty jewelers, was a great success and it was addressed by M. C. Ellis, of Toronto, president of the Canadian National Jewelers' Association, who was present to assist in the organization of the New Brunswick branch which is the last to enter the dominion association. His Worship Mayor Schofield was present at the banquet and he welcomed the visiting jewelers to the city.

The first district, known as the Moncton district, includes Moncton, Campbellton, Bathurst, Newcastle, Chatham, Shediac and Port Elgin. The second district, it is known as the St. John district, includes Sussex, Fredericton, Woodstock, St. Stephen, Dorchester, St. Andrews and St. John.

The following officers were elected: H. C. Page, chairman (St. John); S. Melanson, vice-chairman (Moncton); C. G. Goggin, secretary-treasurer (Moncton). The officers of the St. John district for the coming year are: A. Shute, vice-chairman (Fredericton); Edwin A. Ellis, secretary-treasurer (St. John); J. A. Gibson, director (Woodstock). The officers of the Moncton district: C. F. Gilmore, chairman; H. R. Humphrey, vice-chairman; J. H. Brown, secretary-treasurer; J. H. Brown, secretary-treasurer; J. H. Brown, secretary-treasurer.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The members of the Red Cross Society at Richibucto were entertained on Monday evening by an address delivered before them by Miss Rudolph, representative of the New Brunswick branch of the Dominion Red Cross. The lecture was well illustrated by illuminated charts and a great deal of information was imparted.

A serious accident occurred near Enfield this week when a car driven by a welder collided with a carriage in which were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kirkpatrick, of Peterson Settlement. Mrs. Kirkpatrick sustained serious injuries, which may prove fatal. The automobile was travelling at a high rate of speed when it struck the carriage.

Edmund Thibodeau, a war veteran, was drowned while bathing at Burnt Church, N. B., on Monday. He was carried over his depth and was drowned before help arrived.

Mystery surrounds the death of Daniel M. Beaton, aged thirty-one, of New Glasgow, who was found by an automobile party yesterday morning lying on South street, Glace Bay. The police suspect murder as the man had been lighting earlier in the night.

A young man, of Boston, who has been sending fictitious news to several newspapers, including some in St. John, has been arrested by United States marshals on the charge of issuing false stories concerning the young girl students of Wellesley, Smith, Mount Holyoke and other colleges.

Edmund Thibodeau, of Onalawa, captain of the United Farmer party of Colchester last night to oppose the election of Hon. F. B. McDermid, minister of public works, at the by-election on September 20.

Frank E. Smith, Liberal member of the Nova Scotia house of assembly for Shelburne, and colleague of Hon. Robert Irwin, has resigned in order to make his seat available for Hon. E. H. Armstrong, commissioner of works and mines, who was defeated in Yarmouth county at the last election.

A large brass tablet mounted on oak has been dedicated by the Anglican parish of Norton to the memory of the late Rev. Canon Clarence Peters Hamilton, a former rector of Norton.

BOY IS RE-CAPTURED.
A boy from Coal Branch, who had been serving some time in the Boys' Industrial Home here, and who made his escape in July, was not re-captured until yesterday. He is accused of the theft of a purse containing a railway pass and two cents from a lady resident of Coal Branch. Inspector Collins, of Moncton, went to Coal Branch and made the arrest. The lady will not prosecute on this charge, but the boy will be sent back to the home. He had served but a short time of his three year sentence when he made his escape.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Greig-Gordon.

The home of Mrs. Frederick Pellow, 112 Pitt street, was the scene of a quiet wedding ceremony on July 30, when Miss Eva E. Gordon of St. John became the bride of Robert W. Greig of Scotland. Rev. Samuel Howard of the Union Methodist church performed the ceremony. The bride wore a tailored suit of navy blue serge and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. After the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Greig will leave in the near future for Ottawa, where they will reside.

Ogilvy-Kilburn.

At the home of the bride at Kilburn, N. B., on Aug. 11, Miss Evelyn Kilburn, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Kilburn, was united in marriage to John Ogilvy, of Oxbow, N. B. Her mother gave her in marriage. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by George Tennant of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Fleming. There were no attendants. The house was beautifully decorated. After the ceremony and reception, supper was served. Many beautiful presents were received. The guests from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean of St. John, Mrs. Theodore H. Estabrooks and Mrs. Wm. C. Rising of St. John. Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy left by motor on a two weeks' camping trip, after which they will make their home at Kilburn.

At the home of the bride's parents in Truro a very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon when Elizabeth Blanche Fuller was united in marriage to William Anderson Graham Stevens of Bathurst, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Fraser. The bride wore a lace over white silk with veil of white tulle. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Freda Fuller, her sister, was bridesmaid. William Pierce of Halifax was groomsmen. The groom is a returned soldier.

In St. John the Baptist church, yesterday, Rev. Simon Orm united in marriage with Nuptial Mass, Miss Lucy Couture of Bathurst and George Daniel Beckingham. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of navy blue satin and carried a white prayer book. The witnesses were Miss Alice Soud-grass and James Gillies. The groom is a music teacher and has been residing with his brother at 108 Carmarthen street.

A very pretty wedding took place recently at Kilburn, N. B., when Miss Evelyn Kilburn became the bride of John Ogilvy. The wedding ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. Charles Fleming in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of dark blue with a black lace feather veil and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was given away by her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Kilburn.

A very pretty ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Lillian London, in Fredericton, N. B., on Tuesday afternoon, when her daughter, Hazel Maud London, was united in marriage to John D. H. Murray. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chene, a bridal veil held in place by a band of pearls, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maidenhair fern. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Louise Carle.

Come, Girls! TALK!

Are you getting wise as to what the Y. W. C. A. appeal means?

A little bit of pep is all that is needed to get the helpful spirit that is looked for.

Are you talking together about it at home, in the store, on the street? Collect from everybody. Home folks will help, busy folks and brothers and sisters love to help. Everyone thinking sister will enjoy gymnastic next winter, little sister hoping she can go, too. Soon all kinds of ideas develop just by talking. Picnics, sales, and dances help out to raise part and friends give what they can—$25.00 doesn't look so big. Try it.
